HEARING ON IMPEDIMENTS TO VOTER ENFRANCHISEMENT

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 5, 2007

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
COMMITTEE ON HOUSE ADMINISTRATION,
Washington, DC.

The committee met, pursuant to call, at 10:10 a.m., in room 400 of Philadelphia City Hall, Hon. Robert Brady (chairman of the subcommittee) presiding.

Members Present: Representatives Brady and Lofgren.

The CHAIRMAN. I would like to call our hearing of the Committee on House Administration to order, and I know all of our witnesses are here and I ask them if they wouldn't mind please taking the witness table.

First of all, and in my mind most importantly, I want to thank Zoe Lofgren for coming here. Zoe is also the Vice-Chairwoman of this Committee, and she is the Chairperson of the Subcommittee on Elections. She is from the great state of California, a long way from here, and she graciously agreed to come and spend a couple of hours with us today, then we are going to try to let her see some of our great sights in the City of Philadelphia. If anyone has any recommendations, we could surely use them. Thank you for participating in this hearing and enjoying our city.

We have with us today the Deputy Secretary of Administration Thomas Weaver, Commissioner Edgar Howard, Chairperson of the Commissioners, and Commissioner Marge Tartaglione and Mr. Bobby Lee, who has been around, as long as this building has been around. I appreciate your participation. It is my pleasure to be here and call this hearing to order. Members of the committee, witnesses and guests, I am pleased to bring the Committee on House Administration to Philadelphia today to discuss Impediments to Voter Enfranchisement. The right to vote and access to the polls are fundamental to our democracy. I want to get this hearing on the record. I want to get your testimony on the record, because there are a few things happening in the Supreme Court, and there are a lot of things happening in the United States of America. We want to be able to say that our city has one of the best voting systems in the nation. I have all the expert witnesses. We also invited—in our city we have three Commissioners—a Congresslady, and one is of the minority, and we invited the minority Commissioner, Mr. Joe Duda, and hoped that he would come. He is a Commissioner of the Republican Party. So this is a bipartisan hearing. Since this nation was founded, we expanded the right to vote to include non-land owners, minorities, women, and 18-year-old citizens.

I am interested in learning how today's witnesses have overcome problems with casting ballots.

We will hear suggestions on improving the voting process. In 2000, the nation and the world watched Florida's recount. It took 30-plus days for the Supreme Court to decide the outcome of the presidential race. We will all remember the problems with that election, the ballots and the hanging chads. The only Chad I knew of prior to that election was Chad Everett, and now we know of all kinds of pregnant chads and dangling chads and all different kinds of chads. In some ways that helped us and led to the passage of the Help America Vote Act. This committee had a lot to do with getting that bill through Congress. Traditionally, states have paved the course for running elections. States and counties have been forced to decide between funding the maintenance of roads, construction of schools, and a lot of other programs. In 2002, for the first time in the nation's history, they provided federal money to run federal elections. I know it was never enough, and we have to try to increase that. Here in Philadelphia, plenty of attempts have been made to disenfranchise poor and minority voters through intimidation and suppressive tactics. I expect we will hear a few stories today. One of the worst stories I have ever heard took place in a Milwaukee African-American neighborhood in 2004. An entire neighborhood was blanketed with misleading fliers from a fictional Milwaukee black voters' league. These fliers falsely claimed that voters could be ineligible to vote if they violated traffic laws, if any family members had criminal records, or if they voted in a previous election that year, they didn't need to vote this year. That sort of manipulation must be stopped. Another voting obstacle threatens voters across the nation. A handful of states have increased ID requirements at the polls. In fact, the Supreme Court is set to hear a case this term on the voter ID issue. The Committee will pay close attention to that case. If these voter ID laws are upheld, poor, elderly, minority, and disabled voters will be discouraged from voting. Congress should be working to ensure that every individual that is eligible to vote will be able to do so. We should not be in the business of creating roadblocks for Americans who qualify to vote. Dedicated public servants, volunteers, and community-based organizations, like the ones we will hear from today, have been helping to monitor and combat problems voters face on Election Day. Additionally, this year the House of Representatives took a major step to prevent voter intimidation and misleading tactics by passing the Deceptive Practices and Voter Intimidation Prevention Act. This legislation will go a long way to prevent misleading fliers and misleading information from being distributed. Overcoming these barriers and expanding opportunities at the voting booth are priorities of this committee. We have a lot of work ahead of us, but we are on top of it, and we are ready for the challenge.

Earlier this year a federal court upheld one of the most restrictive ID laws in the country. The Indiana law created unnecessary obstacles to citizens participating in federal elections and is nothing short of voter-suppression. I think it is unconstitutional in its application, and I intend to participate by filing an amicus brief with the Supreme Court, challenging the constitutionality of the law.

My constituents are among those who would be most affected were this type of law extended to Pennsylvania, and I will not sit idly by as the constitutional rights of my constituents are eroded. Justified on the basis of administrative convenience, I will commit more to this issue in the future. I just want to briefly talk about this voter ID card. We have been through these hearings, Ms. Lofgren more than I have, being the Chairwoman on the Subcommittee on Elections, and we have heard about these voter ID cards. The best example I have is my mom. My mom is 85 years old. She doesn't drive anymore, though she may still have her driver's license, I know it is probably not current. She doesn't have a passport, nor do I. She doesn't have a birth certificate, nor do I. If we need them, we get them as we need them, and I don't have a copy of that. These are some of the things that can be used, plus some bills that you pay for instance, an electric bill, heat bill or, water bill. A lot of people that live in public housing don't have those bills. These are some of the ID requirements that she would need to get a free ID voter card. So they say it is not an unfunded mandate, but we believe that it is, because to get the certificates that you need to get the ID card, you have to pay for them. Not only do you have to pay for them, but you also have to come into town or go someplace to get them, and that is an inconvenience. The last thing we need, is to set any kind of inconvenience up for any one of our people that want to come out and vote. We need to clear up those obstacles, not create more. That is the purpose of this hearing, and to get on the record and hear your thoughts and be able to take them back to Washington and have some documentation on the record that we can use for ammunition. We have to fight. We have to fight to make sure that that doesn't happen. So again, it is my distinct pleasure to introduce for her remarks Zoe Lofgren, the gentlelady from California. Again, I thank you for your participation.

CHA Oversight Hearing on
"Impediments to Voter Enfranchisement"

Philadelphia City Hall, Room 405
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
October 5, 2007
10:00 AM

OPENING STATEMENT OF
Chairman Robert A. Brady

The hearing will come to order. Good morning, Members of the Committee, witnesses, and guests. I'm very pleased to bring the Committee on House Administration to Philadelphia today to discuss impediments to voter enfranchisement.

The right to vote and access to the polls are fundamental to our democracy. Since the nation was founded, we've expanded the right to vote to include non-land owners, minorities, women, and 18 year olds. I am interested to learn how today's witnesses have overcome problems with casting ballots. I am also eager to hear their suggestions to improve the voting process.

In 2000, the nation and the world watched Florida's recount and the 30-plus days it took the Supreme Court to decide the outcome of the Presidential race. The problems with that election – we all remember the punch card ballots with hanging or pregnant chads -- led to the passage of the Help America Vote Act (HAVA). This committee had a lot to do with passing that bill.

Traditionally, states have paid the entire cost of running elections. States and counties have been forced to decide between funding the maintenance of roads, the construction of schools, or other vital programs. In 2002, for the first time in our nation's history, HAVA provided federal money to run Federal elections.

Here, in Philadelphia, we have seen plenty of attempts to disenfranchise poor and minority voters through intimidation and suppression tactics. I expect we will hear a few stories today. One of the worst stories I've heard, however, took place in Milwaukee's African American neighborhoods in 2004. Entire neighborhoods were blanketed with misleading flyers from a fictional `Milwaukee Black Voters League'. These flyers falsely claimed that voters could be ineligible to vote if they violated traffic laws, if any family members had criminal records, or if they voted in a previous election that year. This sort of manipulation must be stopped.

Another voting obstacle threatens voters across the nation. A handful of States have increased ID requirements at the polls. In fact, the Supreme Court is set to hear a case this term on the voter ID issue. This Committee will pay close attention to that case. If these voter ID laws are upheld, poor, elderly, minority, and disabled voters will be discouraged from voting. Congress should be working to ensure that every individual that is eligible to vote is enabled to do so. We should not be in the business of creating roadblocks for Americans who qualify to vote.

Dedicated public servants, volunteers, and community-based organizations like the ones we will hear from today have been helping to monitor and combat the problems voters face on Election Day. Additionally, this year the House of Representatives took a major step to prevent voter intimidation and misleading tactics by passing the Deceptive Practices and Voter Intimidation Prevention Act. This legislation will go a long way to prevent misleading flyers and information from being distributed.

Overcoming these barriers and expanding opportunities to the voting booth are priorities for this Committee. We've got a lot of work ahead of us, but we're up for the challenge.

I look forward to hearing from the witnesses.

Ms. LOFGREN. Well, thank you very much, Mr. Chairman, and thank you for holding this hearing, and thanks to the City of Philadelphia for letting us be in this beautiful room in this beautiful city.

I think this is an important topic for Philadelphia but also for the country. The Constitution says now, after much hard work over the decades, that all Americans get to vote. And so we need to examine when that right is threatened through procedural matters or the like. We need to make sure that if there are voter registration problems that prevent Americans from casting their votes that we address that. We need to attend to the lack of minority language election materials, when those are necessary. Make sure that the purging of voter lists doesn't improperly remove Americans who should be able to cast their votes. And that intimidation and other improper actions, such as intentional misinformation, doesn't have the effect of precluding Americans from voting.

You have mentioned quite properly the voter ID requirement. This is something that is now occurring across the United States, and I think it is pretty obvious that it is an effort to prevent Americans who are low income from exercising their right to vote. Earlier this week, we had on another subject a witness before the Election Subcommittee, from Arizona, who told us—I was stunned—that if you come to the polls in Arizona with a United States passport, it is not good enough. They still won't let you vote. It is not a sufficient voter ID. So I think we have a serious problem here. I commend the Chairman for his leadership in stepping forward. Certainly we know that the court may act, but they will act to decide whether a statute is constitutional or not. That really doesn't address the question of whether Congress should step in and make sure that these voter ID laws are not used to preclude low-income Americans and elderly Americans from exercising their basic American right. I thank the Chairman for recognizing me.

The CHAIRMAN. I thank the lady. Also I agree. I would like to thank Council President Anna Verna for allowing us to use these chambers and allowing us to have access to the staff and I thank the staff for being here today and for putting up with us for a couple hours. She is a lovely lady, and I do appreciate the Council President's courtesies.

What we would like to do is, we would like to hear testimony from our witnesses. We have a clock that I am not going to use. We are usually strict in Washington, but this is the City of Philadelphia. As Commissioner Howard said, this is the city of brotherly love and sisterly affection. So we will disregard the timer. We would like you to keep your remarks under five minutes. We will hear testimony from all four witnesses, and then we would hope that you could stay around and we will have some questions at the end. So, Deputy Secretary of Administration, Mr. Thomas Weaver, you may go first. Thank you.

STATEMENTS OF THOMAS WEAVER, DEPUTY SECRETARY OF STATE, COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA; MARGARET TARTAGLIONE, CHAIRWOMAN, PHILADELPHIA CITY COMMISSIONERS; AND EDGAR A. HOWARD, COMMISSIONER, PHILADELPHIA CITY COMMISSIONERS

STATEMENT OF THOMAS WEAVER

Mr. WEAVER. Thank you, Congressman and Congresswoman Lofgren, good morning. It is certainly a pleasure to be here this morning. And on behalf of Secretary Cortes, thank you for the invitation to appear and to discuss what you folks have already outlined as one of our most fundamental principles in our democracy, the importance of voting and ensuring a successful vote and voter participation.

Among its wide range of administrative responsibilities that affect all Pennsylvanians, the Pennsylvania Department of State oversees the elections process for all of Pennsylvania's 67 counties. Today I will briefly discuss how the Department works with counties to encourage voter participation and ensure that the Commonwealth has elections that are fair, accurate, and accessible.

I will also comment on any potential challenges that discourage broad voter participation, particularly proposals to require photo identification in order to cast a ballot.

As you are aware, and as you already mentioned, the federal Help America Vote Act of 2002 set forth numerous mandates, including standards for voting systems used in federal elections occurring after January 1, 2006. For Pennsylvania, that first election was the May primary of 2006. 12 systems are currently certified for use in Pennsylvania. These systems go through a two-tier testing process before the Secretary of the Commonwealth certifies them for use. The testing, coupled with the county's procedures and carefully monitored chain of custody, ensures that the votes cast will be accurately recorded and fairly counted. HAVA also sets forth requirements for accessibility and HAVA-compliant voting systems, allowing many voters with disabilities to vote independently for the first time.

In addition to accessible voting systems, the Department has implemented an initiative to work to make polling places more accessible. In addition to physical access, the need for access also extends to those with limited English proficiency. The Department is committed to providing the right to vote to all and has translated many forms into several languages. Currently present in Pennsylvania, the languages include Chinese, Korean, Russian, French, Cambodian, and Spanish.

In addition, the Department created a voting guide for new citizens, which was one of the first of its kind in the nation. The guide encourages our new citizens to become members of our democratic process. It is distributed at citizenship ceremonies and is being translated right now into five different languages. Another way to ensure fair, accurate, and accessible elections is to provide access to poll worker training. With input from counties, reviewing and updating the current election official and poll worker training certification programs, the Department is currently revising materials to incorporate two new sensitivity training programs for people with limited English proficiency and for people with disabilities. A video is also being created with HAVA funds to assist counties with training. Emphasizing procedures from the minute the polls open, to handling provisional ballots, canvassing the results, will be the goal of the training. We believe that better-informed poll workers will lead to better elections, and this training of elections officials is a top priority for the Department.

Public education, though, is also critical. To meet the need for voter education, the state created Ready, Set, Vote, a state-wide voter education and outreach campaign developed in 2006. This multi-media campaign covered topics ranging from basic voter registration information to voter education about HAVA-compliant voting systems. The effort includes outreach campaigns to a range of communities across the state and reached hundreds of thousands of Pennsylvanians for the 2006 primary and general elections. The next phase of the campaign for 2008 is currently underway and in the developmental stage.

I have covered how Pennsylvania works toward fair, accurate, and accessible elections. Now I want to turn my attention to the potential challenges that discourage broad voter participation, particularly proposals to require photo identification in order to cast a ballot. Reading numerous press reports, you hear of various types of impediments to voting, such as proposals to penalize groups for late registrations and legislation requiring proof of citizenship or proof of photo identification in order to vote.

In Pennsylvania, Governor Edward Rendell vetoed such a bill in 2006. In his veto message he stated—in quoting the Governor, he said, "At a time of growing apathy and cynicism among our citizens regarding elections, I believe that the government should be doing everything it can to encourage greater participation in the electoral process, not discouraging participation by placing additional limitations on the right to cast a vote. Moreover, without compelling evidence of a problem with the current system of voter identification in Pennsylvania, I see no reason to enact laws that will result in voter confusion, disenfranchisement to legitimately-registered voters. Some proponents of the bill claim that no one is actually being denied the right to vote. The voters are merely being asked to comply with a simple requirement meant to reduce the instances of voter fraud. They point to various acceptable forms of identification that are listed in the bill as support for their defense, that the provision is not an attempt to suppress turnout. Regardless of how long the list is of acceptable forms of identification, there are people who may not be in a position to produce any of them. People who live in a household where they lease, and utility bills are in someone else's names, people in nursing homes, and those who may have been temporarily displaced from the residence, to name just a few. As Federal Judge Harold Murphy very eloquently stated in a recent case discussing a similar bill enacted in Georgia, for those citizens, the character and magnitude of their injury, the loss of the right to vote, is undeniably demoralizing, extreme, as those citizens are likely to have no other realistic or effective means of protecting their rights. Others have suggested that this voter identification provision is needed to reduce the instances of voter fraud in Pennsylvania. However, I have not seen yet any evidence of widespread voter fraud impersonation in Pennsylvania that would justify imposing this additional burden on voters."

The Governor noted that the National Commissions on Election Reform found that there is no evidence that fraudulent acts the voter ID provision seeks to address exist anywhere in the United States. Voter photo ID requirements also would slow the voting process, create longer waiting periods before citizens could cast their votes. The result would likely be longer lines, longer wait times, which may serve to additionally disenfranchise voters and suppress turnout.

Mr. Chairman, Congresswoman, thank you again for the opportunity to be here and certainly be available for questions.

U.S. House of Representatives
Committee on House Administration Hearing
October 5, 2007
10 a.m.
Philadelphia City Hall, Room 405

Testimony of Deputy Secretary Thomas Weaver
Pennsylvania Department of State
Impediments to Voter Enfranchisement

Chairman Brady and members of the Committee on House Administration:

Good morning. Thank you for the invitation to appear before the Committee to discuss one of the most fundamental principles of our democracy: the right to vote and the importance of ensuring successful voter participation.

Among its wide range of administrative responsibilities that affect all Pennsylvanians, the Pennsylvania Department of State oversees the election process of the Commonwealth's 67 counties. Today I will briefly discuss how the Department works with the counties to encourage voter participation and ensure that the Commonwealth has elections that are fair, accurate and accessible. I will also comment on any potential challenges that discourage broad voter participation, particularly proposals to require photo identification in order to cast a ballot.

As you are aware, the federal Help America Vote Act of 2002 (HAVA) set forth numerous mandates, including standards for voting systems used in federal elections occurring after January 1, 2006. Counties chose from Department-certified systems to meet their federal obligation. HAVA-compliant voting machines needed to be in place by the first federal election of 2006, which was the Primary Election on May 16, 2006.

Twelve systems are currently certified for use in Pennsylvania. These systems go through a two-tiered testing process before the Secretary of the Commonwealth certifies them for use. The testing, coupled with the counties' procedures and a carefully monitored chain of custody, ensures that votes cast will be accurately recorded and fairly counted.

HAVA also set forth requirements for accessibility, and HAVA-compliant voting systems allowing many voters with disabilities to vote independently for the first time ever. In addition to accessible voting systems, the Department has implemented an initiative to work to make polling places more accessible.

In addition to physical access, the need for access also extends to those with limited English proficiency. The Department is committed to providing the right to vote to all, and has translated many of the forms into several languages currently present in Pennsylvania, including Chinese, Korean, Russian, French, Khmer (Cambodia) and Spanish. In addition, the Department created a Voting Guide for New Citizens, which is one of the first of its kind in the nation. The Guide encourages our newest citizens to become a member of our democratic process. It is distributed at citizenship ceremonies and is being translated into at least 5 different languages.

Another way to ensure fair, accurate and accessible elections is to provide access topollworker training. With input from counties, reviewing and updating the current election official and poll worker training/certification programs, the department is revising materials to incorporate two new sensitivity training programs for people with limited English proficiency and for people with disabilities. A video is also being created with HAVA funds to assist counties with training. Emphasizing procedures, from the opening of the polls to handling provisional ballots and canvassing the results, will be the goal of the training; better informed poll workers will lead to better elections. Election Official training is also a priority.

Public education is also critical. To meet the need for voter education, the state created Ready.Set.Vote., a statewide voter education and outreach campaign developed in 2006. This multimedia campaign covered topics ranging from basic voter registration information to voter education about using the HAVA-compliant voting systems. The effort included outreach campaigns to a range of communities across the state and reached hundreds of thousands of Pennsylvanians leading up to the 2006 Primary and General Elections. The next phase of the campaign is in the planning stages for the 2008 elections.

I have covered how PA works toward fair, accurate and accessible elections. Now I want to turn my attention to potential challenges that discourage broad voter participation, particularly proposals to require photo identification in order to cast a ballot

Reading press reports, you hear of various types of impediments to voting, such as proposals to penalize groups for late registrations and legislation requiring proof of citizenship or proof of photo identification in order to vote.

In Pennsylvania, Governor Edward G. Rendell vetoed such a bill in 2006. In his veto message, he stated:

"At a time of growing apathy and cynicism among our citizens regarding elections, I believe that the government should be doing everything it can to encourage greater participation in the electoral process, not discouraging participation by placing additional limitations on the right to cast a vote. Moreover, without compelling evidence of a problem with the current system of voter identification in Pennsylvania, I see no reason to enact laws that will result in voter confusion and disenfranchise legitimately registered voters...

Some proponents of the bill claim that no one is actually being denied the right to vote – that voters are merely being asked to comply with a simple requirement meant to reduce the instances of voter fraud. They point to the various acceptable forms of identification that are listed in the bill as support for their defense that the provision is not an attempt to suppress voter turnout. eloquently stated in a recent case discussing a similar bill enacted in Georgia, "For those citizens, the character and magnitude of their injury – the loss of the right to vote – is undeniably demoralizing and extreme, as those citizens are likely to have no other realistic or effective means of protecting their rights."

Others have suggested that this voter identification provision is needed to reduce the instances of voter fraud in Pennsylvania. However, I have not seen any evidence of widespread voter impersonation in Pennsylvania that would justify imposing this additional burden on voters."

The Governor noted that the National Commission on Election Reform found that there is no evidence that the fraudulent acts the voter ID provision seeks to address exist anywhere in the United States.

Voter photo ID requirements also would slow the voting process and create longer waiting periods before citizens could cast their votes. The result would likely be longer lines and wait times, which may serve to disenfranchise voters and lower voter turnout.

Once again, thank you for the opportunity to appear before you today. I welcome any questions you have at this time.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you, and thank you for your testimony. Commissioner Howard.

Mr. HOWARD. I will let the Chairperson speak first.

The CHAIRMAN. Chairperson Marge Tartaglione.

STATEMENT OF MARGARET M. TARTAGLIONE

Ms. TARTAGLIONE. Good morning. I am Margaret M. Tartaglione, Chairwoman of the City Commissioners. The City Commissioners are elected officials responsible for administration of voter registration and conduct of federal, state, and local elections in Philadelphia County. I have been an elected City Commissioner since 1976 and have experienced many changes in the election law.

The National Voter Registration Act of 1993, the opportunity for citizens to register and feel safe voting, to ensure they remain registered and eligible to vote and provide valuable information to the Commissioners in maintaining the accuracy and current of eligible voter files. The unfounded mandate also places substantial added responsibility on ongoing annual operations and cost to the county.

In 2002, in the welcome departure from the past practice of federal and state government, Congress passed a Help America Vote Act, which included funds to partially pay for the costs of implementing and mandating changes. The Help America Vote Act, HAVA, particularly reimbursed Philadelphia for the cost of our successful switch from aging mechanical lever voting machines to a proven accurate, responsible, durable, and efficient electronic voting system. HAVA funds were also used to upgrade the electronic machines for 2002 standards and improve accessibility for the visually impaired. Prior to the 2004 and 2006 federal general elections, HAVA funds were used to conduct a massive voter education program, including HAVA mailing to every voter an advertisement in three daily and 28 weekly community newspapers. All of these changes, whether at the federal or state level, have placed increased responsibility and unfunded ongoing costs upon county governments and elected officials. These changes have also substantially complicated the Election Day process for polling places' officials without any increased annual funding for compensation or training. Recently proposed in Congress to change election laws requiring every voter to produce photo ID at the polling place and foolishly rush into added requirements for paper verification to an electronic voting system will result in even more responsibility, more unfunded annual operating costs, further complicating the voting day process for all poll officials and voters, and potentially result in the disenfranchisement and uncounted votes. The most immediate threat to ensuring that all qualified Philadelphians be able to vote and be assured that their vote will be accurately counted or counted at all in the next two federal elections is H.R. Bill 811. This legislation would require that Philadelphia set aside its proven, accurate, electronic voting system and lease a paper percentage count, optional scan system for the next four years. Philadelphia has not voted on paper for more than 50 years. Paper systems allow too much devices in the way voters make their selection known, leading to voter intent issue and challenge. The Philadelphia City Commissioners join the ultimate number of state and local government organizations opposing H.R. 811 or any legislation that does not provide for a reasonable development, testing, and implementation period. Full funding authorization and appropriation and requirements that enable county election personnel to secure and officially ensure that every vote cast is accurately recorded, stored, and reported, and certified. We will be glad to provide the committee additional information on our concerns and issues with the H.R. 811 Bill and other pending federal legislation upon request. Thank you.

[The statement of Ms. Tartaglione follows:]

US HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
COMMITTEE ON HOUSE ADMINISTRATION
TESTIMONY OF MARGARET M. TARTAGLIONE, CHAIRWOMAN
PHILADELPHIA CITY COMMISSIONERS
HEARING – OCTOBER 5, 2007

GOOD MORNING. I AM MARGARET M. TARTAGLIONE, CHAIRWOMAN OF THE CITY COMMISSIONERS. THE CITY COMMISSIONERS ARE ELECTED OFFICIALS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE ADMINISTRATION OF VOTER REGISTRATION AND THE CONDUCT OF FEDERAL, STATE AND LOCAL ELECTIONS IN PHILADELPHIA COUNTY.

I HAVE BEEN AN ELECTED CITY COMMISSIONER SINCE 1976 AND HAVE EXPERIENCED MANY CHANGES IN ELECTION LAWS. THE NATIONAL VOTER REGISTRATION ACT OF 1993, INCREASED THE OPPORTUNITIES FOR CITIZENS TO REGISTER, ADDED FAIL SAFE VOTING TO INSURE THEY REMAIN REGISTERED AND ELIGIBLE TO VOTE, AND PROVIDED VALUABLE INFORMATION TO THE COMMISSION IN MAINTAINING THE ACCURACY AND CURRENCY OF THE ELIGIBLE VOTER FILES. THIS UNFUNDED MANDATE ALSO PLACED SUBSTANTIAL ADDITIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES AND ON-GOING ANNUAL OPERATING COSTS ON THE COUNTY.

IN 2002, IN A WELCOME DEPARTURE FROM PAST PRACTICES OF FEDERAL AND STATE GOVERNMENTS, CONGRESS PASSED THE HELP AMERICA VOTE ACT WHICH INCLUDED FUNDS TO PARTIALLY PAY FOR THE COST OF IMPLEMENTING THE MANDATED CHANGES. THE HELP AMERICA VOTE ACT, (HAVA), FUNDS PARTIALLY REIMBURSED PHILADELPHIA FOR THE COSTS OF OUR SUCCESSFUL SWITCH FROM AGING MECHANICAL LEVER VOTING MACHINES TO A PROVEN, ACCURATE, RELIABLE, DURABLE AND EFFICIENT ELECTRONIC VOTING SYSTEM.

