1ST SESSION

H. J. RES. 194

To designate the week beginning September 19, 1993, as “National Historically Black Colleges Week”.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MAY 10, 1993

Mr. SPENCE introduced the following joint resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service

JOINT RESOLUTION

To designate the week beginning September 19, 1993, as “National Historically Black Colleges Week”.

Whereas there are 107 Historically Black Colleges and Universities in the United States;

Whereas such colleges and universities provide the quality education so essential to full participation in a complex, highly technological society;

Whereas black colleges and universities have a rich heritage and have played a prominent role in American history;

Whereas such institutions have allowed many underprivileged students to attain their full potential through higher education; and

Whereas the achievements and goals of the Historically Black Colleges and Universities are deserving of national recognition: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives

2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 That the week beginning September 19, 1993, is des-

4 ignated as “National Historically Black Colleges Week”

5 and the President is authorized and requested to issue a

6 proclamation calling upon the people of the United States

7 and interested groups to observe such week with appro-

8 priate ceremonies, activities, and programs, thereby dem-

9 onstrating support for Historically Black Colleges and

10 Universities in the United States.
