

103<sup>D</sup> CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. J. RES. 165

Designating the week beginning January 2, 1994, as ‘National Law Enforcement Training Week’.

---

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 29, 1993

Mr. CASTLE (for himself and Mrs. VUCANOVICH) introduced the following joint resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service

---

JOINT RESOLUTION

Designating the week beginning January 2, 1994, as ‘National Law Enforcement Training Week’.

Whereas law enforcement training and the sciences related to law enforcement are critical to the immediate and long-term safety and well-being of the United States because law enforcement professionals provide service and protection to individuals in all sectors of society;

Whereas law enforcement training is a critical component of national efforts to protect the people of the United States from violent crime, to combat the malignancy of illicit drugs, and to apprehend criminals;

Whereas law enforcement training serves the hard-working and law-abiding people of the United States;

Whereas it is essential that the people of the United States be able to enjoy an inherent right of freedom from fear and to learn of the significant contributions that law enforcement trainers have made to ensure that right;

Whereas, to take advantage of the opportunities that law enforcement provides, it is vital to build and maintain a motivated law enforcement work force that is educated and trained in the skills of law enforcement and the sciences related to law enforcement;

Whereas it is in the national interest to stimulate and encourage the youth of the Nation to understand the significance of law enforcement training to the law enforcement profession and to the safety and security of all of the people of the United States;

Whereas it is in the national interest to encourage the youth of the Nation to appreciate the intellectual fascination of law enforcement training; and

Whereas it is in the national interest to make the youth of the Nation aware of career options available in law enforcement and disciplines related to law enforcement:
Now, therefore, be it

1        Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives

2        of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3        That the week beginning January 2, 1994, is designated

4        as “National Law Enforcement Training Week”. The

5        President is authorized and requested to issue a proclama-

6        tion calling on the people of the United States to observe

1 the week with appropriate ceremonies and activities, in-
2 cluding programs designed to heighten the awareness of
3 the people of the United States, and particularly the youth
4 of the Nation, of the importance of law enforcement train-
5 ing and related disciplines.

○