HAVA FUNDS WERE ALSO USED TO UPGRADE THE ELECTRONIC MACHINES FOR THE 2002 STANDARDS AND PROVIDE ACCESSIBLILITY FOR THE VISUALLY IMPAIRED. PRIOR TO THE 2004 AND 2006 FEDERAL GENERAL ELECTIONS HAVA FUNDS WERE USED TO CONDUCT A MASSIVE VOTER EDUCATION PROGRAM INCLUDING HAVA MAILINGS TO EVERY VOTER AND ADVERTISEMENTS IN 3 DAILY AND 28 WEEKLY COMMUNITY NEWSPAPERS.

ALL OF THESE CHANGES, WHETHER AT THE FEDERAL OR STATE LEVEL, HAVE PLACED INCREASED RESPONSIBILITIES AND UNFUNDED ON-GOING COSTS UPON COUNTY GOVERNMENTS AND ELECTION OFFICIALS. THESE CHANGES HAVE ALSO SUBTANTIALLY COMPLICATED THE ELECTION DAY PROCESS FOR POLLING PLACE OFFICIALS, WITHOUT ANY INCREASE IN ANNUAL FUNDING FOR COMPENSATION OR TRAINING.

RECENT PROPOSALS IN CONGRESS TO CHANGE ELECTION LAWS REQUIRING EVERY VOTER TO PRODUCE PHOTO ID AT THE POLLS AND THE FOOLISH RUSH TO ADD REQUIREMENTS FOR PAPER VERIFICATION TO ELECTRONIC VOTING SYSTEMS WILL RESULT IN EVEN MORE RESPONSIBILITIES, MORE UNFUNDED ANNUAL OPERATING COSTS, FURTHER COMPLICATE THE VOTING DAY PROCESS FOR POLL OFFICIALS AND VOTERS, AND POTENTIALLY RESULT IN MORE DISENFRANCHISEMENT AND UNCOUNTED VOTES.

THE MOST IMMEDIATE THREAT TO INSURING THAT ALL QUALIFIED PHILADELPHIANS BE ABLE TO VOTE AND BE ASSURED THAT THEIR VOTE WILL BE ACCURATELY COUNTED, OR COUNTED AT ALL, IN THE NEXT TWO FEDERAL ELECTIONS IS HR 811.

THIS LEGISLATION WOULD REQUIRE THAT PHILADELPHIA SET ASIDE ITS PROVEN, ACCURATE ELECTRONIC VOTING SYSTEM AND LEASE A PAPER, PRECINCT COUNT OPTICAL SCAN SYSTEM FOR THE NEXT FOUR YEARS. PHILADELPHIANS HAVE NOT VOTED ON PAPER IN MORE THAN 50 YEARS. PAPER SYSTEMS ALLOW TOO MUCH DEVIANCE IN THE WAY VOTERS MAKE THEIR SELECTIONS KNOWN LEADING TO VOTER INTENT ISSUES AND CHALLENGES.

THE PHILADELPHIA CITY COMMISSIONERS JOIN THE UNLIMITED NUMBER OF STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT ORGANIZATIONS IN OPPOSING HR 811, OR ANY LEGISLATION THAT DOES NOT PROVIDE FOR REASONABLE DEVELOPMENT, TESTING AND IMPLEMENTATION PERIOD; FULL FUNDING AUTHORIZATION AND APPROPRIATION; AND REQUIREMENTS THAT ENABLE COUNTY ELECTION PERSONNEL TO SECURELY AND EFFICIENTLY INSURE THAT EVERY VOTE CAST IS ACCURATELY RECORDED, STORED, REPORTED AND CERTIFIED.

WE WILL BE GLAD TO PROVIDE THE COMMITTEE ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ON OUR CONCERNS AND ISSUES WITH HR 811 AND OTHER PENDING FEDERAL LEGISLATION UPON REQUEST.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you, Commissioner. Commissioner Howard.

STATEMENT OF EDGAR A. HOWARD

Mr. HOWARD. Good morning. It is indeed a pleasure to be here, and we thank you for this opportunity.

I just want to talk about voting in Philadelphia as mandated by Pennsylvania law. The qualifications of the voter are very brief. You have to be a citizen of the United States for one month before the election. You have to be a resident of Pennsylvania in your election district for 30 days before the next election. You will be 18 years of age on the day of the next election.

Philadelphia County is made up of 66 wards, with three wards being split into what we call A and B wards, so we have a total of 69. There are 1,681 political subdivisions in the City of Philadelphia. Within these subdivisions, there are approximately 992,000 registered voters, and that breaks down into 750,000 of those folks are Democrats, 149,000 are Republicans, and about 4,000 are registered as Independents.

Pennsylvania being a primary state, the only people who can vote in a primary are, you have to be registered in your party, so that kind of knocks out Independents, because if you can't—like, we just came through the mayor's race. You can't be an Independent and vote for a Democratic candidate or a Republican candidate for mayor because of our system.

You can register to vote by mail. You can register to vote in person. You can register to vote in conjunction with an application for a renewal of a driver's license. You may register to vote at any government agency. And effective January 1, 2006, all applicants to register to vote had to include a valid Pennsylvania driver's license number, a Pennsylvania non-driver's photo ID number, or the last four digits of your Social Security number. All first-time Pennsylvania voters voting in their election district for the first time had to provide identification, and there is the list about identification that I will submit to the record, so I don't have to go through that.

There are many things that we need to do, and the one issue I think that disturbs the Commissioners right now is HAVA has mandated that all polling places be handicap accessible. In Philadelphia, we are an aging city. In a lot of neighborhoods we do not have buildings that are handicap accessible. So consequently, what this law has done, I am quite sure not intentionally done, we are now pitting the senior citizens against those with disabilities as we scurry around trying to find polling places that are handicap accessible. I can always point to my own ward and the divisions within my ward, where a lot of the public school buildings are not handicap accessible. We may have four or five divisions voting in those buildings, and it becomes an awesome task trying to relocate them. And I think that it is just horrible that we are left with the decision, who do we disenfranchise, those who have a disability or those senior citizens who must now walk additional blocks? The other strong point about Philadelphia and its elections is that people love to walk and vote. That is a tradition in Philadelphia. And because of HAVA, that is now in jeopardy. I just think that HAVA needs to take another look at that, because here we have the process of a person can vote by an absentee ballot. We have alternative ballots who are specifically for people who are 65 years or older and their polling place is not handicap accessible. So it is not like we do not try to reach out to help people.

And the issues about incidents that happened on Election Day, those incidents are reported to the Commissioners' Office. They are investigated, they are reported to the Committee of Seventy. They are investigated, and if need be, they are turned over to the District Attorney's office if it warrants any type of prosecution. Those are the safeguards that we have. But we also have a problem when people go to other agencies and say things, and we know nothing about it, and we are left holding the bag because we know nothing about anybody's complaint. And those are some of our concerns. I just wanted to state what I feel and what I have seen in the Commissioners' Office in my brief term. And I thank you for this opportunity to address this distinguished body.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you, Commissioner. Bobby Lee.

Mr. LEE. Yes. I don't have a statement. I basically came along in order to answer questions, but I would like to add something about the photo ID proposals.

From my knowledge, I don't know of any single photo identification available from a government agency that would provide all of the information on that one ID that they are asking for in some of these bills.

I mean, you don't need to be a citizen to get a driver's license, so you can't prove citizenship with a driver's license. Some of the information that may be on the driver's license is not on a passport. Voter identification cards do not include photos. So the problem basically is that there is no single, one piece of identification now that would provide that, unless the federal government is going to go forward and develop and implement a national ID card that every citizen must carry. So you get into a lot more chilling aspects once you go down that road.

Pennsylvania's law went one step further than HAVA, went a little bit further than HAVA. HAVA requires that anyone who registers by mail for the first time in a county provide ID either when they are registering or when they vote. The legislature in Pennsylvania went one step further and decided that any individual who is voting for the first time in their election district, regardless of the source of the application, provide identification when they vote for the first time. Fortunately, through our voter education programs, and through some help with the media and other organizations, we have alerted our voters to bring ID with them when they go to vote. But that does not help those individuals who do not have the ID that is listed. Although Pennsylvania does have an expanded list of ID, and the fact that they can use a voter registration card that was issued and mailed by our office as that ID, even though it doesn't include a photo, helps. But the move to require a photo ID at the polls for every voter for every election is basically unnecessary. There is no foundation to the urban legends regarding imposters voting. We had a City Council primary here in Philadelphia one time that was decided by 99 votes, Democratic primary. One candidate sued. One candidate came in and examined the poll books that the voters signed on Election Day. They used volunteers that do that, and they were using rulers to measure signature specimens. Based on that unscientific method, they filed a complaint in court saying that there were 1,100 imposters out of 26,000 votes cast. Well, naturally, both sides then hired handwriting experts, and they came in and they really examined the records, and they looked at the poll books over a period of two or three elections to account for changes in signature specimens. And when both sides got done, even the petitioner's handwriting expert said, at most, out of the 26,000 signatures, there may have been four imposters. So not only have I not seen proof that imposters are voting, I have seen the other side of it, where people claimed they were, and I have seen proof that they didn't. And any time that we get challenges or questions regarding imposters voting, there was another case where another Council candidate initiated an investigation by the State Attorney General with the same claim. They were provided all the poll books. They were provided all our records, and the case was unfounded and never went anywhere.

So I haven't seen any indication or need that every voter, every election, provide a photo ID with expanded information on it. I just think it is a barrier to voting, and it is going to disenfranchise those who ought to vote the most, those who need to have a voice in their government and support of their government.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you, Bobby. I just have a couple of quick questions to anyone, because you have a lot of Commissioners up there, and the Secretary could answer. Anyone who wants to answer. Same-day registration, what is your feeling about same-day registration? I guess this must be your baby, hey, Bobby?

Mr. LEE. I don't like it. I don't like it. I don't like it, because the further down that track we go where we don't have people registering ahead of time and being able to produce a street list of eligible voters and files of eligible voters for both parties to review and look at before the election, then the further we go down to creating more urban legends of people showing up at the polls who are not qualified and just signing a piece of paper and voting. The other problem is dual voting, voting in more than one district, and voting in more than one county. Although I have seen only two instances where an individual has actually voted in two counties in the same election in 24 years. The voting districts in Philadelphia are so close together that you could walk literally five blocks and vote in two or three polling places. And there is an idea out there that with the statewide registries, we could put laptops in the polling places, and once somebody votes in one district, it will prevent them from voting in another district. I don't want to see our poll workers trying to determine eligibility using laptops. Denver tried that, and they had some issues and complaints and problems. I just think that the current situation, where you need to register or register 30 days before an election, allows the government agency that is responsible for conducting a safe and secure election is the most workable solution for a large, major urban area. It may work in some states. There is North Dakota, that has no registration. It may work for them. For Philadelphia, I believe same-day registration is probably not a road we want to go down. It doesn't seem that we have a problem with people registering in Philadelphia. I prepared some detailed answers to the questions that was provided to me.

In 1992, in the five months before the Clinton and Bush I, general election, we received and processed 293,000 paper voter registration applications. That amount of work was equal to about one third of our file at the time. In 2004, in the same period before the Kerry-Bush II election, we received and processed 252,000. We have a very active political party structure here in the city. Committeemen, ward leaders, political organizations, in both parties, in certain areas are always out registering people to vote. We have 527s that come here all the time, three or four different ones every major election. Community organizations, union organizations, they are all very heavily involved in registering citizens, and I think the opportunity to register is already there, and I don't see a need for changing that process with same-day registration.

The CHAIRMAN. Anybody else care to comment? Secretary? Madam?

Ms. LOFGREN. Well ——

Mr. WEAVER. I think ——

The CHAIRMAN. Go ahead.

Mr. WEAVER. I am sorry.

Ms. LOFGREN. Go ahead.

Mr. WEAVER. I think he certainly outlined the issues and the problems that would occur with same-day registration. The issue of voter fraud, which has not been found to be a problem, really, across the United States, same-day registration, if not done properly, could, in fact, lead to voter fraud, as he had indicated.

The CHAIRMAN. Madam Chairwoman.

Ms. LOFGREN. Well, if there is a highly contested election, and whether it be a committee person, legislator, Congress, that in their districts, somebody could come to every one of the polling places and be a first-time register, register, and vote. Now, if this would come to light and go to court, and they say, who did he vote for? This is a secret ballot. Maybe he would go to jail for that, but I may lose, you may lose, their ballots are secret.

The CHAIRMAN. I wanted to get a lot of these questions asked. I have a couple more, and then I will let the gentlelady from California go, I know she has some questions. You need to understand that some of these questions I don't know the answers to, but this is a big country with a lot of states, and the State of California doesn't necessarily have the same regulations that we do, and I would want the lady to hear some of this so we can bring it back. We heard a lot of interest on same-day registration. And fortunately or unfortunately, all these issues will come in front of us and are in front of us right now, and that is what we need to get on the record, and I would like the lady from California to hear that. Yes?

Mr. HOWARD. Mr. Chairman, the other thing I think that needs to be addressed is the issue that all across the United States voter registration is done differently. Every state, it is done differently. I mean, with all the technological advances and the machines that we use now, the data systems that are used, voter registration hasn't changed. It is still done with pen and pencil and paper.

The CHAIRMAN. You are right. Again, just for the record and also to get more information for the gentlelady from California. The other day, the Election Subcommittee Chairwoman, Ms. Lofgren, held a hearing on poll workers. She is a tireless worker, and she gets all the testimony and hears from people that come in front of her committee, but she hasn't heard from you. What is the status of poll workers in Philadelphia? Do you have enough? What training are they given? Are they paid? How much are they paid? What solutions would you suggest to increase the number of qualified poll workers? Now, those are four or five questions that I know you know all the answers to. It isn't like these questions haven't been asked before. You all are experts up here, so I want you to just run through that. Not for me, but for the gentlelady from California so she can get some idea of how we operate and what happens in the City of Philadelphia. We do have our battles here. 99.9 percent are unfounded. We do have a great system that does work. In the end, it does work out for itself with a lot of checks and balances. Fortunately we do not have much voter fraud, that I believe anyway, has been substantiated or proven. There are always allegations, because there is always a winner and there is always a sore loser, as it should be. But if you could just expand on a few of those questions so that the gentlelady can get a feel for things.

Mr. LEE. Yeah. There are 1,681 voting districts. The average voting district has five polling place officials. Three of those positions are elected positions. They are in the state Constitution, they are constitutional officers. The other two positions are appointed. Fortunately in Philadelphia, because we have a very strong party structure with committeemen, ward leaders on both sides of the aisle, and with the help of existing poll workers, we have not had difficulty in getting polling place officials. The ward leaders, the committee people, the party chair, even people that serve on the boards, when they find a vacancy, they provide the valuable service of finding an individual to fill that vacancy. So we actually tried a recruitment program in our office for polling place officials because of that valuable service provided by the structured authority out there, and it has been out there for years and still exists. They are kind of like the oil in the machine.

The other thing is training. Training is difficult. There are 8,500 of them across the city. We conduct more than 315 training classes for our polling place officials for each and every election. It consists of about a half hour classroom time on the operation of a polling place and then another half hour time on the operation of the voting machine. The polling place officials are paid $20 for attending that, if they serve on Election Day. That money is added to their check. In addition to that, we have between 250 to 300 bilingual interpreters that we assign to polling places to provide oral assistance, mostly in Spanish. We have just instituted in the last three elections a program where those officials are brought down and tested, certified to make sure they speak the language they claim and, if so, they are trained, and they are paid $30 for going through that testing and training program, provided they work on Election Day and show up. Naturally, when you are dealing with 8,500 people who are two-day-a-year employees, at 1,681 locations, and we have a staff of maybe 80 permanent employees, Election

Day is like sitting on 1,600 shuttle launches at one time. These people, they are your neighbors, they are your friends. They do the best they can. They try to learn, they try to do the best they can. They try to be fair, and they try to conduct an election that is accurate and reliable.

And another issue, I guess, while I am on it, the fortunate thing is having so many voting districts. Our voting districts are between 600 and 800 voters. Philadelphia has always gone to the added expense of paying all these poll workers, but it is very good, because you don't often see the kinds of waiting times in Philadelphia that you read about in some of the other counties and jurisdictions across the country, where they may have 3,000 voters, 10 poll workers in a voting district. And that, in and of itself, runs into problems with locating sufficient accessible polling places.

But could the training be improved? Sure. But the problem is, if you try to keep a poll worker out there for a three-hour training class, you are going to lose them. Some of these poll workers have been doing this for years, and they tell you that, and I have been doing this for 30 years. So we try to concentrate on those issues that may be new, issues where we have had notification that there were problems regarding specific items, and the fact that we get attendance between 5,000 and 6,000 at our training classes each election has helped us to go forward. Naturally, it is not perfect. You are going to have garden-variety errors and mistakes occur on Election Day, and we try to do whatever we can to resolve those issues.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you, Bobby. If you wouldn't mind, can you give me some more information on same-day registration? I need to know more about it and what you've talked about today. I would like to have some information that I can use. This is an issue that is going to come up pretty soon. If you could get that to me.

Mr. LEE. Yeah, I can get that to you.

The CHAIRMAN. I appreciate that. Now it is my pleasure to recognize the gentlelady from California.

Ms. LOFGREN. Thank you, Mr. Chairman, and this is really a very helpful hearing. On the issue of same-day registration, we are going to have a hearing on that subject in—I can't recall when it is, but in the near future, and what I would like to be able to do is to give the testimony that we will receive to you, so that you can evaluate it. This is a very diverse country. And there are—in Minnesota, for example, the Members of Congress from Minnesota are very keen on this, and I don't know whether things are different in Minneapolis than Philadelphia, but I am a strong believer of sharing information and experiences among knowledgeable people and that we all learn when we do that. So I look forward to that opportunity.

On the issue of absentee ballots, we have the legal ability—that doesn't mean that we should take that legal ability—to set certain requirements for the conduct of Federal elections, or elections for the House, to be more specific. However, if we were able to, or if the consensus was that we should do that, it obviously would probably result in the entire electoral system in a particular state changing to that. And so one of the questions is the right to have an absentee ballot. In California, that is not to say it is the right thing, but it seems to have worked well for us. You don't need to be sick or disabled. You can just ask for an absentee ballot and vote, and it saved the counties which have the responsibility for running these elections a lot of money because it is more efficient. It gets done beforehand. They have also moved to early voting, which is actually done at the Registrar of Voters in advance on weekends so that you—and the whole effect is to reduce the number of people showing up on Election Day, which reduces the cost and confusion on Election Day. I am wondering what your thoughts are on the Federal Government getting involved in that, versus states' just reaching that conclusion on their own?

The CHAIRMAN. We all know that when Congress passes something and it is only for Federal elections, what winds up happening is, it is used for all elections. No state or jurisdiction is going to run dual voter registration or election systems or processes because that would only lead to confusion amongst voters from one type of election to another. They don't know the difference between a federal election and a local election. They just come out, and they want to vote. I know that Pennsylvania's voter registration laws are severely restrictive in that you need to either be outside of your municipality on Election Day while the polls are open or be disabled. With the passage of the ADA, the Secretary of the Commonwealth issued a directive in '92 allowing us to use alternative ballots for those individuals impaired by age, who are 65 or older, or with a disability. That process allows voters to get that ballot back by the close of polls, where the Pennsylvania normal rule requires it back by the Friday before the election, and that is restrictive. There could be an expansion of that time so that it comes back the night before the election. But I am not sure at this point how we feel about universal absentee voting. Oh, boy. I don't see an issue, with the exception of making it happen.

Mr. HOWARD. I think there——

The CHAIRMAN. That implementation.

Mr. HOWARD. I think that the issue of no-excuse absentee voting, I think it is great. I mean, you know, it makes things a lot easier.

Ms. TARTAGLIONE. I am 100 percent for it.

Mr. WEAVER. The Pennsylvania Elections Reform Task Force convened in 2004, in late 2004 and 2005, and issued a report in 2006. And I don't have that report with me, and I do know that absentee balloting was discussed, and I would be glad to forward that to the committee to see if Pennsylvania had taken a position on that. If there was a position taken, it has not yet been implemented, because voter registration is still conducted the same way. But I would be glad to forward that to the committee.

Ms. LOFGREN. I appreciate that, and I know, Mr. Chairman, you have another panel of distinguished witnesses, so I don't want to delay too much further. But again, this is very helpful and useful information, and I am looking forward to mutuality of sharing as we proceed further on these interesting issues, since the whole country is so diverse. I thank you for recognizing me.

The CHAIRMAN. I thank the gentlelady. And again, thank all of you. You need to understand how important this is to us, because we do hear these. It comes in front of our committee, comes in front of the gentlelady's subcommittee, and the knowledge is important. We need to hear from you, and I hope that maybe you can come down when we do have a hearing to testify again in Washington. We wanted to make it a little more convenient, you know, to get some testimony on the record right now, but we are going to need it again when another hearing comes up to be able to get this on the record and share this information. Because it is state to state, and we need to bring some uniformity to the process as best as we can. Thank you, Mr. Secretary, Commissioner Howard, Chairperson Tartaglione, Bobby Lee. Thank you so much. I would like to call the next panel up, please.

[Recess]

The CHAIRMAN. Good morning. I really want to thank you for being here and testifying in front of us. As I said earlier, if you weren't here what would we do. We like to get testimony from everyone. Try to keep it to five minutes, but that is fine if you need to go over. After everyone testifies, we will have some questions for you. It is my pleasure now to have my Councillady, Carol Ann Campbell testify. She is also the Chairperson of the African-American Ward Leaders, someone who has been extremely involved in politics, and extremely involved in voting for way longer than I can remember, and has a wealth of knowledge of the system. So it is my pleasure to hear testimony from Councillady Carol Ann Campbell.

STATEMENTS OF CAROL ANN CAMPBELL, COUNCIL MEMBER, PHILADELPHIA, PA; ROBERT SANTIAGO, DIRECTOR, COUNCIL OF SPANISH SPEAKING ORGANIZATIONS; ZACH STALBERG, PRESIDENT, COMMITTEE OF SEVENTY; AND J. WHYATT MONDESIRE, PRESIDENT, NAACP PHILADELPHIA CHAPTER

STATEMENT OF CAROL ANN CAMPBELL

Ms. CAMPBELL. Good morning. Thank you, Chairman Brady and distinguished members of the Committee on House Administration for joining us here in the City of Philadelphia.

I am Councilwoman Carol Ann Campbell, and I would like to thank you for giving me the opportunity to address this very important subject. I am the Chairperson of the Handicap and Disabled Committee of Philadelphia City Council. I am committed to protecting the rights of the disabled, and as the Chairperson of this committee I have pioneered and proposed a change to the Charter, which is Philadelphia's governing instrument.

The Charter change provides for the creation of the handicap and disabled advocate. The disabled community faces many impediments to voters' enfranchisement. Non-accessibility is the number-one challenge. The government must address it in a meaningful manner. Some persons with disability are unable to wait in line to vote, and it may be time for the government to consider online voting as a means of addressing some of these non-accessibility issues. You have come here and asked us to talk about a very important subject, impediments to voter enfranchisement. This is a matter in which I know a great deal about. For more than 15 years, I have served as the chairwoman of the African-American Democratic Ward Leaders of Philadelphia. Our organization represents more than 900,000 African-American residents in the City of Philadelphia. Under my supervision as chairwoman, and the support of Congressman Bob Brady, more African-Americans have been elected to public office than at any time in the history of Philadelphia.

Our role is traditional. We organize, mobilize, and inform voters in our communities about their choices on Election Day. This is no small task. It is no small task because, far too often, government hinders, not helps, the working men and women of our community in their effort to exercise their constitutional right to vote and participate in their democracy. I believe there are four principal impediments to voter enfranchisement. First, we face impediment to actually voting through an emerging pattern of voter ID requirements, prohibiting same-day voter registration, having Election Day be a work day, and prohibitions on felons' voting. We face machinations, technicalities, obscure and insidious regulations used to keep our votes from being counted after they have been cast. The saga of the 2000 presidential election, the drama of voting in Ohio in 2004, and the unresolved matter of the 13th Congressional district in Florida are all clear examples of this problem.

Second, we face restrictive ballot access laws, intimidating petition requirements, inconsistent application of election law, confusing financial disclosure forms that reduce the number of candidates allowed on the ballot. Voters have fewer candidates to choose among for almost all public offices today than voters did 100 years ago. This problem is further complicated by the disproportionate influence of money in this process. The vast majority of voices people hear speaking on issues are the voices of money. We don't have free and fair elections if voters don't get to hear the voices of candidates without money. We need public forums where all candidates have equal opportunities to speak.

Third, with over 100 beautiful languages spoken in this city, we face a language barrier for those who have not learned English as their native tongue. This also applies to men and women with different physical abilities. Committing more financial and personal resources to expanding the accessibility of polling places must be a high priority of government at every level.

Fourth, to require such forms of identification as passports and driver's license, we place an undue financial burden upon many people, including the elderly and people living on fixed incomes if they had to purchase these items for voter identification, the documents that they would need. I have been involved in dozens and dozens of elections. My knowledge on this matter is a second only by my passion for them. I believe so strongly that if government knowingly disenfranchised one voter, we have failed as a democracy. Thank you for your presence here today and the important work that you continue to do. I am happy to answer any questions that you may have.

Testimony by the Honorable Carol Ann Campbell
City Councilwoman, 4th Councilmanic District
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
Before the Committee on House Administration
October 5, 2007

Thank you Chairman Brady and distinguished members of the Committee on House Administration for joining us here in the City of Philadelphia. I am Councilwoman Carol Ann Campbell and I would like to thank you for giving me the opportunity to address this very important subject. I am the chairperson of the Handicapped and Disabled Committee of Philadelphia City Council. I am committed to protecting the rights of the disabled, and as the Chairwoman of this committee, I have pioneered and proposed a change to the Charter, which is Philadelphia's governing instrument. The Charter change provides for the creation of the Handicapped and Disabled Advocate.

The disabled community faces many impediments to voter enfranchisement. Non accessibility is the number one challenge the government must address in a meaningful manner. Some persons with disabilities are unable to wait in line to vote, and it may be time for the government to consider on line voting, as a means of addressing some of these non-accessibility issues.

