

103^D CONGRESS
2^D SESSION

H. CON. RES. 294

Expressing the sense of the Congress that the Department of Housing and Urban Development should not interfere with the exercise of the right of free speech, the right of free association, or the right to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

SEPTEMBER 22, 1994

Mr. LEACH submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Banking, Finance and Urban Affairs

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the Congress that the Department of Housing and Urban Development should not interfere with the exercise of the right of free speech, the right of free association, or the right to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

Whereas the freedom of speech protected under the first amendment to the Constitution of the United States is one of the guiding principles of this Nation: Now, therefore, be it

- 1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
- 2 concurring), That it is the sense of the Congress that the
- 3 Department of Housing and Urban Development should
- 4 not take any action that compromises, suppresses, or

1 interferes with the exercise by any individual of the right
2 of free speech, the right of free association, or the right
3 to petition the Government for a redress of grievances
4 through the legislative, executive, or judicial process.