You have come here and asked us to talk about a very important subject: Impediments to Voter Enfranchisement. This is a matter in which I know a great deal about. For more than 15 years, I have served as the Chairwoman of the African-American Democratic Ward Leaders of Philadelphia. Our organization represents more than 900,000 African American residents in the City of Philadelphia. Under my supervision, as chairwoman, and the support of Congressman Bob Brady, more African Americans have been elected to public office than at anytime in the history of Philadelphia. Our role is traditional – we organize, mobilize and inform voters in our communities about their choices on Election Day.

This is no small task.

It is no small task because far too often government hinders – not help – the working men and women of our community in their effort to exercise their Constitutional right to vote, and participate in their Democracy.

I believe there are four principle impediments to voter enfranchisement:

First, we face impediments to actually voting through an emerging pattern of voter ID requirements, prohibiting same day voter registration, having Election Day be a work day, and prohibitions on felons voting. We face machinations, technicalities, obscure and insidious regulations used to keep our votes from being counted after they have been cast. The saga of the 2000 Presidential Election, the drama of voting in Ohio in 2004, and the unresolved matter of the 13th Congressional District in Florida are all clear examples of this problem.

Second, we face restrictive ballot access laws – intimidating petition requirements, inconsistent application of election law, confusing financial disclosure forms - that reduce the number of candidates allowed on the ballot. Voters have fewer candidates to choose among for almost all public offices today than voters did a hundred years ago. This problem is further compacted by the disproportionate influence of money in this process. The vast majority of the voices people hear speaking on issues are the voices of money. We don't have free and fair elections if voters don't get to hear the voices of candidates without money. We need public forums where all candidates have equal opportunities to speak.

Third, with over 100 beautiful languages spoken in this city, we face a language barrier for those who have not learned English as their native tongue. This also applies to men and women with different physical abilities. Committing more financial and personal resources to expanding the accessibility of polling places must be a high priority of government at every level.

Fourth, to require such forms of identification as passports and driver's licenses would place an undue financial burden upon many people, including the elderly and people living on fixed incomes, if they had to purchase these items for voter identification.

I have been involved in dozens and dozens of elections. My knowledge on these matters is seconded only by my passion for them. I believe so strongly that if government knowingly disenfranchises one voter, we have failed as a Democracy.

Thank you for your presence here today, and the important work that you continue to do. I am happy to answer to any questions you may have.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you, Councillady. Next, we have Mr. Roberto Santiago, who is with CONCILIO, the Council of Spanish Speaking Organizations. Mr. Santiago.

STATEMENT OF ROBERTO SANTIAGO

Mr. SANTIAGO. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Congresslady Lofgren from California, good morning, and thank you for the opportunity to hear my concerns regarding voter enfranchisement.

My name is Roberto Santiago, and I am the Executive Director of the Council of Spanish Speaking Organizations. For the last 11 years I have had the enormous privilege to lead the oldest Latino Organization in the Commonwealth, CONCILIO. Founded by a group of Puerto Rican community activists in 1962, CONCILIO's mission has been to ensure that equitable social, educational, health, and cultural services are available and accessible to everyone.

I have no special credentials. My only possible attribute comes with 30 years of experience in community service inside poor neighborhoods in Philadelphia, western New York, and Puerto Rico. And I am also a U.S. Navy veteran. I am a member of a family with four generations of proud military service in the United States Armed Forces. For the last two decades I have watched in dismay and disbelief the boldness in which devices are employed to impede citizens from exercising the right of suffrage. I should note that political disengagement is anathematic to Puerto Rican culture. Puerto Ricans participate in elections at far higher rates than voters in the United States. At 81.7 percent in 2004, Puerto Rico is considered one of the highest records of voter participation in the democratic world.

Our systems are mirror images of each other. We have an independent judiciary, a two-chamber legislature, a strong executive branch, and we use the pluralist form of election system. Yet here in Philadelphia we struggle to stimulate meaningful participation in local elections.

Are Latino voters not turning out, or are they just being turned off? Is it voter apathy, or is it voter discontent? I am not in a position to make such a conclusion. But let me share with you some of the most common concerns of people in the neighborhoods.

On every Election Day, myself and a significant number of my staff travel the breadth of north Philadelphia polling places. We serve as poll watchers, independent observers, and translators. This is what we hear, and this is what we see. One, lack of language interpreter support. There is at times total absence or an inadequate number of interpreters in heavily-laden language minority polling sites. The, "oh, I am sure there is one around," answer to voters' request for an interpreter is unacceptable, is offensive, and in violation of Court agreement. The selection process of interpreters is unclear, and it is perceived as politically influenced. We ask what skills are required to become a Spanish language interpreter? Are there any formal training requirements? Are there any credentialing requirements? These are all questions that are answered in a very nebulous form. In many cases, voters are unable to distinguish voting officials from party or candidate operatives. There are multiple complaints of poll workers' engaging in helping voters to fill out their ballots and instructing them how to vote. We ask that you require the display of official photo ID badges on the outer garment which clearly indicate name, titles, and party affiliations where applicable, for every poll official. Candidates and party operatives improperly hinder the free movement of voters' entering and exiting polling places. Aggressive canvassing practices outside polling area create an unpleasant and sometimes hostile, vulgar, and violent atmosphere for voters. Voters are least likely to vote when they fear obnoxious and aggressive solicitation. The gauntlet-like experience discourage participation in the electoral process. It is seen as a political strategy designed to discourage voter participation in neighborhoods likely to vote for the contender. It is especially intimidating to first-time voters, women, and the elderly.

As of yesterday I tried narrowing down what the distance between the door and solicitation was. I called Ms. Tartaglione's office. I was told by an individual in that office that, "to my knowledge, there are no distance requirements." I called the State to find out they are 10 feet. In any case, we ask that buffers be expanded, and where enforcement of this expansion is not possible, then do without it altogether. We don't really need this kind of harassment for voters. I am going to cut my statement because I am running out of time. There is more to it, but I want to conclude, and I wanted to ask this committee to play a role in increasing voter participation, to encourage, facilitate, reward, and implement Election Day registration, vote-by- mail, early vote, and certainly bilingual ballots. This is especially valuable to seniors, language minorities with limited English skills, the physically challenged, the marginally literate, and to anyone who needs and wants additional time to make a thoughtful choice.

Mr. Chairman, I understand that institutional change is slow and rarely cheap, but in my opinion, when the citizens' rights to vote collide with the interest of a candidate or impinges upon the convenience of an electoral system, it is the interest of the citizen voter which must prevail. We cannot fear the implications and consequences of a free and just electoral process. A representative democracy becomes a worthless, philosophical abstract when the free exercise of the vote is denied or is unachievable by every single man and woman. For the victim, democracy becomes but a painful farce, a pretense, a rhetorical concept. In short, an illusion of inclusion.

I pray unto you, Mr. Chairman, I pray unto you, members of this committee, and I pray unto every honorable man and woman of this great country, let our people vote. Thank you, Mr. Chairman, for your time. I ask that my testimony be entered in full into the record. Congressman Brady, I now stand before this committee to answer your questions.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you, Mr. Santiago. Thank you so much. Next we have Zach Stalberg, who is the CEO and president of the Committee of Seventy. For Californians, the Committee of Seventy is about 70 or so people that have formed to watch over elected officials and politicians, and they have been watching us for many years and have become intermingled with us now in causes such as elections so that we can work together on these issues. So, Mr. Stalberg.

STATEMENT OF ZACH STALBERG

Mr. STALBERG. Thank you very much. I am Zach Stalberg, President of the Committee of Seventy, a non-profit and non-partisan organization.

Seventy has long conducted an election oversight program and voter protection program that is probably the oldest and largest such program in the country.

Simply put, and I also want to respect the time of everyone here and this committee, the Committee of Seventy favors increased voter participation and is concerned about any requirements that discourage voting.

Many people view the expansion of voting rights as a natural and inevitable progression. There are others who continue to seek restrictions. These arguments are typically advanced in the name of combating election fraud and ensuring honest elections. Efforts to restrict voter participation, however, can be the product of partisan politics or a desire to maintain the racial or economic status quo. Legitimate fears about election misconduct are not misplaced. Those well versed in political history are familiar with many cases of election fraud stretching back to our nation's founding. Election-related violations, sometimes involving criminal conduct, have been committed by party bosses, election officials, political campaigns from both major parties, from our most rural counties to our largest cities. However, Seventy believes that these incidents did not justify making it much harder for individuals to vote by insisting upon far more stringent identification requirements. The operative word here is stringent. Such requirements may be an inconvenience to all voters, and they disproportionately impact minorities, seniors, and people with disabilities.

Federal and Pennsylvania Law require two forms of identification. One, a comparison of each voter's Election Day signature with a scanned version of the signature from their registration form. And two, specific additional proofs of identity for voters voting for the first time or voting for the first time in a division.

Even if free photo identification were provided, the burden of supplying certain supporting documents and the time and trouble to obtain the photo could be difficult for many US citizens. These are very real barriers to voter participation, especially among disadvantaged Americans.

Additional voter identification requirements should be very carefully considered unless the Help America Vote Act requirements are proven to be inadequate in order to prevent fraud by individual voters. The benefits of individual requirements should also be proven to outweigh the potentially significant costs. In addition to these views, I would like to offer some additional recommendations for increasing national voter participation and removing existing barriers. While these recommendations arguably concern matters of state administration, our very mobile society makes them relevant to all jurisdiction. One, reduce voter registration deadlines. Pennsylvania has a voter registration deadline of 30 days prior to an election. Many voters seek to register or to update their voting addresses after this deadline, and especially as the election becomes more interesting to them. With advances in technology, we believe this deadline can be shortened. Two, national no-fault absentee balloting. In Pennsylvania, a voter must provide justification for voting absence. While voting in person is optimal, a significant benefit of mail-in voting, both to individuals and the community, is reducing lines at the polls. No-fault absentee ballots can dramatically reduce the time commitment required of voters, especially during high-interest and long-ballot elections. Three, uniformity of provisional ballot rules. In Pennsylvania, a provisional ballot cast in an incorrect precinct is counted for all races which correspond to the voter's correct precinct. Under this system, a voter may lose one or two legislative votes, but their top-of-the-ticket and at-large choices cast by a professional ballot are counted. In some other states, provisional ballots must be cast in the correct precinct in order to be counted. If you attempt to vote in the wrong place, you are out of luck. This more restrictive rule disenfranchises individuals. Applying the more expansive provisional ballot rule across the states would avoid this problem.

Four, federal funding of elections. The Help America Vote Act provided significant funding for voting equipment, thereby removing at least some of the disparity in voting access between affluent and less affluent counties. While we believe local administration of elections best serves the interest of the voters, local funding for elections only perpetuates this disparity, particularly as voting equipment ages and more state and federal mandates are passed.

As long as election operations must compete with important services such as police protection and schools for a piece of the local budget, there is a real risk of neglect and significant breakdowns on Election Day.

Once again, thanks for the opportunity to testify.

[The statement of Mr. Stalberg follows:]

Testimony of the Committee of Seventy Presented before the United States House of Representatives Committee on House Administration

Hearing on Impediments to Voter Enfranchisement October 5, 2007

My name is Zachary Stalberg and I am the President and CEO of the Committee of Seventy. Seventy is a non-profit and non-partisan organization conducting a permanent campaign to improve the Philadelphia region by demanding ethical conduct of elected officials, promoting government efficiency, educating citizens and safeguarding elections. Since 1904, Seventy has conducted an election oversight and voter protection program – the oldest and largest such program in the country.

I would first like to thank Chairman Brady and this Committee for the opportunity to speak today on a significant issue for both Philadelphia and our nation. I am joined by Christopher Sheridan, Seventy's Director of Voting Rights and Election Reform.

The U.S. Constitution was drafted just a few blocks from here. While this document addressed the most significant aspects of American government, it reserved the power to set voting qualifications to the individual states. In 1787, voting was generally limited to white men who could meet property ownership or tax paying requirements. Although this wouldn't be considered fair today, at the time it was thought to be a significant step forward in the fight for representative government.

During the next two centuries, the right to vote expanded as economic, racial and gender barriers were removed by court cases, Constitutional amendments and international conflicts. In recent years, Congress contributed to increased enfranchisement by passing the National Voter Registration Act in 1993 and by nationalizing the remedy of provisional ballots in the Help America Vote Act of 2002.

While many view the expansion of voting rights as part of a natural and inevitable progression towards universal suffrage, there are others who continue to seek restrictions, or even complete rollbacks, on an individual's right to vote. In most cases, their targets are low income and uneducated citizens and recent immigrants whom they view as more likely to sell their vote or lack the sophistication to make informed election decisions.

While these arguments are typically advanced in the name of "combating election fraud and ensuring honest elections," efforts to restrict voter participation are often the product of partisan politics or a desire to maintain the racial or economic status quo.

Legitimate fears about election misconduct are not misplaced. Those well versed in political history are familiar with many cases of election fraud stretching back to our nation's founding. Election-related violations, sometimes involving criminal conduct, have been committed by party bosses, election officials and political campaigns from both major parties -- from our most rural counties to our largest cities.

However, Seventy believes strongly that these incidents do not justify making it harder for individuals to vote by insisting upon more stringent identification requirements. Such requirements may be an inconvenience to all voters, yet they disproportionably impact minorities, seniors, and people with disabilities.

As the Committee knows, federal and state law already require two forms of identification: (1) a comparison of each voter's Election Day signature with a scanned version of their signature from their registration form, and (2) specific additional proofs of identity for voters voting for the first time or voting for the first time in a division.

Even if free photo identification were provided, the potential costs of the requisite supporting documents (such as a birth certificate or passport) and the time and travel to obtain the photo, would be difficult for many U.S. citizens. These are very real barriers to voter participation, especially among disadvantaged Americans.

A mandatory photo identification requirement would also place a burden on polling officials who tend to be overworked and underpaid in most jurisdictions. The likelihood of disputes at the polls would slow the voting process, not just for the individual seeking to vote but for all voters in the precinct. Couple that with a large ballot and the result is that many voters will simply decide not to vote.

In Seventy's view, additional voter identification requirements should not be considered unless the Help American Vote Act requirements are proven to be inadequate in order to prevent fraud by individual voters. The benefits of additional requirements should also be proven to outweigh the potentially significant costs. To date, Seventy has seen no such proof.

In addition to these views, Seventy would like to offer some additional recommendations for increasing national voter participation and removing existing barriers. While these recommendations arguably concern matters of state administration, our very mobile society make them relevant to all jurisdictions.

Reduce voter registration deadlines: Pennsylvania has a voter registration deadline of thirty days prior to an election. In Seventy's experience, many voters seek to register or to update their voting address after this deadline. With advances in technology, we believe this deadline could be significantly shortened. This would result in greater participation and a reduced need for provisional ballots.

National no-fault absentee balloting: In Pennsylvania, a voter must provide a justification for voting absentee. The most common reasons are plans to be out of town on Election Day or having a medical condition that prevents the voter from getting to the polls. While voting in person is optimal, a significant benefit of mail-in voting both to individuals and the community is reducing lines at the polls. In addition, millions of Americans are now holding down two jobs, working longer hours, and facing longer commutes to work than was common when the 12-13 hour window for in-person voting was established many years ago. Parents have family responsibilities, and many adult children are being called upon to provide extensive care for elderly parents. Given the increasing demands of modern life, all working Americans should have the opportunity, but not the requirement, of voting in person. No-fault absentee ballots can dramatically reduce the time commitment required of voters, especially during high interest and long ballot elections.

Uniformity of provisional ballot rules: In Pennsylvania, a provisional ballot cast in an incorrect precinct is counted for all races which correspond to the voter's correct precinct. Under this system, a voter may lose one or two legislative votes, but their top of the ticket and at-large choices cast by a provisional ballot are counted. In some other states, provisional ballots must be cast in the correct precinct in order to be counted. If you attempt to vote in the wrong place, you're out of luck. This more restrictive rule not only disenfranchises individuals, it could lead to litigation in a presidential election where the number of voided provisional ballots in a state exceeds the margin of victory. Applying the more expansive provisional ballot rule across the states would avoid this problem.

Felon disenfranchisement: In Pennsylvania, convicted felons are disenfranchised during their incarceration. While Seventy does not dispute this practice, a less restrictive approach should be considered given the proven disproportional impact on non-white voters. Often, barring imprisoned felons from voting becomes a lifetime disenfranchisement when former felons fear re-incarceration if they vote illegally. A fair national standard, such as re-enfranchising voters upon release, would eliminate any confusion, increase voter participation and help former felons take a step towards full and responsible citizenship.

Federal funding of elections: The Help America Vote Act provided significant funding for voting equipment, thereby removing at least some of the disparity in voting access between affluent and less affluent counties. While we believe local administration of elections best serves the interests of voters, local funding for elections only perpetuates this disparity, particularly as voting equipment ages and more state and federal election mandates are passed. As long as election operations must compete with important services such as police protection and schools for a piece of the local budget, there is a real risk of neglect and significant breakdowns on Election Day.

Federal officeholders are on the ballot in half of our elections, not including special elections held during municipal cycles. While we appreciate that there are many demands on the federal budget, ensuring fair access for voters in every American county deserves Congressional attention to avoid another Florida.

Thank you again for the opportunity to present this testimony. I appreciate your time and would be pleased to answer any questions.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you, Mr. Stalberg. Next is Jerry Mondesire. Jerry Whyatt Mondesire is the President of the NAACP and a tireless fighter for people's rights of all creeds, races, and religions, and we do appreciate your testimony. You are the clean-up hitter. We needed you Wednesday and Thursday, but you are here now.

Mr. MONDESIRE. I would like to hit as well as Ryan Howard. I thought he wouldn't be here.

The CHAIRMAN. I would like to hear from you, Mr. Mondesire. Thank you.

STATEMENT OF J. WHYATT MONDESIRE

Mr. MONDESIRE. Thank you, Mr. Chairman, and thank you, Ms. Lofgren, from California. And my days of working for Bill Grabb, brought plenty of copies, so I will leave them with you. I just want to give you some introduction and stress a few things in conversation that are real important to us.

Thank you again for inviting us to testify along with my colleagues and the other members of the City government who have testified.

It is only fitting and proper that we gather here in the Philadelphia City Council chambers to discuss impediments to voter enfranchisement. Within these walls many great debates about our city have raised, some of grand consequence, school funding, neighborhood transformation, how to address the rise in gun violence, and some of small consequence as well.

But, however, no matter of the content of these debates, nor really their outcome, what is most important is that they were made by representatives of the people, duly elected and sworn to serve the people. It is important that the people have a voice in this process and that their votes count and are counted. At the NAACP, this issue is not new to us.

Specifically, we would recommend that this committee consider very strongly support of S 453, a bill introduced by Senators Obama, Schumer, and others to address the prevention of deceptive practices and voting intimidation in federal elections. Two, ask tough questions about the purging of voter lists in an often random and arbitrary way by election officials across the country. Three, give serious consideration to the idea of same-day registration. And last, but certainly not least, file an amicus brief with the Supreme Court in opposition to voter ID's as they consider the Crawford v. Marion County Election Board and the Indiana Democratic Party v. Rokita. Requiring voter identification at the polls places an unfair and onerous burden on prospective voters that will ultimately discourage people from participating in the democratic process.

There are fundamental problems with the concept of voter ID's. First, it is nearly impossible to tie a voter identification to a universal piece of identification. If you accept a driver's license, what about those who don't drive, the elderly, the poor, and those who take public transportation? If you have lost your license, you have lost your right to vote. That is insane. The American Association of People with Disabilities reports that nearly three million disabled people do not have any form of government identification. Some would like us to consider a state-issued voter identification.

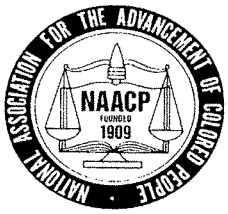
The insanity here continues. What about the cost? Charging what is effectively a poll tax that would provide a further hardship to the poor. How do we issue this identification? It would be another burden on the voter and further impede their right to vote.

I will also ask that this committee consider taking up the very thorny issue of restoring the right of ex-felons to vote. We are the only NAACP branch in the country to win that right to vote in our state, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. It was 1999. The case was called Mixon v. Commonwealth. It was written by an ex-felon, and the NAACP signed on as an amicus brief in that case, and it was decided by one vote. Just one Commonwealth Judge in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania gave the right of ex-felons their right to vote again.

You should also be aware that in this state, and I presume it is also the same for states across the country, when you come out of prison, you have no ID. That is a big issue for ex-prisoners. We work with a lot of ex-felons in some of the rehab housing programs that we do, and when we pay them, we find out that they can't cash the checks because they don't have ID. They didn't have licenses while they were confined, driver's licenses, so clearly they don't have driver's licenses to cash their checks. So we don't believe in voter ID's. We would urge you to consider taking up the felon disenfranchisement issue, especially as it pertains obviously only to federal voting.

There are many serious issues, and we are glad that you, Chairman Brady, and you, Ms. Lofgren, have thought enough about these to come to Philadelphia, and you can always count on us at the NAACP, both here locally as well as the state and across the country, to work with you to make sure that our people of all colors, of all backgrounds, new citizens as well as old citizens, have a chance to participate in the greatest democracy in the world. Thank you very much.

[The statement of Mr. Mondesire follows:]



TESTIMONY OF J. WHYATT MONDESIRE,
President NAACP Philadelphia Branch

Oct. 5, 2007

Thank you, Chairman Brady and members of the committee for the opportunity to appear before you this morning.

It is only fitting and proper that we gather here – in Philadelphia City Council Chambers – to discuss impediments to voter enfranchisement. Within these walls many great debates about our City have raged. Some of grand consequence – school funding, neighborhood transformation, how to address the rise in gun violence and some of small consequence – when we pick up the trash or how many roads shall we pave.

No matter the content of those debates – nor really their outcome – what is important is that they were made by representatives of the people. Duly elected and sworn to serve the people. It's important that the people have a voice in this process – that their votes count, and are counted.

At the NAACP, this issue is not new to us.

1) Support S.453, a bill introduced by Senators Obama, Schumer and others to address the Prevention of Deceptive Practices and Voter Intimidation in Federal Elections
2) Ask tough questions about the purging of voter lists in an often random and arbitrary way by election officials across the country
3) Give serious consideration to the idea of same day registration
4) And last – but certainly not least – file an amicus brief with the Supreme Court in opposition to Voter ID's as they consider Crawford v. Marion County Election Board and Indiana Democratic Party v. Rokita

Requiring Voter Identification at the polls places an unfair and onerous burden on prospective voters that will ultimately discourage people from participating in the democratic process.

There are several fundamental problems with the concept of voter of identification. First, it is nearly impossible to tie voter identification to a universal piece of identification. If you accept a Driver's license, what about those that don't drive – the elderly, the poor, those who take public transportation? If you've lost your license, you've lost your right to vote? That's insane. The American Association of People with Disabilities reports that nearly 3 million disabled people do not have ANY form of government identification.

Some would like us to consider a state-issued voter identification? The insanity continues. What about the cost? Charging what is effectively a poll tax that would provide a further hardship to the poor? How would we issue this identification? Another burden on the voter and a further impediment to their right to vote.

In the 2003 Mayoral election, seven percent of African-Americans reported some trouble with accessing their polling place. Sadly, this problem is not limited to Philadelphia. Throughout the country there have been reports of:

- Challenges and threats against individual voters at the polls by armed private guards, off-duty law enforcement officers, local creditors, fake poll monitors, and poll workers and managers.
- Signs posted at the polling place warning of penalties for "voter fraud" or "non-citizen" voting, or illegally urging support for a candidate.
- Poll workers "helping" voters fill out their ballots, and instructing them on how to vote.
- Criminal tampering with voter registration rolls and records.
- Flyers and radio ads containing false information about where, when and how to vote, voter eligibility, and the false threat of penalties.

Sadly, too often nothing is done by the federal government to mitigate these impediments to voting. It is often up to the local and national media, as well as advocacy groups, to scramble to try to undo the damage. While it is difficult to conclusively demonstrate that any specific misdeed or pattern of behavior had an impact on an election, it is the position of the NAACP that if even one lawful voter was deceived or intimidated and therefore did not cast a legitimate vote, that is one too many and the federal government must act.

Chairman Brady and members of the Committee, you can and must lead the way on this issue by taking a few – but important – steps:

Some voter identification laws accept phone bills, electric bills, leases and other pieces of paper. These are the most absurd of all. A person's right to vote should not depend on whether or not they have a phone, have electrical service, or rent there home.

Mr. Chairman, voter identification sounds simple – and innocent – enough. Even people who go to Blockbuster have to show ID, but when you are talking about a hardship that may dissuade ONE person from exercising their right to vote, that is one far too many.

I very much appreciate your leadership on this issue and the opportunity to discuss these issues with you today. The NAACP of Philadelphia will always be a stalwart proponent for the enfranchisement of all voters and are grateful for your leadership on these issues in the Congress.

I'm happy to take any questions you may have.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Mondesire. Thank you for asking for us to support the Senate Deception Practice Bill. In June the House passed HR 1281, the Deceptive Practice and Voter Intimidation Act of 2007. As an original co-sponsor of this legislation, I support all efforts to prevent voter suppression. We will fight to get this thing passed.

Mr. MONDESIRE. Thanks.

The CHAIRMAN. I will throw some questions out to anyone who wishes to answer, again, to get you on the record. It would be impossible to have eight distinguished witnesses come down to Washington, to have all of you testify. As the gentlelady from California did, we get one, maybe two that can come from this area in support and to get your thoughts on the record that we could take with us. One of the questions I asked the other panel I will ask you, too. And Mr. Santiago, I have a quick comment for you. It must be hard for people coming to this great country from Puerto Rico where you have elections—I think you have 90-some percent participation, and I even understand that you paint your houses from time to time in favor of your candidate—and to come here and see the apathy that sometimes happens, that we may cause, that causes the low turnout in the country, not only in the city, but in the country. So I appreciate your prayers, although I would like to see them for our troops and for some children that may need them, but I will take them anyway that we can do the right and proper thing. But it must be hard for you when people come over and we must be doing something wrong here because that practice of them wanting to vote doesn't continue let alone stay at that 90-some percent level, or paint their houses. I was extremely impressed by that. My question would be to anyone, again, on the same-day registration. As Chairman of the committee, I have gotten a few requests to introduce a bill on that regard. I want to have some information, and I want to have some ammunition to bring back to have knowledge of what we should possibly recommend for same-day registration. Does anybody have some thoughts on that?

Mr. STALBERG. As I stated, we believe that the registration period can be shortened as technology improves. I respect the comments earlier from Bob Lee about the down-sides of same-day registration itself. But there are 30 days between the current deadline and same-day registration. And I think it does encourage participation if we—over time we can shrink that period.

Mr. SANTIAGO. I take a perhaps more radical approach. My sense is that the right of the individual to vote has to be supreme over the inconvenience of a political system. Let them figure the way. Let them figure the way how to make it happen. But for those that can and want to vote, we should remove any obstacle that prohibits them from doing so.

The CHAIRMAN. My only problem, and I shouldn't call it a problem, my concern is that we might make it easier for somebody to violate a law and take advantage of a system that we have in place. We don't certainly want to do that, but I understand and appreciate what you are saying. Yes?

Mr. MONDESIRE. Well, the technology that exists today, as you know, Mr. Chairman, would mitigate against that. And you don't have to remove the 30-day waiting period all at once. You could do it in stages, and you could watch and see how the thing progressed, just like we have changed since the bad, old days of hanging chads and missing punch hole things. And you remember what we did here in Philadelphia? We brought the modern voting machines over a period of time. So I agree with Mr. Santiago and Mr. Stalberg that we need to shorten that window. You know, maybe in the next couple of years in Pennsylvania it could be 20 days and then 10 days and then hopefully 24 hours. I have to excuse myself. I have another appointment, but I didn't want to miss your important hearing. So if there are other questions, your wonderful staff can contact me, and I will be glad to cooperate.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you, and thank you for your participation. Councillady.

Ms. CAMPBELL. Thank you.

The CHAIRMAN. You have an interest, and you are a champion for the people that need help, for people that have a problem getting to a poll, with the handicap accessibilities. What could we do? What could happen in the City of Philadelphia when there is a problem with handicap accessibility? I, myself, being involved in the political system, have a division where I vote, and in the division where I live and where I vote and where I used to live and voted, there were no businesses. They were all residential, and none of them were handicap accessible. Because of that, there may be a Law that says we can't vote in that division, we might have to vote two or three divisions over. And as we heard from Commissioner Howard, people like to walk a vote, not drive a vote. Isn't it a bigger handicap for someone to get into a special van and go two or three more miles to vote than it would be if we could figure out a way that we can have voting where some places are more handicap accessible? I know that you are a tireless advocate for that, and I'd like to have your thoughts.

Ms. CAMPBELL. Well, being handicapped and having become handicapped, you become more sensitive to the needs of people that are handicapped. And online would be a way, if a person was really certified as being disabled. I think a lot of the responsibility should fall on the municipality because, although a lot of places are not handicap accessible, you can get a very inexpensive, temporary ramp that could be put over at least three steps or a big incline for a wheelchair to go in or for a person on a walker to be able to use. I think that the main problem is that unless a person has lived with a handicapped person, is friendly with a handicapped person, or has a member of their family, they are not as sensitive to the needs of a handicapped person as they should be. You will have people tell you that a place is handicap accessible. I have had this happen to me, and when we got there, there was one, small step, that if you can't walk, you can't take it. And I think that when it comes to voting, that is a Constitutional right that everyone should be able to exercise. And I think that no amount of expense is too much to make that possible. As I said, I just don't think government has gotten to the point where they are really sensitive. We are here in City Hall. There is only one entrance way that you can come into City Hall in a wheelchair, and that is to circle the entire building and come through the courtyard and come in where there is no steps in that one door. Now, you would think that with a city of this magnitude that that wouldn't be the case with City Hall. And so, if that is the way it is for City Hall, imagine what it must be for voting. But they are going to have to eventually look at an alternative way for handicapped people to be able to vote, whether it be by a special ballot, whether it is one designated place they have to go, but then you have to realize, a lot of handicapped people don't have transportation. Everyone doesn't have the luxury of having a van that has a wheelchair lift that you can go up and come out and then go in. But as I said, I don't think the sensitivity level is where it really should be. Maybe—I can only speak about this municipality. I can't speak about across the country. But I know that it is not there yet. And as I said, just look at City Hall. As many people as you have in wheelchairs, and there is only way, and to tell you the truth, when I started working here, I had to send my people out to really go over the City Hall completely to find out the best way that I would be able to enter, because we were worried about it, you know. And as I said, there just has to be more sensitivity about people who are disabled because they—in fact, there is a lot of disabled people that would love to vote, and you find that on Election Day, when you are placing calls, they would love to come, but they can't enter the polls because it is not handicap accessible. And then, as you know, in this neighborhood, with its neighborhoods and the city of neighbors that we have here, a lot of people's residences are used for voting. It is not so bad when it is a public place, or it is a store that someone has given us. So there has to be an alternative way for these people to be able to cast their vote.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you. Thank you, Councillady. Also we are joined by the distinguished Majority Leader of City Council, Councillady Jannie Blackwell. Thank you. Gentlelady from California, are there any questions?

Ms. LOFGREN. Just a few. Thank you very much for this testimony, and I was wondering, Councilwoman, what your thoughts would be on—it is easy in California actually. I represent San Jose. In 1960, the population of the City of San Jose was under 50,000. It is over a million today. So that growth has all been new, and so all the buildings are new, and it is just easy to comply. With an older city such as this, it is a completely different set of challenges. And as you were talking, I was thinking about my mother-in-law is in a wheelchair. Now, we have Thanksgiving at our house every year. 40 people come, and we built a ramp so that once a year we can have my—my mother-in-law can very easily—we wish it was more often, but it is very difficult for her to travel. It doesn't meet ADA requirements, that ramp, but actually it works. And the question, I guess, is, do you think there is a way to relax the ADA requirements if it is for a one-day voter purpose and it is a safe approach to—is that an approach that might make sense, do you think?

Ms. CAMPBELL. I think it would. I think by any means necessary. I think the greatest Constitutional right you have is the right to vote. And I don't think anyone should be denied that opportunity.

Ms. LOFGREN. Your testimony is very powerful on that point.

Ms. CAMPBELL. Okay. I mean, that is what I just really feel. I feel, as I said, I find there is a lack of sensitivity in a lot of places, as far as people. I never really realized. I wasn't cognizant of it before I became disabled, but once I became disabled, you pay particular attention to what really goes on in the dealing with people that are handicapped. I am blessed because I have a lot of people that are around me, a lot of people that help me, and I have a tremendous support system. But everyone doesn't have the luxury of that.

Ms. LOFGREN. That is right. I was interested in the comments on people who have paid their debt to society, but they are permanently barred from ever voting again. And this is, again, one of the things that we hope to look at in the hearing later this year, on whether felons who have served their sentence or finished with their parole, they have paid their debt to society, whether there shouldn't be some national rule where those individuals who are now expected to come back and integrate into society shouldn't fully integrate and also become voters. And it seems to me that there is a civil rights component to this as well. When you take a look at who is in the nation's prisons and jails because of a variety of reasons, including disparity of sentencing, you end up with minorities who are being disenfranchised, to the point where it is a substantial number of African-American men in particular, are unable ever to participate in the electoral system. And that strikes me as something very troubling. Do you?

Ms. CAMPBELL. It does need to be addressed, because they do have to pay taxes. They don't say, because you are a felon you don't have to pay taxes. You have to pay taxes, and they have to pay taxes. Then they have the right to exercise their Constitutional right to be able to vote. It seems to me that once you have paid your debt to society, that should suffice. That should be sufficient. And I think it is going to the extreme to deny people, because people do change. They do change. A lot of times people have to go through the experience of being turned around completely from something terrible that they have done, and I know I don't look at things as I did when I was 20 years old. In fact, sometimes I think I had more sense when I was 20 years old than I do right now, to be perfectly honest, you know. I think as I get older sometimes I get wilder and crazier. But really I do think that they have a right. I think to deny them that right is morally wrong. And I think that once people have paid their debts, you know, judge ye not unless you be judged, you haven't walked in their shoes. So you don't know what brought them to that point in their life that caused them to do what they did. And I don't think any of us have led such a pristine life that we have the right to judge them.

Mr. STALBERG. The Committee of Seventy agrees that there should be a fair national standard that re-enfranchises felons. As Mr. Mondesire pointed out, that is not a problem in Pennsylvania, although in practicality getting the proper identification is. But it is a problem elsewhere in the country.

Ms. LOFGREN. I want to ask just about two other issues. The Chairman mentioned the bill that the House has passed about voter intimidation, and I think it is a very important measure, and I hope that the Senate will either adopt Senator Obama's bill or our bill or something so that we can make that Law before the next election. But one of the things that we did not include and that I hope that we can—we are planning to take a look at, and I don't know if it has been a problem here in Pennsylvania or not. But it is the issue of harassing robo-calls. What we found in California and also in some other western states, one candidate's campaign would place these robo-calls repeatedly, and in the middle of the night. So that, you know, you are a voter asleep, and it is 2:00 in the morning, and it is 3:00 in the morning, and it is 4:00 in the morning. And you are getting repeated phone calls, and you think it is the candidate. But it is actually the opponent who is getting those calls placed, to the point where there was such harassment that voters—I mean candidates who were victimized by this had to stop their voter—their get-out-the-vote efforts. People—you can imagine when you are woken up repeatedly in the middle of the night, it does not make you feel friendly towards the person who you think is instigating those calls. Was that an issue here in Pennsylvania that you know of?

Ms. CAMPBELL. Not to my knowledge. We have received robo-calls but normally they are during——

Ms. LOFGREN. But not in the middle of the night.

Ms. CAMPBELL. No, not the middle of the night.

Ms. LOFGREN. All right.

The CHAIRMAN. We may, now.

Ms. LOFGREN. Sorry. Now I have lost my train of thought. I guess the final question that I have really goes to something called vote caging. And we have a hearing in the Judiciary Committee, that I also serve on, when we looked at the US Attorneys and the politicization of the Justice Department, and this was one of the issues that came up. And it sounded somewhat innocuous when the Justice Department lawyers talked about that they had done this in their spare time, where they had sent mailings to make sure that, you know, we didn't have people no longer eligible to vote. And then I saw actually the public television did a story, and here is what happened. They picked out neighborhoods that were low income, African-American neighborhoods, Latino neighborhoods, neighborhoods where sometimes the mail didn't get delivered as reliably as in some other neighborhoods, or neighborhoods where there were a large number of young people who are away at college, sent in mailings. And then, when they were not returned, reported those voters as no longer there, so that we ended up with 20 or 30 percent of the African-American and Latino voters disenfranchised in that community. I am wondering whether anything like that has happened here in Pennsylvania and if we ought not to look about prohibiting that when it has a disparate, adverse impact on protected classes of Americans. And there is a reason why, you know, we are still alert to discrimination against African-Americans and Latinos. It is because there is discrimination, and we need to be especially alert in those circumstances.

Mr. STALBERG. If I may, I would like to let Christopher Sheridan, who is the head of the voting rights and election reform program for the Committee of Seventy just comment briefly on that, because it is an issue.

Mr. SHERIDAN. In a number of occasions in the past, I think most recently in 2003, we have seen instances of using mail to build challenge lists on behalf of one major political party, and I think—so it has been an issue that we have seen. I think generally when we have gotten to the polls, I don't know that it has always been followed through on. Usually the mail comes back, and there is a new story, this many people aren't there. But we haven't seen a whole lot of challenges in the field based on this. But it is something—it actually goes back to Tammany Hall in the last century, caging is a very old practice. And it is something that, you know, it is discriminatory, and it is something that you should take a serious look at prohibiting, along with false literature, which may be covered in, I believe it was 811 or Senator Obama's bill. We do see——

Ms. LOFGREN. And the bill passed by the House, the false literature is covered by that.

Mr. SHERIDAN. Well, yeah, we do see false literature on Election Day. We frequently have to come to Election Court to get an order against false and misleading literature. So I do think it is an issue, especially in highly competitive, you know, general elections.

Ms. CAMPBELL. From my experience as the Secretary of Democratic Party in addition to being Chair of the African-American Ward Leaders, you have a lot of problems on Election Day in the minority wards. A lot of times people are removed from the registration rolls, but no one can give you an answer as to why. I find that sometimes there are many things that happen in the minority wards that do not happen in other wards, such as machines being broke seven o'clock in the morning, when we have new machines. Machines being jammed. And sometimes there is a pattern in certain wards where this does happen. Now, I don't know whether it is the fault of the machine or the lack of maybe the proper care. I don't know. But I just find it very strange that this does happen in the minority wards.

Ms. LOFGREN. At this point I have exhausted my questions, but I will say I understand why, when Chairman Brady comes to Washington, he is always bragging about where he is from, and the people he represents, and how smart they are, and how savvy they are. And I can see that from the witnesses today. And it has really been an honor, Bob, to be down here with you, and I commend you again for holding this hearing.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you. It is also my honor to show you off a little bit and let my friends that I have known for many, many, many, many years see who I serve with and help me look good, too, in my committee and in Congress. We were joined by the Majority Leader, Councillady Jannie Blackwell. Would you like to comment on anything? I know you have the box in your office, and you heard some of the testimony. Is there anything that you would like to say?

Ms. BLACKWELL. Certainly, absolutely. Certainly I want to thank you both for being here to deal with this important issue. Our Congressman knows all the issues we face as ward leaders and elected officials in our districts. And I remember the year, so, talking about the handicapped, I remember before we had the law where we had to make all our sidewalks handicapped, a wheelchair could get down one side and not up on the other. So we have come a long way, certainly, in spite of our issues. But with regard to voting, it is just important that people be given the opportunity to submit their ballots when they can't vote. I remember before my mother passed how difficult it was. And the last time I had forgotten to file my absentee ballot, and I took her, and of course they let me in, and she was just overwhelmed being inside a machine and having names and numbers so high, and it was just too much for her. And so it is just important that in order to make sure that people have their rights, they are allowed to file ballots. And I do believe, I thought that the new machines would change the problems we had with voting, but we still have problems. I suppose it amounts to intent. It amounts to will. People want to do it right. It happens right, but when we have controversial elections, we find that somehow, somewhere, we still have voter machine errors in certain areas. That is an issue. How it happens, only God knows. We don't know. But we support the effort. We thank you for having this hearing. We thank our beloved Congressman Bob Brady, and certainly we support whatever we can do to make sure that people in America have a right to this tree of life, and that includes voting and the ability for all people to vote. Thank you. Thank you, Congressman.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you, Councillady. I would also like to ask unanimous consent to hold the committee record open for five days for inclusion of additional materials and written answers to questions.

The CHAIRMAN. Thank you. I thank the panel again. Thank you for your participation. Believe me, you don't know how important this is for us to have this on the record so that we can take the information back and insert it any time we have a hearing. We can insert your testimony, and we can make your feelings known without you actually having to be there, and it gives us good ammunition. So I thank all of you for your time and your participation. I especially thank the two Councilwomen for allowing us to infringe upon your turf for a moment or two and also the Council president for allowing us to use this facility. Again, a wholehearted thankyou to my colleague and friend from California, to Congresswoman Zoe Lofgren, for coming out here and spending time. She could have been home the rest of today like I have, but she spent another day here with us, and we are going to show her a little bit of the City of Philadelphia. I thank all of you, and this hearing is now adjourned.

[Whereupon, at 11:50 a.m., the Committee was adjourned.]

1. Lack of Spanish-language interpreter support.
    a. Total absence or inadequate numbers of interpreters in heavily laden language-minority polling sites.
    b. The "Oh.., I'm sure there is one around" answer to a request for an interpreter is unacceptable, offensive and in violation of court agreement.
    c. Selection process of interpreters is unclear and perceived as politically influenced
    d. What skills are required to become a Spanish-language interpreter? Are there any formal training requirements? Are there any credentialing requirements? Are all questions answered with nebulous responses.
    e. County Boards should seek and accept engagements with non-partisan, grassroots organizations, who offer to recruit and train interpreters for free or at nominal fees.
2. Unable to distinguish polling officials from party/candidate operatives.
    a. Require display of official photo-ID badges on outer garment clearly indicating name, title and party affiliation (where applicable) of every poll official.
3. Candidate and party operatives in front of polling place improperly hinder the free movement of voters suppresses voter turnout. Aggressive canvassing practices outside polling area create an unpleasant [and at times, hostile] atmosphere for voters. Voters are less likely to vote when they fear obnoxious and aggressive solicitation. The "gauntlet-like" experience discourages participation in electoral process. It's seen as political strategy designed to discourage voter participation in neighborhoods likely to vote for the contender. It's especially intimidating to first-time voters, women and the elderly.
    a. Expand "buffer zone" perimeter of polling area.
    b. Where enforcement of a larger buffer-area is an unreasonable alternative, eliminate political solicitation activity in polling area on Election Day entirely.
4. Inadequate signage in exterior of polling places, (i.e., schools, churches, commercial/industrial buildings) cause unnecessary confusion.
    a. Need exterior signage to clearly indicate or 'points to' entrances of polling stations;

   b. Exterior signage should identify ward and divisions of suffrage therein.
5. Inadequate signage in polling places
   a. Need of uniform standards, i.e., size, location, language, etc.
   b. Need of signage with contact information to a bilingual 'hot line' whereas voters may request information, receive clarification of process, and file complaints. Hot-lines (both telephone and web based) must be operational ahead of, throughout and a few days following Election Day.
6. Demand "Election Day registration", "vote-by-mail", and "early vote" systems/schemes which fosters increased voter participation. Especially beneficial to:
   a. seniors,
   b. language minorities with limited English skills,
   c. the physically challenged,
   d. those with limited literacy skills and thus unable to read or write,
   e. and, to anyone who needs and wants additional time to make a thoughtful decision.
7. County boards must promote civic engagement
   a. Take deliberate steps to implement effective schemes of voter & voting education in schools and neighborhoods.
   b. Make facsimile voting equipment available to community organizations, houses of faith, community fairs, and schools to afford constituents the opportunity to become familiar with the voting technology.
   c. Promote the attendance of parent-child in the voting booth.

Where the citizen's right to vote conflict with the interests of a political candidate or the convenience of an electoral system – it is the former who must prevail. A republican representative democracy becomes a worthless philosophical abstract if the free and unobstructed practice of the same is unachievable. It becomes a painful farce, a rhetorical concept.., an illusion of inclusion.

TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, in the spirit of cooperation and comity and to avoid the expense and time of litigating the matter, including the planned additional allegations in the amended complaint, the Parties desire to fully and finally settle the Department's claims. The Parties agree the Board shall continue and/or undertake the specific activities set forth in this Agreement to continue and/or enhance its activities to comply with state and federal election law.

In consideration of the mutual promises contained in this Agreement, good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is acknowledged, the Parties, intending to be legally bound, agree:

Spanish Language Assistance

1. The Board shall make Spanish language assistance available at the Board's principal office at 520 North Delaware Avenue. Trained bilingual election personnel shall be available to answer voting-related questions by telephone without cost (except as such assistance, such as duplication services, also may be at cost when provided in English) during normal business hours and while the polls are open on election days.

2. The Board agrees to recruit, hire, and assign sufficient numbers of persons proficient in Spanish and English, so as to provide effective assistance in the Spanish language, to serve as interpreters during election days, and, to that end, shall, among other outreach efforts, invite recommendations of interpreters from community leaders and from each major political party, and shall urge members of the Advisory Group, as discussed below, to help recruit interpreters.

3. The Board agrees to provide at least one Spanish-language interpreter on election days at each polling place where the Board determines there to be a need for such interpreters through the process set forth in Paragraphs 4-6 of this Agreement.

4. For the May 15, 2007 election, the Board will make at least one interpreter available on election day at each of the divisions listed on the attached Exhibit A. For each of the divisions listed on the attached Exhibit B, except for the May 15, 2007 election and elections that are not expected to have high turnout (see Paragraph 6 below), the Board will make available at least two interpreters on election day. The Parties recognize, however, that it may be difficult to assure that two interpreters are available at each of the divisions listed on Exhibit B for the May 15, 2007 election; for that election, best efforts will satisfy the Board's obligations to provide two interpreters at the divisions listed on Exhibit B. For the consolidated divisions listed on the attached Exhibit C, the Board will make available at least one interpreter on election day for each two consolidated divisions.

5. Starting in June 2007, and thereafter on an annual basis, the Board will request that the Philadelphia School District, the Philadelphia Department of Human Services ("DHS"), and the Philadelphia City Planning Commission identify geographic areas in the City where there has been a material increase in services for Spanish-speaking persons or migration of Spanish-speaking persons. The Board will review and discuss with the Advisory Group information, to the extent available and useful, provided by the Philadelphia School District, DHS, the Planning Commission, the Department, the U.S. Census, voter registration records, local elected leaders, and local community leaders, and will make appropriate adjustments based upon reliable information.

6. The Board may adjust bilingual assistance at specific polling places in light of reliable information that the actual need for language assistance in such polling place is lesser or greater than as enumerated by the above standards. For the duration of this Agreement, a determination to eliminate or reduce interpretation at a polling place shall only be made with the consent of the Department or, in the event the Department objects, the Court. The Parties recognize that the need for the assistance of a second interpreter at the polling places identified on Exhibit B will vary according to turnout and the Department will consent to reduce the number of interpreters from two to one at the polling places listed on Exhibit B for elections that are not expected to have high turnout, and to increase the number where there is reliable information that additional assistance is needed.

7. The Board shall develop a policy to assure that Polling Place Officials who are assigned by the Board to satisfy its obligations under Paragraph 3 of this Agreement are able to understand, speak, write, and read Spanish proficiently. Within 30 days of the date of this Agreement, the Board shall provide the Department with a detailed draft of such policy, which shall include the process to assure that Polling Place Officials who are assigned by the Board to satisfy its obligations under Paragraph 3 of this Agreement are familiar with Spanish language election terms. The Department shall have seven days to review the draft and provide comments to the Board. If the Board and the Department are unable to agree within seven days thereafter on the contents of the policy, either party may approach the Court for resolution.

8. The Board shall instruct Polling Place Officials to post signs prominently in both English and Spanish at all polling places stating that Spanish language assistance is available and, where such assistance is by other than a Spanish-proficient Polling Place Official, how such assistance can be obtained.

Translation and Dissemination of Election-Related Materials

9. The Board shall employ its best efforts to use materials in English and Spanish provided by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the extent such signage is available. To the extent such election-related materials are not provided by the Commonwealth, the Board shall have all election-related materials, such as registration or voting applications and notices, voting instructions, notices of availability of assistance, and ballots, professionally translated into Spanish, or, where appropriate, develop comparable Spanish-language equivalents reasonably calculated to achieve specific goals in a manner comparable to that provided to the English-speaking population.

10. The Board shall update the checklist used to identify each written or printed item of election information that the Board makes available to the public at each polling place, including each item that the Help America Vote Act requires to be posted. The Judge of Elections for each polling place shall be instructed to complete and sign this checklist or, where appropriate, provide written explanation for a failure to do so. The Board agrees to maintain for 22 months a record of each completed and signed checklist.

11. The Board shall, in consultation with the Advisory Group, design and implement a program to ensure that Spanish language election information, materials, and announcements shall be distributed to the media and in paid media placements in the appropriate Spanish-language venues. These announcements need not be identical in all respects to English language announcements, but shall provide substantially the same information and be in the form, frequency, and media reasonably calculated to achieve effective notice and understanding comparable to that provided to the English-speaking population.

Assistors of Choice

12. The Board shall provide training and information to Polling Place Officials that they must allow any voter who requires assistance to vote by reason of blindness, disability or inability to read or write to be given assistance by a person of the voter's choice, other than a Judge of Election, the voter's employer or agent of that employer or officer or agent of the voter's union.

13. The Board shall train and provide information to Polling Place Officials that, when any limited English proficient Spanish-speaking voters, who are either blind, disabled, or cannot read or write English, select a Polling Place Official as their assistor of choice, the voters should receive assistance from a Spanish-proficient Polling Place Official if one is available at that location.

Registration List Maintenance

14. The Department shall share with the Board information from the Death Master File of the Social Security Administration ("SSA") concerning deceased persons having a Philadelphia County address. The Department shall provide this information in an electronic text format on a CD or DVD. To the extent available, the information from the Social Security file shall include the last name, first name, middle initial, and suffix; date of birth; Social Security number; the date of death; the SSA address of record for the individual at the time of death; the last SSA Philadelphia address of record for the individual; the last SSA Pennsylvania address of record for the individual; and the address from the Philadelphia files of eligible voters for each person the Department contends is deceased yet still on the Philadelphia voter rolls. The Parties agree that, to the extent the requested data items are unavailable, such unavailability may limit the data's usefulness to the Board. The Board will use this previously unavailable and non-mandatory information to search its files of eligible voters. Within 90 days after the first election after receiving this information, the Board shall, in a manner consistent with Pennsylvania election law, review its files of eligible voters and attempt to confirm and remove any registrants found on the Board's files of eligible voters where the Board is able to confirm the registrant is deceased.

15. So long as the data referenced in Paragraph 14 is provided on or before May 31, 2007, the Board shall provide a report to the Department on or before November 1, 2007, with the names and appropriate identifying information of all registrants who were, by reason of being deceased, deleted from the registration list between January 1, 2007 and the date the report is generated.

16. It shall be the policy of the Board to use all mandatory and reasonably available optional voter update and removal programs and: (1) act on state-provided information obtained from the statewide voter registration database regarding voters who may have become ineligible, such as potential deaths; (2) research, confirm and act on other specific information provided in writing

The Board shall notify the Department in writing of any change in the policy set forth in this paragraph.

Polling Place Official Training and Oath of Undertaking

17. The Board will encourage all Polling Place Officials to attend election training. That training must include detailed discussions and written materials regarding the Voting Rights Act, including: (i) the legal obligation and means to make Spanish language assistance and materials available to voters, (ii) the procedures and guidelines for providing such assistance, (iii) the requirement that Polling Place Officials be respectful and courteous to all voters regardless of race, ethnicity, color, or language abilities and to avoid inappropriate comments, and (iv) the requirement to allow voters, who are disabled, or cannot read or write English, to select any person of their choice, other than a Judge of Election, the voter's employer or an officer or agent of the voter's union, to assist them with the voting process. Moreover, the training must cover the right of each voter, pursuant to Section 301 of HAVA and the Pennsylvania Constitution, to vote privately and independently, and the procedures for setting up and operating accessible machines and the requirement to post all HAVA-required signs, in English and Spanish, so that all voters can easily view such signs. The Board will retain a list of those who have attended training.

18. To be eligible to serve as a Polling Place Official in specific capacities, an individual must take the appropriate oath of office under 25 Pa. Stat. Ann. §§ 2677-80. Beginning with officials trained after May 1, 2007, for the May 15, 2007 election, and for all training provided thereafter, the Board shall require that Polling Place Officials also, at the time they receive training, swear or affirm on an appropriate form that they are aware of and will comply with all of their obligations under federal law, including the legal obligation and means to make Spanish language assistance and materials available to voters and the parameters of such assistance; that they will treat all voters equally and with respect; take any and all reasonable steps to ensure that the polling place is free from intimidation or coercion; honor the candidate and other ballot choices of all voters who receive assistance in marking their ballots and, allow voters requiring language assistance to choose any person to assist them, other than their employer or union representative, consistent with Section 208 of the Voting Rights Act.

Spanish Language Election Program Coordinator

19. The Board shall designate an individual to coordinate the Board's Spanish language election program (the "Spanish Language Coordinator") for all elections in the City. The Board shall provide the Spanish Language Coordinator with support sufficient to meet its goals for the program. The Spanish Language Coordinator shall be able to understand, speak, write, and read both Spanish and English fluently, or shall have subordinates with those abilities. The Spanish Language Coordinator shall work under the supervision of the Board and his or her responsibilities shall include, but are not limited to: (i) coordinating efforts to ensure that all ballots and other election information are translated properly; (ii) developing and overseeing the bilingual Spanish language election publicity program, including the selection of appropriate Spanish language media for notices and announcements; (iii) identifying the need for, recruiting and assigning Spanish language interpreters for all elections; (iv) developing and overseeing the presentation in English of the bilingual-related elements of the Board's election training program for all Polling Place Officials to ensure compliance with the requirements of this Agreement and applicable federal and state law; and (v) managing any other aspect of the Spanish bilingual program that is required by this Agreement and applicable federal or state law.

20. The Spanish Language Coordinator shall keep, maintain for 22 months, and hold available for reasonable inspection and copying at the Board's office a record of information used to publicize Spanish-language election information, announcements and notices, including all materials that are provided to the Advisory Group pursuant to paragraph 23 of this Agreement.

Response to Complaints

21. The Board, upon receipt of complaints, whether oral or written, agrees to investigate expeditiously any allegations of Polling Place Officials' illegal or materially inappropriate conduct toward voters or failures to follow federal election law. Where there is credible evidence that a Polling Place Official has engaged in illegal or materially inappropriate treatment of voters, or failed to follow federal election law, the Board shall take reasonable efforts to prevent future offenses by such official. As appropriate under the circumstances of each case, such efforts may include counseling, in-person instruction, refusal to reappoint an Appointed Polling Place Official, seeking a judicial order to remove an Elected Polling Place Official, and referral of potentially criminal acts to the District Attorney.

Advisory Group

22. The Advisory Group shall assist the Board in its Spanish language election program. There shall be open meetings of the Advisory Group at least quarterly through 2008, including one such meeting no less than 45 days in advance of each primary and general election. The Advisory Group will address at least the following issues: voter registration, conduct of Polling Place Officials/need for bilingual Polling Place Officials, and voter education and information. The Advisory Group will consider channels of communication and make recommendations to the Board regarding dissemination of election information. To further the purposes of the Advisory Group, it may establish subcommittees that are open to all interested individuals and organizations. The chairperson of the Advisory Group shall provide notice of all planned meetings, including the time and location for the meeting, at least seven days in advance of such meeting, although members of the Advisory Group may agree to waive or shorten this time period as necessary. Notices of open meetings shall be provided to the Department, and publicized to appropriate language media and community groups. The chairperson may fix the topics of such meetings and shall, where a topic is fixed, provide in advance a general agenda of such meetings. The chairperson shall regularly provide a written summary of the proceedings of the Advisory Group to all members of the Board.

23. The Board shall make available to all members of the Advisory Group copies, in English and Spanish, of all appropriate election information, announcements, and notices that are provided or made available to the electorate and general public.

Accessible Voting Machines

24. The Board shall ensure that each polling place has at least one voting machine designed for the use of those with accessibility needs in accordance with the 2002 Voluntary Voting System Standards adopted by the United States Election Assistance Commission ("Accessible Voting Machines"). The Board shall instruct its machine inspectors to assure that at least one such Accessible Voting Machine, including any feature intended to allow voters with disabilities to vote privately and independently, is fully operational at each polling place before the opening of the polling place. Training for Polling Place Officials shall include how to ensure the appropriate Polling Place Official provides effective assistance such that the appropriate Polling Place Official may assist voters. The Board shall instruct Polling Place Officials not to in any way specifically discourage, delay, or interfere with any voter who requests the use of an Accessible Voting Machine. To the extent that the Board is made aware that an Accessible Voting Machine is not fully operational when a polling place opens, the Board shall take prompt and appropriate measures to make the machine operational and will keep a record if no Accessible Voting Machine is available at any division for a period of 90 minutes or more during hours that such polling place is open.

Evaluation of Plan

25. The Parties recognize that regular and ongoing reassessment may be necessary to provide the most effective and efficient Spanish language election program. The Board shall reevaluate its election procedures and programs after each election to determine which aspects of the programs are functioning well, whether any aspects need improvement, and how to affect needed improvements. The Agreement may be adjusted by agreement of the Parties.

Dismissal of Action

26. The Parties stipulate and agree to the dismissal to of all of the Department's claims raised in the complaint and the amended complaint, and of all other claims related to the conduct of the polls that could have been brought, as of the date of this Agreement, under the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended, the Help America Vote Act of 2002, the National Voter Registration Act of 1993, and any other federal law to the extent such laws address conduct of elections; provided, however, that: (1) this Agreement does not resolve, limit, preclude or implicate any claims the Department may have regarding the physical accessibility of the Defendants' polling places under the Americans with Disabilities Act or other federal law; (2) this Agreement does not resolve, limit, preclude, or implicate any criminal charges; (3) nothing in this Agreement will prevent the Department from bringing new claims against anyone based on conduct in future elections during the term of this Agreement, so long as the Department first exhausts the dispute resolution procedures of Paragraph 28; and (4) nothing herein shall be interpreted to diminish or enhance the use of any evidence of events occurring before the date of this Agreement, which use is governed by the Federal Rules of Evidence.

27. Contemporaneous with the signing of this Agreement, the Department shall provide Defendants with a signed Stipulation of Dismissal with Prejudice in the form attached as Exhibit D. The amended complaint shall be filed within three business days of the Effective Date. Defendants shall promptly sign the Stipulation of Dismissal, and file it after the amended complaint has been filed.

Dispute Resolution

28. Before filing any complaint, motion, or other pleading concerning the Defendants' failure to conduct any activity, or to refrain from any activity, covered by this Agreement, or sending any letter to the Court, the Department must take certain steps: (a) expeditiously investigate and verify such information and the Defendants will reasonably cooperate with and assist the Department as it does so (for the avoidance of doubt, reasonable cooperation does not include waiver of any claims to privilege or provision of any information requested in a broad and sweeping manner); (b) give specific written notice within 30 days to the Board of any credible allegation violation of the Voting Rights Act, HAVA, the NVRA, or any other applicable election-related law that the Department reasonably believes can be substantiated, including a detailed statement of the factual basis for any alleged violations or objections and all related information gathered by the Department; (c) make appropriately senior personnel reasonably available to participate in at least one face-to-face meeting in Philadelphia to attempt in good faith to resolve any differences; and (d) allow the Board 30 days to cure any purported violations (or in the case of past violations to take remedial or preventative efforts), or such other time as is reasonable and necessary in light of the imminence of an election day. The Board will provide information to the Department that has been reasonably requested to assist and cooperate with the Department in its investigation; provided, however, that the Board's alleged failure to provide such information shall not be grounds for the Department to fail to take the steps outlined in this provision before filing any complaint, motion, or other pleading, or sending any letter to the Court. Nothing in this paragraph, however, shall in any way bar the United States from pursuing appropriate criminal sanctions against any individual Polling Place Official for alleged wrong-doing in connection with the conduct of any election.

Department Assistance

29. The Department agrees to provide reasonable guidance to the Board, including but not limited to, guidance about model policies in other jurisdictions and demographic information to the extent that it is not otherwise reasonably available to the Board.

Other Provisions

30. The terms of this Agreement apply to all federal, state, and local elections that are administered by the Board to the extent it is consistent with the Voting Rights Act, HAVA and the NVRA and any other applicable election law. Were the Board to enter into an election services contract with any other entity, the Board would require such entity to agree to abide by the terms of this Agreement as if such entity were a party to it, as consistent with applicable law.

31. This Agreement is final and binding between the Parties and their successors in office regarding the matters described in paragraph 23. This Agreement shall expire on July 1, 2009.

32. The Parties shall jointly move the Court to retain jurisdiction over the case until July 1, 2009, and agree that the Court shall have the authority to enforce each of the terms of this Agreement.

33. The Parties agree that no Party shall be in breach of this Settlement Agreement due to causes beyond such Party's control, including acts of God, acts of terrorism, floods, fires, accidents, wars, or civil insurrection.

34. The Department may request federal monitors for any election during the term of this Agreement by providing a written request for such monitors to the City Solicitor of the City at least 30 days before such election or, for the May 15, 2007 election, within five days of the Effective Date. The City anticipates that it will approve such monitors in a manner consistent with its historic practice.

35. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as an admission of liability by the Department, the Board, the City, or any of their employees, officers, directors, Board members or other elected or appointed officials, agents, or representatives.

36. This Agreement, including all attachments hereto, represents the entire Agreement and understanding between the Parties regarding the subject matter hereof and supersedes any and all prior and contemporaneous agreements, representations, understandings and negotiations between the Parties hereto, whether oral or written, with respect to the subject matter hereof.

37. The Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same document.

38. Any notice to the Department under this Agreement shall be directed to the Chief of the Voting Section of the United States Department of Justice. Any notice to the Board under this Agreement shall be directed both to the City Solicitor and to Abbe F. Fletman, Flaster/Greenberg, P.C., Eight Penn Center, 1628 JFK Blvd., 15th floor, Philadelphia, PA 19103.

June 30, 2003

Dear Fellow Philadelphian:

We, the City Commissioners of Philadelphia, present to you our Ninety-Seventh Annual Report covering our activities in the Voter Registration Division and the County Board of Elections of the City Commissioners Office for election year 2002.

The City Commissioners administered voter registration in accordance with the National Voter Registration Act of 1993 (NVRA) and the Pennsylvania Voter Registration Act, codified by Act 3 of 2002. These registration laws provide for expanded voter registration opportunities. Prior to enactment of the NVRA, citizens could only submit voter registration applications in person, by mail, or through third party agents. These registration laws provide the additional methods of voter registration simultaneous with drivers' license applications and renewals (Motor-Voter), and at certain other state government agencies, such as public assistance, and marriage license offices (Agency-Based).
The NVRA and Act 3 also mandate that the Commission use change of address information from drivers license agencies and the U.S. Postal Service to update the records of registered voters who have changed their residence to maintain the currency and accuracy of the files of eligible voters.

The NVRA and Act 3 also provide very detailed requirements for voter registration administration, including the requirement that no names be removed from the files of eligible voters for reasons of failure to vote, or merely because the voter has changed residence. The NVRA and Act 3 mandate complex voter notification and "fail-safe" voting procedures, prior to the removal of the name of any voter who has changed residence.

Registered electors who have changed residence, but have failed to notify the registration commission, are now permitted to return to the polling place of their former address and vote, provided their registration record is still in the district register, or pollbooks. Before voting these registrants must complete an affirmation providing their new address for updating the Commission's records.

Electors who are unable to enter, or operate a voting machine because of a disability, or inability to read or write English, are permitted to declare, in writing, their need for assistance at the polling place on election day. The elector may receive assistance in voting from the person of their choice.

VOTER REMOVAL PROGRAMS

Federal and state voter registration laws require that the Commission conduct annual Voter Removal Programs to maintain the accuracy and currency of the files of eligible voters.

National Change of Address Program

These laws provide that the Commission may use the U.S. Postal Service National Change of Address Program (NCOA) to detect registered voters who have changed their residence.

In May 2002 the Commission contracted with a vendor licensed by the U.S. Postal Service to compare the names and addresses of all 1,017,896 registered voters in the city to the National Change of Address data file to detect electors who may have changed their address. The vendor provided the Commission with approximately 18,361 electors who had been reported as having changed residence within the County in the past two years and 12,562 who changed residence to an address outside the County since May 2001. The NCOA report included 9,489 possible moves without any new address,

During June, the Commission mailed Notice of Change of Address, (NCA) forms to all 40,412 electors, providing a response form and pre-addressed, postage pre-paid envelope for elector confirmation of the change. The Commission mailed a mandated second notice, the Address Verification Notice, (AVN), to 33,119 registered electors who failed to responded to the NCA notices.

The NCOA Voter Removal Program resulted in the following responses and voter file maintenance for the records of:

- 2,756 electors confirmed their continued residence at the address of registration and their records were not changed.
- 2,869 electors who confirmed their change of residence to a new address within Philadelphia remained designated as Active, had their address updated and, if necessary, the record was transferred to their new election district,.
- 2,358 electors who confirmed their change of residence to an address outside Philadelphia were deleted from the files of eligible voters.
- 15,442 electors who had been reported as moved to a new address within Philadelphia, and who failed to respond to the NCA and AVN notices, were designated as Inactive, had their address updated and, if necessary, were transferred to their new election district,.
- 7,843 electors, who had been reported as having moved outside Philadelphia, and who failed to respond to the NCA and AVN notices, were designated Inactive at the address of registration.
- 5,190 electors who had been reported as possibly moved (NCOA Nixies), without any new address information, failed to respond, were designated Inactive at the address of registration.

The 2002 NCOA program resulted in the designation of 28,475 records as Inactive 2,358 deletions and in-county address updates on 18,311 records.

Address Verification Notices

In addition to the notices triggered by the NCOA program, the City Commissioners, in January & August 2002, mailed Address Verification Notices to:

- registrants whose Voter Identification Card was returned by the U.S. Postal Service as undeliverable, with an indication the registrant had moved.
- registrants who polling place officials indicated on District Register Discrepancy Sheets had moved from the election district to an unknown address.

Investigations by Canvass
The City Commissioners conduct investigations of records for registrants whose voter identification card is returned by the U.S. Postal Service with an indication that the applicant may not have been qualified to register at the address on the date the application was submitted. Registration investigators visit the address of registration to determine eligibility.

In November and December 2001 and January, June, and July, 2002, we investigated 1,043 records, which resulted in the following determinations and corresponding file maintenance:

- 128 of the registrants continued to reside at the address of registration;
- 714 registrants had moved, an address verification notice was mailed and their records were designated Inactive.
- 329 individuals were determined not qualified to register at the address on the date the application was submitted, and their records were cancelled.

Five Year Address Verification Program
Pennsylvania law requires the City Commissioners to mail a Five Year Address Verification Notice to all registrants who have had no contract with the Commission, and have not voted in any election within the last five years.

The Five Year AVN includes a response form, and a pre-addressed, postage paid envelope for the registrant to respond, either confirming their continued residence at the address or providing their new address.

In January 2002, we mailed 55,142 Five Year AVN notices to all registrants who had no contact with the Commission and did not vote in any election during the period January 1, 1997 through December 31, 2001. All 55,142 records were designated Inactive. This program resulted in the following responses and voter file maintenance activities:

- 16,500 notices were returned undeliverable by the Post Office.
- 5,643 electors who confirmed their continued residence at the address of registration were re-designated as Active.
- 1,466 electors who confirmed their change of residence to an address within Philadelphia were transferred to their new election district, designated as Active.
- 619 electors who confirmed their change of address to a residence outside Philadelphia were deleted from the files of eligible voters for Philadelphia.

Inactive Electors
Pennsylvania law requires that the record of any registrant who fails to respond to an Address Verification Notice (AVN) be designated as Inactive. Electors whose records are designated Inactive in the District Registers are eligible to vote only after they have completed and signed an Affirmation of Elector, either confirming their residence at the address of registration, or providing their new address to enable the Commission to update its files of eligible voters.

Fail Safe Voting Provisions
Federal law mandates that registrants who change their residence within the county without notifying the registration office must be permitted to vote, regardless of whether they have been sent, have received, or have responded to an Address Verification Notice.

Pennsylvania law requires that Inactive and "Fail Safe" registrants, who have not had their address updated, must return and vote at the polling place for their former address, where their name is listed in the pollbook of eligible voters.

Inactive Cancellation
Inactive voters who fail to respond, or fail to vote in any election during the time period beginning with the date of the AVN notice and ending on the day after the second General Election for Federal office that occurs after the date of the notice, will have their registration cancelled.

In December 2002 the City Commissioners Office cancelled 119,371 records of registrants who had been mailed an AVN or Five Year Notice more than 90 days prior to the November 2000 General Election. Included were 90,819 records flagged Inactive through the Five Year No Contact Program, 16,412 records that had been flagged Inactive through the NCOA Program and 12,140 records that had been flagged Inactive through various residence verification programs such as Discrepancy Sheets, Undeliverable ID Cards, and Investigations by Canvass.

As of the preparation date of this report, 113,148 Inactive registrants, mailed notices in 2001 and 2002, are scheduled for cancellation in December 2004 unless they respond or vote before November 6, 2004.

NEW ELECTRONIC VOTING SYSTEM
In March 2001 the City signed a Contract with Danaher Controls for procurement of an Electronic Voting System, including 3526 Direct Recording Electronic voting machines, Central and Backup Tabulation Centers and Regional Transmission Centers, all connected via an isolated point to point T1 Wide Area Network (WAN). Delivery began in June 2001 and 2,664 DRE voting machines were delivered by the November 2001 General Election.

Acceptance Testing
By October 2001 City Commissioners personnel had performed warehouse acceptance testing on 2,160 machines and had performed conditional acceptance testing on the computer equipment and communications network. In December 2001, City Commissioners personnel resumed testing the 1,366 remaining voting machines and completed all 3,526 machines in February 2002. City Commissioners personnel were trained on the Danaher Controls Guardian election management software in January 2002. During the last two weeks of February, City Commissioners and Danaher Controls personnel conducted a successful full System acceptance test on all elements of the system. On March 1, 2002 the City Commissioners approved use of the system for conducting the May 2002 Gubernatorial Primary Election.

Pre-Election Vote Tabulation / Network Testing
City Commissioners personnel continued weekly accuracy and load testing and training on the System right up to the weekend before the Election. The test consisted of dispatching 30 employees to seven remote City facilities

Primary Ballot Setup and Production
City Commissioners personnel used the System and Guardian EMS software to setup a complex election database which consisted of 90 different legislative ballot splits or styles and required 1,681 different ballot splits, one for each of the City's election Divisions to accommodate election of approximately 6,000 political party Divisional Committee persons. City personnel entered and proofed data for more than 6,000 candidates and tested each of the 90 ballot styles on the machines, insuring election specific functionality.

Production of the ballot face sheets and memory cartridges for the voting machines was delayed due to litigation over the State's Congressional Reapportionment. On April 26th, City Commissioners personnel were able to begin production, printing 3,428 ballot face sheets in a single day, and producing 3,428 Memory Cartridges in the following six days.

Pre Election DRE Voting Machine Tests
Once City Commissioners technicians installed the election ballot face sheets and cartridges on the appropriate machine, the personnel began pre-election testing using the actual election ballot and cartridge. The test consisted of verifying the functionality of every office and candidate position on all 3,428 machines to be used in the election. Once successfully tested, each machine was closed and sealed.

Independent Pre-Election Ballot Testing
Ten days prior to the May 20th Primary Election, and prior to shipping any machine to the polling place, the City Commissioners provided an opportunity for the Committee of 70, an non-partisan watchgroup to randomly select and test the voting machines. The Committee of 70, using volunteers and representatives from the Rendell and Casey Campaigns randomly selected and tested the machines in one voting Division in each of the City's 66 Wards. Once successfully tested, the machines were re-sealed and the contract vendor began delivery to the polling places.

Polling Place Official Training
The City Commissioners instructed their personnel to expand its Pollworker Training Seminars to provide sufficient training on the setup, operation and closing of the polls using the new voting machines. City Commissioners voting machine technicians conducted more than 315 Pollworker training seminars - four weekdays and Saturday each week, for eight weeks, in different sections of the City. Each of the 6,244 Pollworkers who attended the seminars was provided our Pollworker Guide Newspaper and Pollworker Training Video, a 20 minute VHS video tape, both detailing step by step procedures for all voting machine operations. Pollworkers were instructed to review the Guide and watch the tape before the election.

The City Commissioners also made arrangements with the City's Public Property Department - Cable TV unit to air the Pollworker Training Video on each of the seven days preceding the election and notified the Pollworkers by mail of the scheduled air times. Additionally, Danaher Controls conducted two instructional mailings to all Pollworkers in the two weeks preceding the election.

Election Day Pollworker Support at the Polling Place
Commission Chairwoman Margaret M. Tartaglione insisted that the EVS Contract include the requirement that Danaher Controls provide one person for election day support for the Pollworkers at each voting Division polling place. Danaher Controls hired 1,681 Philadelphians as election day assistants and trained them on setting up the machines, opening the polls, activating the machine for voters, closing the polls and obtaining election results. On Election Day these Danaher Controls assistants reported to each of the City's election Division polling places and were available to provide on site assistance to Pollworkers. This support eased pollworker transition to the new machines.

Political Committee Member Training
The City Commissioners and their personnel, recognizing the invaluable assistance that Ward Leaders and Committee persons provide in the conduct of elections, conducted voting machine operation demonstrations at scheduled Democratic and Republican Ward Committee meetings. These stakeholder demonstrations included setting up the machines, opening the polls, activating the machine for voters, closing the polls and obtaining election results. The assistance Committee persons provided pollworkers on election day was an important contributing factor in our successful implementation of the new machines.

Voter Education Program - "Make Your Vote Count"

The City Commissioners, their personnel and Danaher Controls implemented an extensive How to Vote education campaign. During the period from January 14, 2002 through May 15, 2002, Commissioner personnel conducted more than 550 public voting machine Demonstrations during which approximately 30,000 citizens voted on the machines. Commission personnel took the voting machines throughout every Ward in the City conducting demonstrations seven days a week. The demonstrations were conducted at wide variety of events and locations including all of the City Libraries and Health Centers, many recreation centers, schools and public offices; senior citizens meetings, churches, civic and community association meetings; and union meetings.

The City Commissioners distributed "Make Your Vote Count" voter pamphlets at all machine demonstrations and to many City facilities for public distribution and posted the voting instructions on its website. Danaher Controls produced and distributed "Vote, It's Easy" public service announcement videos, and placed paid radio ads and advertisements in local community papers in the two weeks preceding the election. The City Commissioners also placed "Make Your Vote Count" advertisements in every newspaper in the City. Full page voting instruction ads were printed in the Philadelphia Inquirer and Daily News the day before the election and in the Philadelphia Tribune, Al Dia and every local community newspaper in the last issue preceding the election.

For election year 2002, during the period November 7, 2001 through November 5, 2002, the City Commissioners Office successfully performed a city wide implementation of a new Danaher Controls electronic voting system, and successfully conducted two elections using 3,428 new Danaher Controls DRE voting machines in 1,681 voting districts in which a total of 733,000 votes were cast.

The office also received 105,230 voter registration applications from various sources, including 99,954 change of address records from the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation and 40,412 change of address records from the U.S. Postal Service. The City Commissioners Office approved and processed 141,089 new or change of address applications and 9,039 change of political party enrollments.

In addition to the cancellations through the Voter Removal Programs, the City Commissioners also removed from its files the prior records of 44,390 electors who re-registered within Philadelphia; the records of 10,657 deceased electors; 2,386 records of electors for whom notification was received confirming re-registration outside Philadelphia, and 85 records of electors who requested to be removed from the files

Included in this report is a citywide comparative table of registration statistics as of November 5, 2002 and election results for the office of Governor, by Ward and Division, for the 2002 General Election. The report also includes citywide totals for voter turnout, and citywide totals for all candidates participating in the 2002 Primary and General Elections.

Briefly, the 2002 General Election returns for Governor in Philadelphia were:

MIKE FISHER	REPUBLICAN	59,229

KEN KRAWCHUK	LIBERTARIAN	1,976
MICHAEL MORRILL	GREEN	3,129
WRITE-INS	N / A	61

The City Commissioners congratulate the Commission's employees and Danaher Controls personnel for their hard work in successfully implementing the new voting system. The City Commissioners, and the Commission employees would also like to express their sincere appreciation for the work of the City's Ward Leaders, Committee Persons, and Polling Place Officials for their dedication and assistance in educating the voters on using the new voting machines.

The City Commissioners acknowledge the efforts of employees of the City's Law Department, Procurement Department, and Department of Public Property for their assistance in procuring and implementing the voting system.

Finally, the City Commissioners, with sincere appreciation, acknowledges the unfailing cooperation of many political, labor and civic leaders, organizations and the communications media, in the task of informing and encouraging the public to register and vote.

Respectfully submitted,

Dear Fellow Philadelphian:

We, the City Commissioners of Philadelphia, present to you our Ninety-Eight Annual Report covering our activities in the Voter Registration Division and the County Board of Elections of the City Commissioners Office for election year 2003.

The City Commissioners administered voter registration in accordance with the National Voter Registration Act of 1993 (NVRA) and the Pennsylvania Voter Registration Act, codified by Act 3 of 2002. These registration laws provide for expanded voter registration opportunities. Prior to enactment of the NVRA, citizens could only submit voter registration applications in person, by mail, or through third party agents. These registration laws provide the additional methods of voter registration simultaneous with drivers' license applications and renewals (Motor-Voter), and at certain other state government agencies, such as public assistance, and marriage license offices (Agency-Based).

The NVRA and Act 3 also mandate that the Commission use change of address information from drivers license agencies and the U.S. Postal Service to update the records of registered voters who have changed their residence to maintain the currency and accuracy of the files of eligible voters.

The NVRA and Act 3 also provide very detailed requirements for voter registration administration, including the requirement that no names be removed from the files of eligible voters for reasons of failure to vote, or merely because the voter has changed residence. The NVRA and Act 3 mandate complex voter notification and "fail-safe" voting procedures, prior to the removal of the name of any voter who has changed residence.

Registered electors who have changed residence, but have failed to notify the registration commission, are now permitted to return to the polling place of their former address and vote, provided their registration record is still in the district register, or pollbooks. Before voting these registrants must complete an affirmation providing their new address for updating the Commission's records.

Electors who are unable to enter, or operate a voting machine because of a disability, or inability to read or write English, are permitted to declare, in writing, their need for assistance at the polling place on election day. The elector may receive assistance in voting from the person of their choice.

VOTER REMOVAL PROGRAMS

Federal and state voter registration laws require that the Commission conduct annual Voter Removal Programs to maintain the accuracy and currency of the files of eligible voters.

National Change of Address Program

These laws provide that the Commission may use the U.S. Postal Service National Change of Address Program (NCOA) to detect registered voters who have changed their residence.

In May 2003 the Commission contracted with a vendor licensed by the U.S. Postal Service to compare the names and addresses of all 911,641 registered voters in the city to the National Change of Address data file to detect electors who may have changed their address. The vendor provided the Commission with approximately 17,360 electors who had been reported as having changed residence within the County in the preceding year and 9,425 who changed residence to an address outside the County since May 2002. The NCOA report included 5,014 possible moves without any new address.

During June, the Commission mailed Notice of Change of Address, (NCA) forms to all 31,799 electors, providing a response form and pre-addressed, postage pre-paid envelope for elector confirmation of the change. The Commission mailed a mandated second notice, the Address Verification Notice, (AVN), to 23,795 registered electors who failed to responded to the NCA notices.

The NCOA Voter Removal Program resulted in the following responses and voter file maintenance for the records of:

- 2,491 electors confirmed their continued residence at the address of registration and their records were not changed.
- 4,008 electors who confirmed their change of residence to a new address within Philadelphia remained designated as Active, had their address updated and, if necessary, the record was transferred to their new election district,.
- 4,587 electors who confirmed their change of residence to an address outside Philadelphia were deleted from the files of eligible voters.
- 10,861 electors who had been reported as moved to a new address within Philadelphia, and who failed to respond to the NCA and AVN notices, were designated as Inactive, had their address updated and, if necessary, were transferred to their new election district,.
- 4,838 electors, who had been reported as having moved outside Philadelphia, and who failed to respond to the NCA and AVN notices, were designated Inactive at the address of registration.

The 2003 NCOA program resulted in the designation of 16,358 records as Inactive 4,587 deletions and in-county address updates on 14,718 records.

Address Verification Notices

In addition to the notices triggered by the NCOA program, the City Commissioners, in January & August 2003, mailed Address Verification Notices to:

- registrants whose Voter Identification Card was returned by the U.S. Postal Service as undeliverable, with an indication the registrant had moved.
- registrants who polling place officials indicated on District Register Discrepancy Sheets had moved from the election district to an unknown address.
- registrants for whom an investigation of eligibility cannot determine clearly and indisputably that the registrant was not qualified to register at the address when they applied to register.

Investigations by Canvass

The City Commissioners conduct investigations of records for registrants whose voter identification card is returned by the U.S. Postal Service with an indication that the applicant may not have been qualified to register at the address on the date the application was submitted. In many instances registration investigators visit the address of registration to determine eligibility.

In November and December 2002 and January, June, and July, 2003, we investigated 2,200 records, which resulted in the following determinations and corresponding file maintenance:

- records of the registrants who continued to reside at the address of registration remained unchanged;
- for registrants who had moved, an address verification notice was mailed and their records were designated Inactive.
- 940 individuals were determined not qualified to register at the address on the date the application was submitted, and their records were cancelled.

Five Year Address Verification Program

Pennsylvania law requires the City Commissioners to mail a Five Year Address Verification Notice to all registrants who have had no contract with the Commission, and have not voted in any election within the last five years.

The Five Year AVN includes a response form, and a pre-addressed, postage paid envelope for the registrant to respond, either confirming their continued residence at the address or providing their new address.

In January 2003, we mailed 13,962 Five Year AVN notices to all registrants who had no contact with the Commission and did not vote in any election during the period January 1, 1998 through December 31, 2002. All 13,962 records were designated Inactive. This program resulted in the following responses and voter file maintenance activities:

- approximately 4,500 notices were returned undeliverable by the Post Office.
- 700 electors who confirmed their continued residence at the address of registration were re-designated as Active.
- 787 electors who confirmed their change of residence to an address within Philadelphia were transferred to their new election district, designated as Active.
- 162 electors who confirmed their change of address to a residence outside Philadelphia were deleted from the files of eligible voters for Philadelphia.

Inactive Electors

Pennsylvania law requires that the record of any registrant who fails to respond to an Address Verification Notice (AVN) be designated as Inactive. Electors whose records are designated Inactive in the District Registers are eligible to vote only after they have completed and signed an Affirmation of Elector, either confirming their residence at the address of registration, or providing their new address to enable the Commission to update its files of eligible voters.

Fail Safe Voting Provisions

Federal law mandates that registrants who change their residence within the county without notifying the registration office must be permitted to vote, regardless of whether they have been sent, have received, or have responded to an Address Verification Notice.

Pennsylvania law requires that Inactive and "Fail Safe" registrants, who have not had their address updated, must return and vote at the polling place for their former address, where their name is listed in the pollbook of eligible voters.

Inactive Cancellation

Inactive voters who fail to respond, or fail to vote in any election during the time period beginning with the date of the AVN notice and ending on the day after the second General Election for Federal office that occurs after the date of the notice, will have their registration cancelled.

As of November 2003, there 80,000 Inactive registrants, mailed notices in 2001 and 2002, who are scheduled for cancellation in December 2004 unless they respond or vote before November 6, 2004.

NEW ABSENTEE / ALTERNATIVE BALLOT VOTING SYSTEM

The Philadelphia City Commissioners contract with Danaher Controls required that Danaher provide the City with a central count, paper-based optical scan voting system to be used for designing, producing, scanning and tabulating paper Absentee and Alternative Ballots. One of the major requirements of the request was that Danaher Controls develop, test and implement a process where the electronic results from the optical scan system could be imported into the Danaher Controls precinct voting system database and stored / reported separately from the precinct voting machine tabulations. This provides the capability to accurately and efficiently merge the returns from paper based Absentee and Alternative ballots into the database containing the electronic results from the precinct based DRE voting machines.

In anticipation of the passage of Federal election reform legislation, the City Commissioners also required that the optical scan system be capable of providing Philadelphia an accurate and efficient method for design, production and tabulation of Provisional Ballots.

In October 2002 Danaher Controls delivered, installed and tested a Hart InterCivic optical scan voting system that is designed to preserve voter confidentiality. Philadelphia personnel fully tested the optical scan voting system for compliance with the requirements during the November 2002 Election. The City Commissioners personnel performed a 100% audit of the accuracy of the system's tabulation by hand counting more than 6,600 Absentee and Alternative Ballots during the Official Canvass and comparing the results of the hand count with the unofficial results tabulation by the system.

Philadelphia's central count, optical scan system includes programs and a process to flag all overvotes, undervotes, write-ins and requires that trained county election personnel review each and every office on each ballot for which an overvote and undervote has been recorded. During tabulation of unofficial absentee results on election night Philadelphia uses an auto resolve software feature to uniformly process overvotes and undervotes.

During the Official Canvass, all Absentee Ballots are re-scanned into a new database for performing the official count of returns. The system is set so that all overvotes and write-ins must be manually resolved in an open public hearing by trained election personnel, office by office, ballot by ballot. The resolution process is projected onto the Hearing Room wall where all observers can view the actions of county election personnel in resolving these voter intent issues.

The electronic central count optical scan system and the procedures developed and used by the City Commissioners: (1) substantially decreases security concerns related to scattering thousands of paper ballots across the County; (2) insures that all Absentee, Alternative, and Provisional Ballots will be counted uniformly, by trained personnel in accordance with vote standards, county-wide; (3) provides for open public viewing of the process used to resolve voter intent issues on overvotes, undervotes, and write-in votes; and (4) provides an efficient and accurate count of votes cast on all paper ballots.

2003 SUMMARY

For election year 2003, during the period November 6, 2002 through November 5, 2003, the City Commissioners Office received 163,440 voter registration applications from various sources, including 95,529 change of address records from the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation and 31,799 change of address records from the U.S. Postal Service. The City Commissioners Office approved and processed 193,464 new or change of address applications and 5,802 change of political party enrollments.

In addition to the cancellations through the Voter Removal Programs, the City Commissioners also removed from its files the prior records of 66,379 electors who re-registered within Philadelphia; the records of 10,970 deceased electors; 1,930 records of electors for whom notification was received confirming re-registration outside Philadelphia, and 60 records of electors who requested to be removed from the files

Included in this report is a citywide comparative table of registration statistics as of November 4, 2003 and election results for the office of Governor, by Ward and Division, for the 2003 General Election. The report also includes citywide totals for voter turnout, and citywide totals for all candidates participating in the 2003 Primary and General Elections.

Briefly, the 2003 General Election returns for Mayor in Philadelphia were:

JOHN F. STREET	DEMOCRAT	267,276
SAM KATZ	REPUBLICAN	189,357
JOHN STAGGS	SOCIALIST WORKERS	1,292
WRITE-INS	N / A	164
Total Votes Cast for Mayor		458,089

The City Commissioners would also like to express their sincere appreciation for the work of the City's Ward Leaders, Committee Persons, and Polling Place Officials and their dedication in registering Philadelphians and encouraging them to vote.

Finally, the City Commissioners, with sincere appreciation, acknowledges the unfailing cooperation of many political, labor and civic leaders, organizations and the communications media, in the task of informing and encouraging the public to register and vote.

Respectfully submitted,

Margaret M. Tartaglione, Chairwoman

Joseph Duda, Commissioner

Dear Fellow Philadelphian:

We, the City Commissioners of Philadelphia, present to you our Ninety-Ninth Annual Report covering our activities in the Voter Registration Division and the County Board of Elections of the City Commissioners Office for election year 2004.

The City Commissioners administered voter registration in accordance with the National Voter Registration Act of 1993 (NVRA) and the Pennsylvania Voter Registration Act, codified by Act 3 of 2002. These registration laws provide for expanded voter registration opportunities. Prior to enactment of the NVRA, citizens could only submit voter registration applications in person, by mail, or through third party agents. These registration laws provide the additional methods of voter registration simultaneous with drivers' license applications and renewals (Motor-Voter), and at certain other state government agencies, such as public assistance, marriage license offices, and agencies serving people with disabilities (Agency-Based).

The NVRA and Act 3 also mandate that the Commission use change of address information from the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation and the U.S. Postal Service to update the address on records of registered voters who have changed their residence to maintain the currency and accuracy of the files of eligible voters.

The NVRA and Act 3 also provide very detailed requirements for voter registration administration, including the requirement that no names be removed from the files of eligible voters for reasons of failure to vote, or merely because the voter has changed residence. The NVRA and Act 3 mandate complex voter notification and "fail-safe" voting procedures, prior to the removal of the name of any voter who has changed residence.

Registered electors who have changed residence, but have failed to notify the registration commission, are permitted to return to the polling place of their former address and vote, provided their registration record is still in the district register, or pollbooks. Before voting these registrants must complete an affirmation providing their new address for updating the Commission's records.

Electors who are unable to enter, or operate a voting machine because of a disability, or inability to read or write English, are permitted to declare, in writing, their need for assistance at the polling place on election day. The elector may receive assistance in voting from the person of their choice.

HELP AMERICA VOTER ACT OF 2002 (HAVA)

In an effort to correct the problems encountered in Florida during the November 2000 presidential election, the United States Congress in October 2002 enacted the Help America Vote Act of 2002 (HAVA), P.L. 107-252. Applicable to all Federal elections held in the United States, HAVA requires or authorized the following:

- Creates standards for all voting systems used by the States.
- Requires voting systems to be accessible to individuals with disabilities and those using alternative languages.
- Requires the use of Provisional Ballots.
- Implements identification requirements for those who vote for the first time after registering by mail.
- Requires States to implement a statewide voter registration database.
- Provides for a board to establish standards for what constitutes a vote.
- Requires States to conduct educational programs for voters and election officials.

HAVA authorized the creation of the United States Election Assistance Commission (EAC) to administer the Act. HAVA also authorized four Federal funding programs to accomplish the various requirements in the Act. Most of these HAVA mandates were effective January 1, 2004.

In December 2002, the Pennsylvania General Assembly enacted Act 2002-150, amending the Pennsylvania Election Code to include several provisions designed to comply with HAVA, effective December 9, 2003. These amendments have the effect of making those rules under HAVA applicable to all elections for all Federal, State and County offices and issues. In 2003, as required by HAVA and in accordance with the requirements of Act 2002-150, the Secretary of the Commonwealth formed a State Plan Advisory Board and The City Commissioners Voter Registration Administrator was appointed as a member of the board representing 1st Class Counties. The board issued a Report recommending methods for implementing the HAVA and Act 150 requirements as well as formulas and processes for distribution of the Commonwealths HAVA grant funds.

After reviewing the SPAB Report and conducting public hearings, the Secretary developed and issued the State Plan of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for implementing the HAVA requirements and distributing the Federal funds. The State Plan allocated a total of $20,200,689.64 to Philadelphia County through the following grants:

- HAVA Title I, Section 101 - $ 100,092.32
- HAVA Title I, Section 102 – Reimbursement to replace lever machines: $ 5,043,000.00
- HAVA Title II – Title III Requirements: $ 1,907,719.14
- HAVA Title II – Voting System Procurement: $ 8,081,878.18
- HAVA Title II – Voting System HAVA Upgrade: $ 5,043,000.00
- HAVA Title II – Financial Assistance – Registrations: $ 25,000.00

City Commissioners Implementation of HAVA

Philadelphia HAVA County Plan

The Secretary of the Commonwealth, through the Pennsylvania State Plan, required Philadelphia to set forth its ideas and plans in a written format, or "County Plan", that would provide details regarding the projects the county would implement using funds from the requirements payment and what non-monetary resources the county would commit to the projects for compliance with HAVA and the Commonwealth's enabling law, Act 2002-150.

The Chairwoman designated the Commission's Voter Registration Administrator as the HAVA County Plan Manager. The County Plan was developed based upon current county resources, existing registration and election systems, workloads, and anticipated needs based upon the substantial increased requirements of HAVA. The Philadelphia County Plan was completed in early 2004 and the Commission used county funds within its budget to begin the implementation of some of the HAVA requirements prior to the January 1, 2004 effective date. The City Commissioners used county funds, pending reimbursement with Federal grant funds, to revise its computer systems, forms, training materials and programs for implementation of the following new HAVA requirements in all elections in 2004:

Voting System Accessibility

Philadelphia's precinct electronic voting system is accessible for voters who use wheelchairs, however it is not currently accessible to voters with visual impairment. When Philadelphia executed its system procurement contract in March 2001 there were no voting systems that provided this capability that had been examined and approved by the Secretary of the Commonwealth for use in Pennsylvania. The Philadelphia County Plan included a request for HAVA funding to upgrade its Danaher Controls 1242, Model 5T2 voting machines and its system during 2005 to provide mandated private and independent voting for voters with visual impairments.

Philadelphia's precinct electronic voting system, implemented in 2002, provides the capability for compliance with requirements of alternative language access of section 203 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 (42 U.S.C. § 1973aa-1a) and other provisions of the Voting Rights Act to the extent applicable. All voter registration and election notices, applications, forms, posters and advertisements for use by voters are bilingual (English / Spanish).

County Election Personnel Training

In 2003, the City Commissioners department managers and some supervisors attended various conferences and meetings for HAVA requirements training conducted by Department of State personnel. The managers and supervisors used this training to revise procedures in implementing the HAVA and Act 2002-150 Voter Identification and Provisional Voting requirements and train the Commissions employees.

Polling Place Official Training

The City Commissioners revised its Polling Place Official Training Seminars and provided a supplement to its Training Guide to include the HAVA and Act 2002-150 Voter Identification and Provisional Voting Requirements. The Commission also implemented two Poll Official Training Mailings, a four page brochure detailing the HAVA requirements, voting machine operations and other training reminders was mailed to all polling place officials two – three weeks prior to the 2004 Primary and General Elections.

Identification Requirements for First Time Voters

In February 2004, the City Commissioners' personnel revised its' county voter registration computer system to detect applicants who are registering in, or changing their registration to, an election district for the first time. These records were flagged with a code signifying that they were first-time voters. Additionally Commission personnel executed computer applications that searched through all voter records on file prior to this revision for registrants whose date of registration was January 1, 2003 or later, and determined if those registrants were new to their assigned precinct, or if their latest application changed a prior record to a new precinct, then flagged all such detected records as first-time voters.

In February 2004 City Commissioners personnel contacted the contract vendor responsible for printing the county's district register-pollbooks and requested that the vendor revise their print programs as to spray an "ID REQUIRED" message in half tone in the voting signature box of all registrants whose record had been flagged as a first time voter. The vendor successfully revised its programs and used t he City Commissioners revised data export to produce district register pollbooks that accurately indicated first time voters to polling place officials through this printed message. The revised district register pollbooks were used in the March 9, 2004 Special Election and the April 27, 2004 Primary Election in Philadelphia County.

Provisional Ballots

For the April 27, 2004 Primary Election the City Commissioners distributed more than 43,000 Provisional ballots to its' 1,681 election districts. During the April 27, 2004 Primary Election, 683 provisional ballots were cast in Philadelphia County. Of those provisional ballots, 37% were counted, 33% were partially counted, and 30% were not counted for various reasons.

For the November 2, 2004 General Election the City Commissioners distributed more than 67,000 Provisional Ballots to its' 1,681 election districts. During the November 2, 2004 General Election, 12,002 provisional ballots were cast in Philadelphia County. Of those, 24.6% of the provisional ballots were fully counted, 28.4% were partially counted, and 47% were not counted for various reasons, mostly because the individual was not a registered elector in Philadelphia County.

What Constitutes a Vote Standards

The Philadelphia City Commissioners, in their capacity as the Return Board, used the "What Constitutes a Vote" standards, published by the Department of State in the Pennsylvania Bulletin on August 2, 2003, as its' guide when resolving all overvotes, undervotes, undervotes and write-ins cast on all paper Absentee and Alternative Ballots during its' Official Canvass of returns.

Voter Education Program

The November 2, 2004 Federal General Election was the first election for President in which voters would be using the City's Danaher Controls DRE electronic voting machines. Prior to first use of these machines in the May 2002 Primary Election the City Commissioners conducted an extensive bilingual English / Spanish Voter Education Program, conducting more than 500 public machine demonstrations and placing paid advertisements in City's major daily and weekly community newspapers.

The City Commissioners expected that in November 2004 many voters would be using the voting machines for the first time. The Commission expended substantial funds from its department budget to conduct an extensive HAVA Voter Education Program that included the changes required by HAVA and a "Make Your Vote Count" campaign on using the voting machines. The Commission intended to reimburse its' budget from Federal HAVA grant funds. The Commissions' efforts included:

- Beginning in August 2004, City Commissioners' personnel distributed large quantities of the Ready, Set, Vote voter education booklet, produced and provided to the county by the Department of State. These voter education booklets have been delivered to the office of every elected County Official, US Post Office, various Municipal Offices, and all branches of the Free Library in Philadelphia for distribution to the public.

- Implementation of a new bilingual Help America Vote – Voter Education Notice mailed by first class, forwardable mail to every registered voter in Philadelphia County. The notice informed voters of their name, address and year of birth as it appeared on their registration record. It included the date of the election, the time the polls were open, the location of their polling place and accessibility information; and informed each voter if they were required to show identification or complete an Affirmation of residence.

  The HAVA Notice also included information on NVRA fail-safe voting rights permitting voters to return to a polling place for their former address; the right to cast a Provisional Ballot; and other HAVA related information that enabled every registrant who desired to vote to do so without any confusion or problems and substantially reduced the need for voters to try to contact our office on Election Day.

- Issued a Press Release and placed full page, bilingual, paid advertisements in the Philadelphia Inquirer, Philadelphia Daily News, Philadelphia Tribune, La Actualidad, and 25 weekly community newspapers detailing the HAVA Voter Identification requirements, Provisional Voting procedures, the mailing of the Help America Vote – Voter Ed Notice and "Make Your Vote Count" instructions on using the City's electronic voting machines. These HAVA advertisements supplemented the Commissions' maintenance of efforts in placing paid Notices of Election.

- Mailing a letter and flier detailing the HAVA Identification Requirements and Provisional Voting procedures to each of the Chairman, Ward Leader, and elected Committee person of each of the major political parties. The letter and flier was also mailed to all candidates, minor political parties and political bodies represented by candidates on the ballot.

- Provided the City's Cable Television Office with detailed information on the HAVA Identification Requirements, Provisional Voting procedures, Alternative Ballots, "How to Vote" PSA, a 20-second tape that instructs electors how to vote on the Commission's electronic voting machine and other election information. The City's Cable Office aired the information on its Government Access Channels during the four weeks preceding the election.

Following the Primary election, April 28, 2004 marked the commencement of registration for new applicants and change of address or party enrollments. The last day for submitting these applications or changes, in determining eligibility for the November 2, 2004 General Election was October 4, 2004. During the period beginning April 28th and ending with the October 4th registration deadline, the City Commissioners received a total of 252,303 voter registration applications. Additionally, during this period the City Commissioners received 52,873 change of address records from the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation. The records of 18,877 voters who changed residence within Philadelphia were transferred to their new election division. The records of 6,282 voters who changed residence outside Philadelphia County were deleted from the files of eligible voters for Philadelphia and transferred to their new county of residence.

VOTER REMOVAL PROGRAMS – REGISTRATION FILE MAINTENANCE
Federal and state voter registration laws require that the Commission conduct annual Voter Removal Programs to maintain the accuracy and currency of the files of eligible voters.

National Change of Address Program
These laws provide that the Commission may use the U.S. Postal Service National Change of Address Program (NCOA) to detect registered voters who have changed their residence.

In Spring 2004, the Commission contracted with a vendor licensed by the U.S. Postal Service to compare the names and addresses of approximately 965,000 registered voters in the city to the National Change of Address data file to detect electors who may have changed their address. The vendor provided the Commission with approximately 17,360 electors who had been reported as having changed residence within the County in the preceding year and 9,425 who changed residence to an address outside the County since May 2003. The NCOA report included 5,014 possible moves without any new address.

During June, the Commission mailed Notice of Change of Address, (NCA) forms to all 36,148 electors, providing a response form and pre-addressed, postage pre-paid envelope for elector confirmation of the change. The Commission mailed a mandated second notice, the Address Verification Notice, (AVN), to 31,717 registered electors who failed to responded to the NCA notices.

The NCOA Voter Removal Program resulted in the following responses and voter file maintenance for the records of:

- approximately 2,200 electors confirmed their continued residence at the address of registration and their records were not changed.
- 5,793 electors who confirmed their change of residence to a new address within Philadelphia remained designated as Active, had their address updated and, if necessary, the record was transferred to their new election district.
- 3,263 electors who confirmed their change of residence to an address outside Philadelphia were deleted from the files of eligible voters.
- 11,055 electors who had been reported as moved to a new address within Philadelphia, and who failed to respond to the NCA and AVN notices, were designated as Inactive, had their address updated and, if necessary, were transferred to their new election district.
- 3,783 electors, who had been reported as having moved outside Philadelphia, and who failed to respond to the NCA and AVN notices, were designated Inactive at the address of registration.

The 2004 NCOA program resulted in the designation of 14,838 records as Inactive, 3,263 deletions, and in-county address updates on 16,848 records.

Address Verification Notices
In addition to the notices triggered by the NCOA program, the City Commissioners, in January and August 2004, mailed Address Verification Notices to:

- registrants whose Voter Identification Card was returned by the U.S. Postal Service as undeliverable, with an indication the registrant had moved.

- registrants whom polling place officials indicated on District Register Discrepancy Sheets had moved from the election district to an unknown address.
- registrants for whom an investigation of eligibility by Canvass could not determine clearly and indisputably that the registrant was not qualified to register at the address when they applied to register.

Investigations by Canvass

The City Commissioners conduct investigations of records for registrants whose voter identification card is returned by the U.S. Postal Service with an indication that the applicant may not have been qualified to register at the address on the date the application was submitted. In many instances registration investigators visit the address of registration to determine eligibility.

In November and December 2003 and January, June, and July, 2004, we investigated 2,200 records, which resulted in the following determinations and corresponding file maintenance:

- 638 individuals were determined not qualified to register at the address on the date the application was submitted, and their records were cancelled.
- records of the registrants who continued to reside at the address of registration remained unchanged;
- registrants who had moved, or an investigation could not determine clearly and indisputably that they were not qualified, an address verification notice was mailed and their records were designated Inactive;

Five Year Notice - Address Verification Program

The National Voter Registration Act of 1993 prohibits purging, or the cancellation of voter registration records merely because the registrant has failed to vote. However, a 1996 Settlement Agreement in US v. Pennsylvania permits the use of a provision of Pennsylvania law which requires the City Commissioners to mail a Five Year Notice, (address verification), to all registrants who have had no contact with the Commission, and have not voted in any election in the immediately preceding five years.

The Five Year Notice includes a response form, and a pre-addressed, postage paid envelope for the registrant to respond, either confirming their continued residence at the address of registration or providing their new address.

In January 2004, we mailed 68,470 Five Year Notices to all registrants who had no contact with the Commission and did not vote in any election during the period January 1, 1999 through December 31, 2003. All 68,470 records were designated Inactive. This program resulted in the following responses and voter file maintenance activities:

- approximately 10,000 notices were returned undeliverable by the Post Office.
- approximately 850 electors who confirmed their continued residence at the address of registration were re-designated as Active.
- 1,025 electors who confirmed their change of residence to an address within Philadelphia were transferred to their new election district, designated as Active.
- 209 electors who confirmed their change of address to a residence outside Philadelphia were deleted from the files of eligible voters for Philadelphia.

Inactive Electors
Pennsylvania law requires that the record of any registrant who fails to respond to an Address Verification Notice (AVN) of Five Year Notice be designated as Inactive. Electors whose records are designated Inactive in the District Registers are eligible to vote only after they have completed and signed an Affirmation of Elector, either confirming their residence at the address of registration, or providing their new address to enable the Commission to update its files of eligible voters.

Fail Safe Voting Provisions
Federal law mandates that registrants who change their residence within the county without notifying the registration office must be permitted to vote, regardless of whether they have been sent, have received, or have responded to an Address Verification Notice.

Pennsylvania law requires that Inactive and "Fail Safe" registrants, who have not had their address updated, must return and vote at the polling place for their former address, where their name is listed in the pollbook of eligible voters marked "Affirmation Required".

Inactive Cancellation
Inactive voters who fail to respond, or fail to vote in any election during the time period beginning with the date of the AVN notice and ending on the day after the second General Election for Federal office that occurs after the date of the notice, will have their registration cancelled.

On December 31, 2004, there were 68,456 Inactive registrants scheduled for cancellation in January 2005. These Inactive registrants were mailed AVN or Five Year Notices between December 2000 and August 2002, and failed to respond to the notice or vote in any election during that time period.

2004 SUMMARY

For election year 2004, during the period November 4, 2003 through November 2, 2004, the City Commissioners Office received 303,430 voter registration applications from various sources, 100,487 change of address records from the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation and 31,799 change of address records from the U.S. Postal Service. The City Commissioners Office approved and processed 323,549 new or change of address applications and 4,681 change of political party enrollments.

A Message from the Philadelphia City Commissioners

We take this opportunity to express our appreciation to you for your services to the community as an election officer.

We commend you for your excellent service in helping Philadelphia with its smooth transition to new electronic voting machines in May 2002 and in every election since.

This Guide for Election Officers was prepared for your convenience in reviewing information you have learned at the Election Seminars conducted by the City Commissioners prior to each election. It is in the best interest of election officers to attend these seminars in order to fully acquaint themselves with voting machine operation and Election Day procedures.

Instructors at Election Seminars will advise all election officers of any last minute changes in the law or other pertinent matters which may affect polling place procedures.

In anticipation of such changes, this Guide provides space on the last page for you to make notes of any changes or last minute additions. We also suggest that you use this space to write down the names, and phone numbers of your fellow Election Board members for your convenience in contacting them about election matters. It is hopeful that this Guide and your supplemental notes will put all the information you need for operating your polling place at your fingertips on Election Day.

We ask that you fully review the procedures for setup and operation of Philadelphia's ELECTronic 1242 voting machines.

[illegible]

The other sections of this Guide provide detailed information for you to fulfill your duties as Election Officers. Under the Pennsylvania Election Code, it is up to you to see to it that the laws are followed and important decisions concerning voting procedures are made properly. Use this power wisely. Be stern if the situation calls for it, but be fair, and above all be impartial.

Prior to Election Day give some thought as to what must be done and how best to organize your Board to accomplish those duties. Use the phone numbers on the back of this Guide, or on the front of your registration pollbooks to report any problems on Election Day.

The Election Day Checklist, printed above, may also be used as a Table of Contents to direct you to more detailed information in the various sections of this Guide.

The City Commissioners take this opportunity to thank all those involved in the preparation of this Guide, especially the staff members of the City Commissioners, the Committee of Seventy, and personnel from Danaher Controls, the manufacturer of the new ELECTronic 1242 voting machine. We believe it will make it easier for you to perform your important duties in conducting elections.

Again our thanks to all Election Board members for your public service to your community, guiding the election process. We also thank the Ward Leaders and Committee Persons who assist in finding Board members, registering citizens and informing voters of the election process. You are all an integral part of this important civic act in enfranchising the electorate.

NEW – 2006 – Audio Voting Keypad/Headphones for Visually Impaired

The Help America Vote Act of 2002 requires that beginning January 1, 2006, all States and Counties use voting machines that provide individuals with a disability the opportunity to privately and independently cast their ballot. Our voting machines were accessible to persons who use a wheelchair. Our employees recently upgraded our voting machines to include an Audio device (a hand held Keypad and Headphones) to allow visually impaired voters, who are physically unable to vote unassisted using the visual full face ballot sheet, lights, and numbered buttons, the opportunity to privately and independently cast their ballot.

INSTRUCTIONS: OPEN / SETUP VOTING MACHINES AND INSTALLING THE AUDIO KEYPAD / HEADPHONES – PAGE 10 & 11

PREPARING FOR THE ELECTION

1. Contact Your Election District Officials: About three months before the Election, contact your fellow polling place officials to determine if everyone is going to be available to work on Election Day.

2. Attend Training: Polling Place Official Training usually starts in early March for the Primary Election and the day after Labor Day for the November General Elections. Poll Officials who were elected to their position will receive a notice of the date and time of the training for their Ward / Division approximately 2 weeks before the Training. Please contact the other Polling Place Officials in your Division to inform them of the Training date. You may also call our office at 215-686-1520 to inquire as to the Training dates for your Ward.

3. Review Training Pollworker Guide: You will be provided a copy of the City Commissioners Pollworker Training Guide Newspaper at the Training Seminars. Read this Guide carefully before the election. It contains the information, and telephone numbers you need to conduct a successful election.

4. Watch Voting Machine Training Video: During the 2002 implementation of the electronic voting machines we provided every Poll Official who attended Training a Pollworker Voting Machine Training Video. We also distributed an updated machine training video in the Fall 2005 training seminars that included instructions for the Audio Keypad / Headphones device for visually impaired voters who are unable to see or read the visual ballot.

Additionally, every election the City Commissioners and the City's Cable TV Office air the Pollworker Voting Machine Training Video on the City's Cable Access Channel 64.

Two weeks before every election the City Commissioners Office will mail a notice to those Poll Officials who attended Training that details the date and time that the video will be aired. The tape is aired on six different days at various times during the week before each election. Please contact your fellow Poll Officials to inform them of the airing.

5. Pickup Election Materials: The Election Material Boxes are distributed the Saturday, Sunday and Monday before Election Day. Materials must be picked up by 4:30 PM on Monday. The distribution location for your Ward is printed on the back page of this Pollworker Training Guide Newspaper.

The Judge of Elections, or someone designated by the Judge with the consent of the Minority Inspector, must pickup the Election Materials Box containing all needed documents and supplies for conducting the election as early as possible.

6. Check Polling Place & Voting Machines: Poll Officials are advised to check their polling place before Election Day to insure that the correct voting machines have been delivered for the Ward and Division.

Check the Ward and Division Number card in the vinyl pocket located near the handle on each machine in your Division. If the Card indicates that you have the wrong machines and there is more than one Division in your polling place building check the Card on the other machines.

If the wrong machines were delivered, or none delivered, you should contact the Commission's Voting Machine Warehouse at 215-686-3944.

Responsibilities of Overseers

1. Overseers are appointed by the Court of Common Pleas on the petition of five or more registered electors of any election district as a precaution to secure fairness in any election. Two overseers, both registered voters of the district, but belonging to different political parties, oversee the entire election process in the district, including conduct of election officers, and make such report to the Court as ordered at the time of appointment.

2. If appointed by the Court, the Overseers shall report to the polling place no later than 6:30 AM, be sworn into office by the Judge of Elections, and sign the Oath of Office.

(Overseers are NOT poll Watchers. Their responsibilities are similar to other Election Board Members. If a dispute arises between election officers, the two overseers, if in agreement, shall decide the matter)

Filling Vacancies on the Election Board

If any of the following Board members fail to appear by 7 AM, the vacancy must be filled in the following manner:

JUDGE-- The Majority Inspector appoints a Judge.

MAJORITY INSPECTOR-- The Judge appoints a Majority Inspector.

MINORITY INSPECTOR-- The defeated candidate for Judge at the last election in which officers were voted upon shall serve, if available.

NOTE: If any vacancies in the offices of Judge or Inspectors have not been filled by 7:30 AM, the qualified voters of the district present at the polls shall then hold a "curbstone" election to fill the office(s).

CLERK-- The Minority Inspector appoints a Clerk.

MACHINE INSPECTOR-- This position is appointed by the City Commissioners. Should a vacancy exist, notify the City Commissioners by calling 215-686-3469.

Relief Periods

It is the responsibility of the Judge of Elections to assign brief relief periods to Election officials during the course of Election Day. The Judge should schedule these relief periods so that only one member of the Election Board is absent at any one time.

These relief periods should be scheduled at off-peak hours in order that the remaining Board members can fill in on the duties of the absent member until he or she returns.

IT IS A VIOLATION OF THE ELECTION CODE FOR ANY UNAUTHORIZED PERSON TO ASSIST IN THE CONDUCT OF AN ELECTION, during relief periods or at any other time in the course of an election.

The Judge may designate and will oversee someone to assist with moving and positioning the voting machines prior to opening the polls, if necessary.

Laws/Violations/Regulations

It is a violation of the Pennsylvania Election Code to:

1. Permit election officials to act without being sworn.
2. Permit illegal assistance to voters.
3. Make false entries.
4. Destroy or alter registration affidavits, results receipts/tapes, or any other official records.
5. Permit unqualified persons to vote.
6. Bribe or attempt to bribe voters.
7. Tamper with voting machines.
8. Drive away poll Watchers.
9. Permit an elector to see his or her signature on the registration record before he/she signs the voter's pollbook.
10. Assault anyone at the polling place.

The above list covers only a few of the possible violations of the Election Code which could occur at the polls on Election Day. So that you, as an Election Board member, do not unknowingly violate the law, you should learn as much as you possibly can about election procedures.

Your materials box contains a Penalties card which fully lists violations and penalties.

The best way to familiarize yourself with the Election Code is by attending both an Election Seminar and thoroughly studying this guide. Prior to each Primary and General Election, the City Commissioners schedule seminars with election officers in different sections of Philadelphia. These instructional sessions are open to the general public in addition to election officers. Committeepersons and all Election Board members are urged to attend one or more of the seminars to acquaint themselves with election procedures and law.

You may also review the General Instructions, Federal Voting Rights and Penalties Posters that are in your election materials box and which you must post in the polling place.

Responsibilities of Poll Watchers

Official poll Watchers are issued Watchers Certificates by the City Commissioners, as requested by candidates or political parties, after a review of the voter registration files. Watchers do not have to live in the Division in which they watch, but they must be registered electors in Philadelphia. The primary responsibility of Poll Watchers is to WATCH the election process as representatives of their candidate or political party.

Primary Election Watchers

During Primary Elections, each candidate is entitled to request two (2) Watchers Certificates per Division for his or her district.

General Election Watchers

Each political party is entitled to request three (3) Watchers Certificates per Division AND each candidate is entitled to request two Watchers Certificates per Division in his or her district.

Non-Resident Watchers

Non resident poll Watchers are now issued Watcher Certificates by the City Commissioners. These are issued to Watchers who request a Certificate for a Division other than the Division in which the watcher is registered.

NEW STARTING 2005 - Watchers are only permitted to be issued one Certificate for one Election District, but are permitted to use that Certificate to watch in ANY Ward / Division in Philadelphia.

All Watcher Certificates will have the Watchers name, addresses, and the Ward and Division the Watcher requested to watch listed on the certificate.

Certified Watchers are permitted to be present in ANY polling place during Election Day and during the tabulation of results after the polls close at 8 PM in accordance with the following requirements the Election Code:

1. All Watchers must have a valid Watchers Certificate, issued by the City Commissioner's County Board of Elections. Each Watcher must carry the Certificate on his/her person at all times during the course of the election. Watchers must show these Certificates on request to members of the Election Board. (Illustration on Page 15.)

2. During voting hours (7 AM – 8 PM) only one Watcher for each party or candidate, is to be permitted in the polling place room at any given time. After the polls close ALL watchers are to be permitted inside the polling place to watch the Division vote tabulation.

3. Only when there are NO voters present in the polling place, a Certified Poll Watcher, upon request and presentation of their Certificate to a Poll Official, may inspect the Voting Check List (Pollbook) and Number Two and Number Four books. Once a voter enters the polling place Poll Official must stop the inspection.

4. Watchers MUST remain OUTSIDE the enclosed area -- the area directly in front of, besides or behind the voting machines -- while in the polling place. (See Polling Place Diagram on Page 3)

5. Watchers MAY NOT INTERFERE with the voting process. If they believe something to be wrong or irregular in the election procedure, they should report it to their candidate or party.

No person is to be permitted in the polling place except: Division Board Members, voters in the act of voting, persons providing authorized voter assistance or language translations, certified poll Watchers, County election personnel, and law enforcement personnel summoned by the Judge.

VOTER ELIGIBILITY

As each person enters the polling place to cast his or her ballot, the following steps must be followed before permitting the person to vote:

A. CHECK YOUR POLLBOOK - IS THE PERSON'S NAME IN YOUR POLLBOOK?

The officer in charge of the District Register-Pollbooks MUST call out the person's name so that others in the polling place can hear it and must determine if the person is listed as a registered eligible elector by checking the District Register – Pollbook to see if the person's name and other voter registration record information is listed.

B. YES – THE NAME IS IN YOUR POLLBOOK

If the person's voter registration record is listed in the pollbook, they are registered, and eligible, however first you must:

1. CHECK THE VOTER'S POLLBOOK SIGNATURE BOX
   Check the box where the voter places his or her signature for messages listed in Steps a, b, c, and d below to determine if the voter is required to provide approved identification or complete an Affirmation of Elector form before signing their name in the pollbook. Check for the following messages:

   a). NO MESSAGE – ACTIVE VOTERS
   If the box is empty, with no messages, the officer shall enter his or her initials and the voter's Admission Number in the appropriate boxes on the voter's record in the pollbook and have the registered voter place their signature in the signature box. Once the voter has signed the pollbook, direct them to the next available voting machine.

   b). AFFIRMATION REQUIRED – INACTIVE VOTER
   If the box contains the word "AFFIRMATION REQUIRED", as in the Pollbook illustration on page 4, then this INACTIVE voter must complete an AFFIRMATION OF ELECTOR form, BEFORE you allow them to sign the pollbook.

   - If the voter has moved from the address of registration listed in your pollbook they must print their name and date of birth, complete Section A providing us with their old and new address, and complete Section C, placing their signature on the Affirmation. (See Affirmation illustration on Page 4).
   - If the voter still lives at the address of registration listed in your pollbook they must print their name and date of birth, complete Section B confirming their current address, and complete Section C by placing their signature on the Affirmation

   Once the INACTIVE voter has completed and signed the AFFIRMATION and Pollbook, they must be permitted to vote on the next available voting machine. The officer shall enter his or her initials and the voter's Admission Number in the appropriate boxes on the voter's record in the pollbook and have the registered voter place their signature in the signature box. Once the voter has signed the Pollbook, direct them to the next available voting machine.

   c). ID REQUIRED
   If the box contains the words "ID REQUIRED", as in the Pollbook illustration on page 4, then this is a voter who is voting in your Division for the first time since registering. New Federal and State laws require that first time voters provide identification before voting. The voter must provide you with one of the APPROVED forms of IDENTIFICATION BEFORE you allow them to sign the pollbook.

   The approved forms of identification are listed in the box to the right and on the Election News Poster which you have posted on one of the polling place walls.

   - If a registered elector, whose box is marked ID REQUIRED, has provided approved identification, they must be permitted to vote on the voting machine. The officer shall enter his or her initials and the voter's Admission Number in the appropriate boxes on the voter's record in the pollbook and have the registered voter place their signature in the signature box. Once the voter has signed the pollbook, direct them to the next available voting machine.
   - If a registered elector, whose box is marked ID REQUIRED, under this Section c) or Section d) below, is unable or unwilling to provide you one of the approved forms of IDENTIFICATION, then that voter MUST vote by a paper PROVISIONAL BALLOT.

     IMPORTANT: INDIVIDUALS WHO VOTE BY PROVISIONAL BALLOT DO NOT SIGN THE POLLBOOK.

     Make sure the Clerk or one of the Inspectors write the Provisional voter's name in the back of # 2 Book and # 4 Book but write "PROV" instead of an admission number.

     Detailed instructions for voting paper PROVISIONAL BALLOTS IS ON PAGES 6 thru 8 OF THIS GUIDE.

   d). AFFIRMATION & ID REQUIRED
   If the box contains the words "AFFIRMATION & ID REQUIRED, as in the Pollbook illustration on page 4, the voter must complete and sign the AFFIRMATION OF ELECTOR form AND also show you one of the approved forms of IDENTIFICATION in accordance with the procedures in steps b) & c) above.

C. NO - THE NAME IS NOT IN YOUR POLLBOOK

If the person's name is not in your District Register – Pollbook please re-check the book carefully.

If you cannot find the person in your pollbook ask the person if they have a Voter's Identification Card to check if they are at the right Division polling place.

If the person was recently married, check under the person's prior last name.

If the person uses a hyphenated last name or has more than one last name check all variations of the name, (i.e - Smith-Doe, check both Smith and Doe)

Remember to check any Supplemental Pollbook pages that would have been given to you in a manila envelope when you picked up you Election Materials Box.

Division polling place officials are powerless to grant an individual the right to vote on the voting machines, even though they may believe the registration records to be in error.

THE BEST WAY TO RESOLVE THIS ISSUE IS FOR YOU OR THE VOTER TO CALL THE VOTER REGISTRATION OFFICE FROM THE POLLING PLACE.

CALL 215-686-1590 215-686-1500
215-686-1505 215-686-1509

The office staff will check the central computer files and determine if the person is registered and provide the location of the polling place where the person's name will appear in the Pollbook.

If the person's record was incorrectly transferred to another Division or County, based upon information from PennDOT or the U.S. Postal Service, we can review the files and resolve the issue over the telephone.

IF YOU, AND THE VOTER REGISTRATION OFFICE, CANNOT LOCATE THE PERSON'S NAME IN THE POLLBOOK OR THE CENTRAL COMPUTER FILES, THEN THE PERSON MUST BE PROVIDED THE OPPORTUNITY TO VOTE ON A PAPER PROVISIONAL BALLOT.

ELECTION COURT – COURT ORDERS
Effective December 9, 2003 a person appearing at your polling place with a COURT ORDER MUST VOTE ON A PAPER PROVISIONAL BALLOT UNLESS THEIR REGISTRATION IS LISTED IN YOUR POLLBOOK..

IMPORTANT: If a person appears at your polls with a Court Order – check your pollbook BEFORE you give them a Provisional Ballot. IF YOU:

- FIND THE PERSON'S registration record in your pollbook, write IN BOOK on the Court Order, follow the normal procedures for voters whose name is in the pollbook under the left hand column B of this page.
- DO NOT FIND THE PERSON'S registration record in your pollbook, then the person must vote on a paper PROVISIONAL BALLOT.

YOUR PROVISIONAL BALLOT INTRUCTIONS BEGIN ON PAGE 6 OF THIS GUIDE.

VOTER ASSISTANCE & CHALLENGES

Assistance in Voting

NO PERSON SHALL BE ENTITLED TO ASSISTANCE IN VOTING UNLESS:

- It is marked on the voter's registration record in the District Register – Pollbook as YES,

OR

- The voter completes and signs a Declaration of the Need for Assistance at your polling place prior to entering the voting machine.

CERTAIN PERSONS ARE NOT PERMITTED TO GIVE ASSISTANCE
A registered voter is permitted to obtain assistance from the person of the voter's choice, except the following persons are not permitted to provide assistance:

- The Judge of Elections;
- The voter's employer or agent of that employer; or
- An officer or agent of the voter's union.

ASSISTANCE PROCEDURES

1. Check the Pollbook for Assistance Permitted
If a voter requests that another person assist them in voting, and you have already determined the voter is eligible according to the procedures on page 3 of this Guide, you must review the Assistance Permitted portion of the voter's registration information in the pollbook.

Assistance Permitted - YES
If the Assistance Permitted section in the pollbook is marked YES, then voter is entitled to have the person of their choice assist them. Voters unable to sign must make their mark in the pollbook. Go to Step 2 below.

Assistance Permitted - NO
If the Assistance Permitted section in the pollbook is marked NO, then the voter must complete an Assistance Declaration form. The Assistance Declaration forms are 8 ½ X 11 white sheets bound in a 50 sheet tablet in your election materials box, (See illustration below).

Once the voter, and the Inspector have completed the Assistance Declaration, the voter is entitled to have the person of their choice assist them. Those unable to sign must make their mark in the box. Follow Step 2 below.

2. Record of Assisted Voters
The "Records of Assisted Voters" form must be filled out by polling place officials, showing the name of the assisted voter, the name of the person he or she selected to assist, and the reason for the assistance (See illustration on page 18).

3. Voting
If the voter has been determined as eligible to vote on the voting machine, then the person the voter has selected to provide assistance may enter the voting machine with the voter. If the voter is required to vote a Provisional Ballot then the person may assist in completing the Provisional Ballot and Affidavit Envelope – B.

Challenge Procedures

1. Registered Voters Who Have Moved

NO PERSON WHOSE REGISTRATION RECORD IS IN YOUR DISTRICT REGISTER – POLLBOOK MAY BE CHALLENGED ON THE GROUNDS THAT THEY HAVE MOVED OUT OF YOUR DIVISION.

Voters who have moved out of the division and whose registration record appears in the pollbook, are permitted to return to the polling place for their former address and vote one last time, provided they affirm their new address by completing the AFFIRMATION OF ELECTOR form (See Page 4). After the election, the Voter Registration Office will transfer their record to the pollbook for their new address.

2. Challenges
Even though the registration record of an individual voter appears in the District Register-Pollbook, any member of the election board, a certified poll watcher, or a voter present at the polls has the right to Challenge the right of the person to vote on the grounds of identity (See important note below).

3. Challenge Procedures
This challenge does not, in itself, prevent an individual from voting. However the following steps must be taken before the challenged person can be permitted to vote:

a). Anyone so challenged must be put under Oath by the Judge of Election. Any person put under Oath commits perjury if he or she fails to tell the truth and is subject to any and all penalties provided in the Election Code for such violation.
b). The proper challenge form must be signed by said voter. (See Illustration on bottom right of this page).
c). The challenged voter then must produce one qualified voter of the division who shall make an affidavit as to the challenged voter's identity. The witness must also sign the Challenge Affidavit.
d). If a challenged voter has completed and signed the Challenge Affidavit AND produced another registered voter of the Division to sign the Challenge Affidavit, then the challenged voter must be permitted to vote.

IMPORTANT NOTE

NOTE: First Time Voters in Your Division
Voters who are voting in your Division for the first time since registering, whose signature box message is "ID REQUIRED" do not need to be Challenged and CANNOT be required to produce a qualified elector of the Division as a witness.

First time voters marked "ID REQUIRED" merely need to show you one of the approved forms of identification. For further information on First Time voters marked "ID REQUIRED" please see the Voter Eligibility section on Page 3.

PROVISIONAL VOTING PROCEDURES

Section 302 of the Help America Vote Act of 2002 (HAVA) enacted by Congress requires states to adopt the use of provisional ballots to be cast by some voters under certain circumstances. Amending section 1210 of the Pennsylvania Election Code, the Pennsylvania General Assembly established procedures for the use of provisional ballots in all Pennsylvania elections.

A. WHAT IS PROVISIONAL VOTING ?
Provisional Voting is another one of the fail-safe voting processes mandated by Federal law to insure that registered voters are not denied the right to vote because they are not listed in your District Register - Pollbook, or are unable to provide approved identification when required or are incorrectly told they are ineligible by polling place officials.

B. WHAT IS PROVISIONAL BALLOT ?
Pennsylvania law, effective December 2003, provides for a paper Provisional Ballot that is printed in the same format as other paper ballots or Absentee Ballots.

C. WHO MUST VOTE BY PROVISIONAL BALLOT ?
An individual who appears to vote in an election district polling place must be provided the opportunity to cast a Provisional Ballot if:

1. NAME NOT IN POLLBOOKS OR NOT ON SUPPLEMENTAL PAGE(S)
An individual claims to be properly registered and eligible to vote in your Division, at your polling place, whose name and voter registration record is NOT listed in your District Register – Pollbooks or NOT on any Supplemental Pages of Eligible Voters provided to you when you picked up your election materials.

NOTE: THE VOTER MAY BE AT THE WRONG POLLING PLACE.
Before providing this person a paper Provisional Ballot, CALL or have the voter call our central Voter Registration Office at 215-686-1590 to determine the person's registration status and proper polling place location.

2. FIRST TIME VOTER WITHOUT PROPER IDENTIFICATION
An individual appears to vote in your polling place and the individual's name is in the Election District pollbook with "ID REQUIRED" printed in their signature box, but the individual is unable or unwilling to show a form of identification as required by section 1210 of the Election Code, or the Judge of Election challenges the elector's identification.

New Federal and State laws require that a voter appearing to vote in your polling place for the first time must show you an approved form of identification before being permitted to vote on the voting machines. The list of approved identification is in your Pollworker Guide and on the General Information and Instruction Card (Yellow) you should have taped to the wall in your polling place.

3. ELIGIBILITY
An election official asserts that the individual is not eligible to vote in the election district. [In a Primary Election, this includes an individual who claims to be registered for a particular political party, but the general register indicates he or she is registered as a member of another political party or no political party.]

Individuals are required to cast a Provisional Ballot if:

4. A PERSON WITH A COURT ORDER
An individual is voting as a result of a Federal or State court order.

IMPORTANT: If a person appears at your polls with a court order – check your pollbook BEFORE you give them a Provisional Ballot.
IF YOU:

- FIND THE PERSON'S registration record in your pollbook, then the person must be permitted to VOTE ON THE VOTING MACHINE.
- DO NOT FIND THE PERSON'S registration record in your pollbook, then the person must VOTE ON A PAPER PROVISIONAL BALLOT.

5. COURT ORDERED EXTENSION OF POLLS CLOSING TIME
An individual is voting as a result of an order extending the time established for closing the polls by State law that is in effect 10 days before an election. This is only for emergencies when the Courts have ordered the pol's to remain open later than 8:00 PM.

NOTE: Voters who are inside the polling place, or in line to enter the polling place by the normal 8:00 PM closing time are required to vote on the voting machines unless prohibited by reasons 1 through 3 above.

In Primary Elections

6. POLITICAL PARTY INCORRECT
Individuals who believe the political party affiliation on their registration record in the pollbook is incorrect may vote a Provisional Ballot of the Party they believe they should be listed as registered.

WARNING: The Registration Commission will review either the voter's original, or images of the original, registration application to determine the political party of record. If the voter casts a Provisional Ballot in a party in which the records show that the individual is not registered then the Provisional Ballot will be REJECTED as ineligible and not counted for any elective offices. If there are Questions on the ballot then the votes cast for the questions will be counted.

D. WHERE ARE THE PROVISIONAL BALLOTS ?
Your supply of paper Provisional Ballot Packages and the Ballots are in a large Green envelope marked "PROVISIONAL VOTING – MATERIALS ENVELOPE"(Envelope D).

E. INSTRUCTIONS ON "HOW TO VOTE" A PROVISIONAL BALLOT
For each individual whom the Judge, or Inspectors of Election have determined may vote at the election district only by provisional ballot, the Judge of Election shall adhere to the following procedure:

1. DO NOT LET THE PROVISIONAL VOTER SIGN THE POLLBOOK. Make sure the Clerk writes the voter's name in the back of the # 2 & # 4 Books writing "PROV" instead of an admission number.

2. The Judge of Election shall provide the individual BOTH a Provisional Ballot Packet AND a Provisional Ballot. The Provisional Ballot Package contains the following:
   - One (1) Provisional Ballot Secrecy Envelope.
   - One (1) Provisional Ballot Affidavit Envelope.
   - One (1) Provisional Ballot Instruction Card.
   - One (1) blue, black or blue-black ink fountain pen or ball point pen.

The Provisional Ballots are printed on white paper with a green stripe across the top and they are banded separately with Provisional Ballot Packages.

3. IMPORTANT! The Judge of Election and the Minority Inspector must witness the individual print their name, date of birth, full address of registration, current address of residence, telephone number and place their signature on the affidavit in Section #1 of the envelope.

4. The Judge of Election and the Minority Inspector must write the Ward, Division, Date and sign Section #2 of the Provisional Voter Affidavit Envelope – B BEFORE the ballot is marked by the voter.

5. The individual should be directed to an accessible area within the polling place where he may complete the ballot in private. The voter must use a black ink pen to mark the Official Provisional Ballot by placing an "X" in the box to the left of the candidates, or issues, they wish to vote for. Voters must be instructed to be careful not to select more candidates for an office than permitted.

Inform the voter that the Provisional Ballot Packet includes instructions on how to mark the ballot and how to find out if their ballot was counted.

6. The individual must place the completed Provisional Ballot in the Inside Secrecy Envelope and seal it.

7. The individual must place the sealed Inside Secrecy Envelope in the Provisional Ballot Affidavit Envelope – B and seal it.

8. AFTER sealing the ballot and Secrecy Envelope in the Provisional Ballot Affidavit Envelope, the individual must return to the Judge of Election and sign and date Section 4 in the presence of the Judge or Inspector.

9. IMPORTANT! The Judge of Elections and Minority Inspector must witness the individual sign and date the Affidavit in *Section #4 of the Provisional Ballot Affidavit Envelope – B. In doing so, the individual confirms that he claims to be properly registered and eligible to vote at the election district where he has appeared to vote.

10. IMPORTANT!! The Judge of Election MUST check to make certain the voter has completed all information, and signed in BOTH Section #1 and Section #4.

11. The Judge of Election will affix the Ballot Identification Number to the Provisional Ballot Envelope in the space provided and give the receipt with the corresponding number to the individual. Inform the individual of the toll free number and Internet website on the receipt where the individual can learn whether their Provisional Ballot was counted or not counted and if the ballot was not counted, the reason the ballot was not counted.

VOTING MACHINE INSTRUCTIONS

A. OPENING AND SETUP OF THE VOTING MACHINE

INTRODUCTION

The ELECTronic 1242 is an advanced Direct Recording Electronic Voting Machine (EVM) designed to simplify election preparation, make the selection process easier for voters and speed the delivery of election results at the close of the polls.

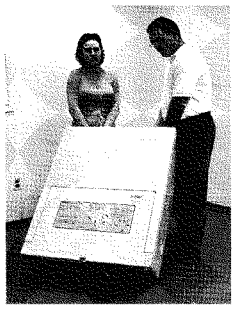
The EVM follows the general shape and operating characteristics of mechanical machines. This provides a familiar setting for the voter. However, its electronics provide many advantages not available with other voting systems.

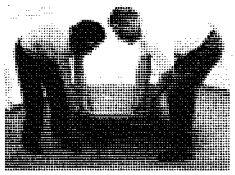
This section of our pollworker Guide provides instructions for setting up, opening the polls, operating the EVM, closing the polls, obtaining election results and closing and securing the EVM.

VOTING MACHINE SETUP

1. Position the EVM in the desired location providing enough space on the sides and rear for election officer access.

Two election officers must take a firm grasp on the EVM handle and carefully lower the EVM to its horizontal position.





CAUTION: Do not drop the EVM to its horizontal position. Be sure the floor space in front (handle side) of the EVM is smooth and clear of all obstructions to allow the handle to extend during setup.

2. At the back (opposite handle side) of the EVM perform the following:

- Pull out the power cord and plug it into a live 115 VAC outlet.
- Each EVM offers a socket on the left side of the case to plug in additional EVMs up to the limitations listed below:
  AC Socket Power Limitations
  6 AMPS MAX / 115 VAC/60HZ
  6 EVMs MAX - Operating Mode
  15 EVMs MAX - Charging Mode
- Write the EVM outer case seal number on the Counter / Seal Card provided in your Election Officer materials. Remove the seal.
- Release the two black latches by pulling them out and up, away from the protruding lip (similar to a tackle box), and lift the cover and ballot box to its full upright position and locked.

3. Grasp the ballot box at the top and bottom and carefully rotate it to its operating position.

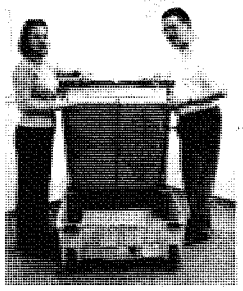
CAUTION: When rotating the ballot box to its operating position, do not hold the box by the "ears" at its corner as you run the risk of pinching your fingers. Follow the procedure shown in the picture.



The ballot box is spring balanced for ease of opening. It is important to use two hands and hold it firmly to avoid allowing the box to swing open or closed too quickly. Be sure the ballot box is fully rotated into its operating position.

4. Push down on the ballot box door latch button located on the top of the ballot box and swing both doors open.

DO NOT RAISE THE CURTAIN RODS YET -

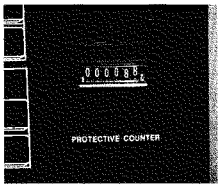
5. Check to ensure the EVM serial number matches the ballot number visible through the window in the lower corner of the ballot face cover.

6. Check to ensure the rear door latch is sealed and write the seal number on the Counter / Seal Card provided in your Election materials. This door latch is located on the uppermost portion of the back of the ballot box.

7. Check to ensure the seals are secured on the OPEN POLLS and CLOSED POLLS button on the Officer's Control panel and write both seal numbers on the Counter / Seal Card provided in your Election materials.

NOTE: These seals have been installed loosely so that they can be easily removed.

8. Write the number on the protective counter located on the Officer's Control panel on the Counter / Seal Card provided in the bottom of one of your machines.



ELECTION DAY VOTING MACHINE QUESTIONS

A. OPENING AND SETUP OF THE VOTING MACHINE

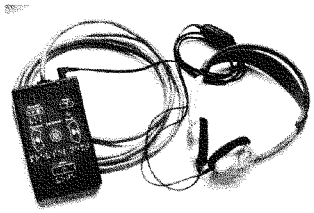
AUDIO KEYPAD / HEADPHONE INSTALLATION

The Help America Vote Act requires that all States and Counties use voting machines that provide individuals with a disability the opportunity to privately and independently cast their ballot. Our voting machines are accessible to persons who use a wheelchair. Our employees recently upgraded our voting machines to include an Audio device (a hand held Keypad and Headphones) to allow visually impaired voters that are physically unable to vote unassisted using the visual full face ballot sheet, lights, and numbered buttons the opportunity to privately and independently cast their ballot.

EACH DIVISION WILL HAVE ONE MACHINE THAT WILL BE CAPABLE OF USING THE AUDIO KEYPAD FOR THE VISUALLY IMPAIRED.

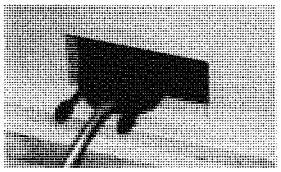
The Audio Keypad / Headphone device was designed to accomodate VISUALLY IMPAIRED voters that are physically unable to vote unassisted using the visual full face ballot sheet, lights and numbered buttons. This accessory remains idle until activated by the Poll Worker. Please complete the following steps to install the Audio keypad.

1. BEFORE YOU RAISE THE CURTAIN RODS, remove the Keypad and Headphones from the blue storage pouch located in the bottom of one the voting machines where the curtain is stored.



2. Locate the connector at the end of the Keypad cable and the corresponding connector plate on the back of the voting machine - (directly above the large voting machine serial number as pictured at top of next column).

3. CAREFULLY Insert the Keypad cable connector into the connector jack and SLOWLY tighten the thumb screws until the unit is firmly attached to the port on the back of the voting machine.



4. Place the Keypad onto the Velcro strips located on the back of the voting machine and hang the Headphones at the top of the Keypad until they are needed by VISUALLY IMPAIRED voter.

RAISE CURTAIN SUPPORT RODS AND INSTALL THE CURTAINS

5. AFTER THE AUDIO KEYPAD HAS BEEN CONNECTED TO THE MACHINE Raise the curtain support rods and position them in notches in the support brackets.

NOTE: Raising the left support rod turns on the power for the EVM.

6. Remove the privacy curtain from its storage compartment in the EVM base.

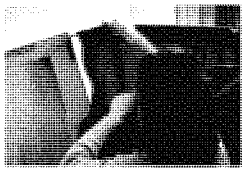
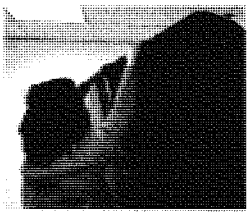
7. Unfold it and slide the right flared end of the curtain rod onto the right support rod holding the remainder of the curtain with your left hand.



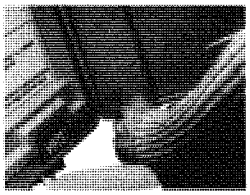
8. Then, while standing outside the curtain, unfold the left side of the curtain rod and slide its flared end onto the left support rod, then into the support bracket.



NOTE: It may be easier to install the curtains with the EVM in the lowered position, see Section D.

9. Fasten the curtain to the edge of the right-hand ballot box door by inserting the bottom of the roped edge on the side of the curtain into the top of the slot in the ballot box door and pulling down until the entire roped edge slides into the slot and is drawn tight. Repeat this on the left side.

10. Secure the bottom of the curtains to the bottom of the ballot box doors by joining the Velcro strips to the Velcro dots.



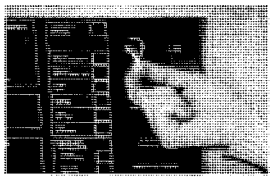
B. OPENING THE POLLS

OPENING THE POLLS

Step-by-step instructions for opening the polls appear on the Officer's Control panel located on the back of the ballot box. The Red or Green light indicators on the Officer's Control Panel will take you through the procedure one step at a time. As each step is completed, the instruction light will move to the next step.

1. The red instruction light will be on at the first position in the POLLS READY TO OPEN box.

Remove the seal on the OPEN POLLS button.



CAUTION: Do not damage the area behind the button with a sharp instrument.

ELECTronic 1242
MACHINE # NNNNNN
CARTRIDGE # NNNNNN

NOTE: These numbers will only remain exposed for a short time.

Verify that these numbers match the EVM serial number shown through the window in the lower left corner of the ballot frame.

DO NOT CLOSE THE WRITE-IN WINDOW YET!

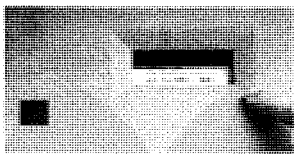
WAIT WAIT WAIT

THE PRINTER WILL START AGAIN

5. When the tape starts moving again it will advance through each candidate and Question and show the polls opening count for each candidate or question. All observed counts must be zero.

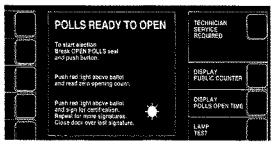
THE PRINTER WILL STOP AGAIN

After completing the count check, the printer will stop a 2nd time and the message:
ALL COUNTERS = ZERO
will appear in the write-in window.



DO NOT CLOSE THE WRITE-IN WINDOW YET!

6. If all counters are zero, the light indicator on the back of the voting machine will advance to the last instruction in the POLLS READY TO OPEN box.



7. On the front of the machine the square red button next to the write in window above the ballot face will start blinking. Each election officer who must sign to certify the zero count should press the blinking red button once to advance the tape and then sign his or her name on the paper tape.

8. After all of the election officers have signed, NOW YOU CAN CLOSE THE WRITE-IN WINDOW BY PULLING THE COVER DOWN.

9. After the write-in window is closed and the printer stops, a bell-chime will sound to indicate that the polls are open. The instruction light on the Officer's Control panel will be on in the POLLS OPEN box.

10. Verify the Public Counter located on the Officer's Control panel is at zero.

THE POLLS ARE NOW OPEN, AND THE VOTING MACHINE IS READY TO ACTIVIATE AS EACH VOTER APPEARS TO VOTE.

C. OPERATING THE VOTING MACHINE

ACTIVATING THE VOTING MACHINE FOR EACH VOTER

Each Division will have ONE machine which is equipped with an Audio Keypad / Headphone for use by VISUALLY IMPAIRED voters. Voters who do not have any visual impairment can vote on any machine including the one that is audio equipped.

Each time an authorized voter approaches the EVM, the election officer must follow certain operating procedures. These procedures will prepare the EVM for the voter. Under certain conditions, lockouts may be required to provide the proper voting options for a particular voter. These lockouts are commonly used to differentiate between party affiliation in primary elections, district boundary splits, etc. Lockouts are easily selected by the election official using buttons on the Officer's Control panel.

The Operator or Judge must follow the procedures below to prepare and activate the voting machine for the voter to use the Audio Keypad / Headphones.

To activate the Audio Keypad / Headphones for a VISUALLY IMPAIRED voter in a Spring Primary Election the Machine Operator or Judge must press THREE operator buttons.

1. FIRST PRESS the political PARTY affiliation lockout button for the party in which the voter is registered. The PARTY buttons are located in the first left hand column of the Officer Control Panel. The light next to the PARTY button selected will light.

IMPORTANT NOTES:

To change a lockout selection after the OFFICER'S CONTROL button has been activated (as covered in Instruction 2), the OFFICER'S CONTROL button must be deactivated by pushing it a second time. If a voter has made any selections on the ballot, they must be canceled before the OFFICER'S CONTROL button can be deactivated. Once the correct lockout selection has been made and the OFFICER'S CONTROL button reactivated, the voter must start again with a blank ballot.

2. Second, PRESS the ADA VOTER button on the Officer's Control panel on the back of the voting machine. The ADA Voter button is second from the bottom in the center of the Control Panel. The light next to the ADA VOTER button will light.

D. LOWERING THE BALLOT FOR VOTERS WHO USE WHEELCHAIRS

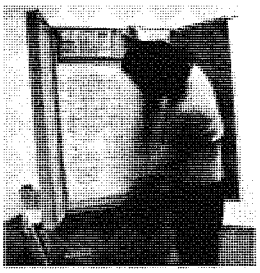
POSITIONING FOR PERSONS WHO USE WHEELCHAIRS

The EVM is designed to accommodate the needs of persons who use wheelchairs and voters, who for other reasons, may have difficulty reaching the entire ballot while the EVM is in its full upright position.

CAUTION: Do not let a voter stand closer than six feet to the EVM while you are lowering it. The voter may be startled by the forward motion of the EVM as it dips if he or she is too close.

1. While standing directly in front of the EVM, extend the stabilizer handle at the bottom front of the machine by hooking your heel inside it and pulling outward and up. It will move approximately 6 inches.

Once the handle has been extended, grasp the top and bottom of the ballot box and carefully pull forward to move the EVM towards you which effectively lowers the height of the ballot box.

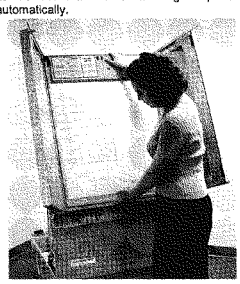


2. The rear of the base will lift into the air as the EVM is pulled forward and the stabilizer handle will stop the EVM at the proper position with the ballot box vertical. This procedure lowers the ballot by more than six inches.

NOTE: If the voter has trouble reaching the entire ballot, the wheelchair can be turned sideways providing an additional six inches of reach.

3. Once the EVM is in its lowered position, follow the procedures described in Section C OPERATING THE VOTING MACHINE and instruct the voter to enter.

4. When the voter has finished casting his or her ballot, grasp the ballot box at the top and bottom as shown below and gently move it back to its original position. The stabilizer handle will withdraw to its original position automatically.



E. CLOSING THE POLLS AND OBTAINING RESULTS

CLOSING THE POLLS AND OBTAINING RESULTS

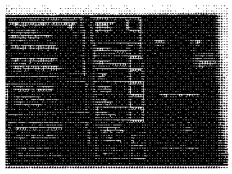
Once the polls have been officially closed and the last authorized voter has completed his or her selection, the Polls must be closed and the election results obtained.

IMPORTANT: Do not remove the machine privacy curtain or lower the curtain support rods until all of these steps in this section have been completed!

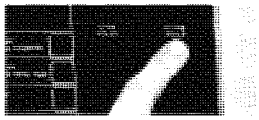
Doing so will remove power from the machine and stop the reporting process. If this happens, you must raise the left rod again and reinitiate all steps within this section.

The steps required for those procedures are described below.

1. Ensure the OFFICER'S CONTROL button is off and remove the POLLS CLOSED seal. Make sure that the seal number is written on the Counter / Seal Card.



2. Press the POLLS CLOSED button. The red indicator light will move to the upper position in the POLLS CLOSED box of the Officer's Control panel.



3. WAIT WAIT WAIT

You will hear the printer running. The voting machine will copy the election results into the memory cartridge and begin printing results on the paper tape.

WAIT WAIT WAIT

IMPORTANT: The write-in window must remain closed. You cannot view the results as they are being printed.

When the printer stops and the red indicator light moves to the lower position in the POLLS CLOSED box, the recording of votes cast is complete.

4. When the light comes on in the lower position in the POLLS CLOSED box, make sure the seal number on the rear door is written on the Counter / Seal Card. Remove the plastic seal on the rear door of the machine, release the latch by pulling out and lower the door downward.

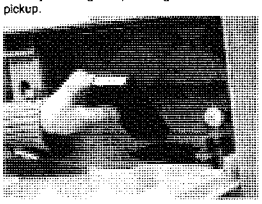
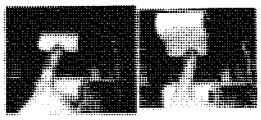
E. CLOSING THE POLLS AND OBTAINING RESULTS

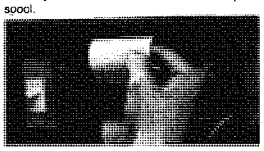
5. Remove the memory cartridge located in the right hand side of the compartment by pulling up on it and place it in the vinyl Cartridge-Results Bag for Police pickup.

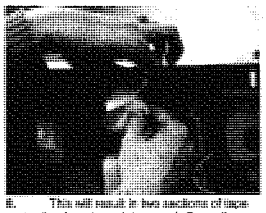


6. Once the cartridge has been removed, you must remove the paper tape containing the printed election results from the spool. Place your finger on the top take up spool and turn the spool towards the top of the machine until the paper on the spool loosens.



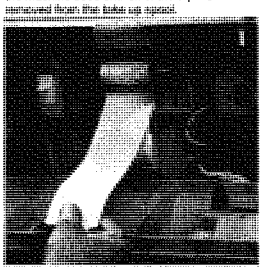
7. Grasp one edge of the tape and carefully tear across the width of the take up spool.





8. This will result in two sections of tape: protruding from top printer spool. Grasp the lower end which is located within the take up spool.

9. Carefully pull out tape and let it fall into the machine base until all of the tape is removed from the take up spool.



10. The end of the tape that comes off the spool last should be the top of the FIRST result tape. The EVM prints multiple copies of the election results as required. The machine will print 7 copies of the election results.

IMPORTANT !!!

ONLY TEAR THE TAPE AT LINES MARKED
"----------Cut Here----------"

NOTE: The first tape from each machine, which contains the opening zero count, write in votes, if any, and the machine results must be placed in the white RTC Envelope and then the RTC Envelope must be placed in the vinyl Cartridge-Results Bag for Police pickup.

11. Signature blocks have been provided on each copy section of the tape for the required signatures. All Election Board Officials should sign the bottom of each tape.

12. A section of the tape will remain exposed at the top of the compartment. Once your results tapes have been removed you do not have to do anything with the other exposed section. Close the rear door and seal the compartment.

F. CLOSING AND SEALING THE VOTING MACHINE

CLOSING AND SEALING THE EVM

Once the election results tapes and cartridges have been removed from the voting machines, it can be closed and readied for return transport to the City's warehouse.

1. Detach the Velcro strips at the bottom of the curtains.

2. Unfasten the curtain from the edge of the ballot box doors by pulling the roped edge of the curtain up and out of the top of the slot in the ballot box doors. Removing the curtain from the door slot is easier when you use two hands and work the curtain up the slot.

NOTE: It may be easier to remove the curtains with the machine in the lowered position, see SECTION D.

3. While standing outside the curtain remove the flared end of the curtain rod from the left curtain support rod.

4. Swing the left side of the curtain rod down and while holding it in your left hand fold it toward the center. Grasp the right side of the curtain rod with your right hand and slide it off its support rod. Fold the right side of the curtain rod toward the center and neatly roll the curtain around the rods and place in its storage compartment in the machine base.

5. Lower the two curtain support rods and close both ballot box doors. LOWERING THE LEFT CURTAIN ROD SHUTS OFF THE POWER TO THE MACHINE.

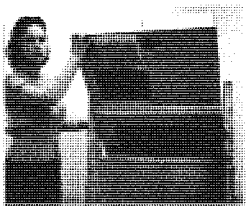
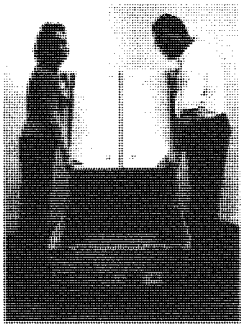
NOTE: IF THE REAR DOOR IS CLOSED BEFORE THE CURTAIN SUPPORT RODS ARE LOWERED TURNING THE EVM OFF, THE BELL-CHIME WILL SOUND AND E001 WILL BE DISPLAYED ON THE PUBLIC COUNTER. THIS INDICATES THE MEMORY CARTRIDGE HAS BEEN REMOVED. IGNORE IT AND CLOSE THE MACHINE.

CAUTION: The ballot box is spring balanced for ease of closing. It is important to use two hands and hold it firmly to avoid allowing the box to swing open or closed too quickly.

6. Grasp the top and bottom of the ballot box and rotate it downward to its vertical position.





7. Grasp the cover of the machine in the proper hand relief spots and ease it downward until the cover is closed.

CAUTION: Be sure to grasp the cover in the proper locations as shown in the photograph to [illegible]

8. Fasten the plastic latches and secure the machine case with the new seal as provided in your Election Officer materials.

9. Disconnect the power cord and retract it into the base.

DISPOSITION OF ELECTION RESULTS

A. CARTRIDGE - RESULTS BAG

The vinyl Cartridge - Results Bag will be picked up by the Philadelphia Police Department. It replaces the old handwritten flash sheet. There will be ONE Cartridge-Results Bag for each Division polling place and it will be in the bottom of your machine case.

You must place the following items in the Cartridge-Results Bag for the Police:

1. MACHINE MEMORY CARTRIDGES

The memory cartridge from each voting machine in your Division polling place must be placed in the vinyl Cartridge - Results Bag. The cartridge is located in the right hand side of the printer compartment. Remove it by pulling up on it and place it in the vinyl Cartridge - Results Bag.

2. RTC ENVELOPE

The machine will print 7 copies of the election results. The last copy that comes off the printer spool when you remove the tape should be the first, or longest copy.

IMPORTANT!!!!!!

ONLY TEAR THE TAPE AT LINES DESIGNATED "-----Cut Here-------".

Place the longest PRINTED ELECTION RESULTS RECEIPT / TAPE from each voting machine in your Division polling place into the RTC Envelope, and then place the RTC Envelope into the Cartridge - Results Bag.

The longest OFFICIAL RETURNS printed results receipt contains the Opening Zero Count, the Opening Certification signatures by Polling Place Officials, any write-in votes, any machine repair activity during voting process, the Closing Election Results for each candidate, and the Closing Certification signatures by Polling Place Officials.

Space has been provided on each copy section of the tape, marked Certify, for the required signatures. All Election Board Officials should sign the bottom of each tape.

3. ABSENTEE VOTERS LIST

Each Division will have ONE Absentee Voters List that will provide the name, address, date of birth, and political party affiliation of every voter who has returned an Absentee Ballot to the County Board of Elections.

After the close of the polls, place the Absentee Voters List, which you have marked for any voided or challenged ballots, into the Cartridge-Results Bag.

WHEN YOU HAVE PLACED ALL OF THE ABOVE ITEMS IN THE VINYL BAG, ZIPPER IT CLOSED AND WAIT FOR THE POLICE

NOTE: THE PHONE NUMBER FOR THE POLICE DISTRICT RESPONSIBLE FOR PICKING UP YOUR VINYL BAG OF ELECTION RETURNS IS PRINTED ON THE WARD / DIVISION CARD IN THE BAG'S BACK POCKET.

IF THE POLICE DO NOT PICK UP YOUR VINYL BAG BY 9 PM CALL THE CITY COMMISSIONERS OFFICE AT: 215-686-1530

B. EXTRA COPIES RESULTS TAPES

There are 6 more copies of the results receipt tapes, (labeled Extra Copies) printed by each voting machine. Pennsylvania law requires that Official Returns for 3 of those copies be disposed of as follows:

1. One signed copy of the results receipt from each machine must be placed in the No 2 envelope and returned to Delaware Ave & Spring Garden St. in your Election Materials Box.

2. One signed copy of the results receipt from each machine must be posted on the exterior of the polling place for public inspection.

3. One signed copy of the results receipt from each machine must be placed into the No. 4 envelope and taken home and safeguarded by the Minority Inspector.

4. Additionally, the other three Extra Copies are for the Major political party representatives as follows:

One signed copy of the results receipt is to be given to one of the Democratic Committee persons for your Division, and

One signed copy of the results receipt is to be given to one of the Republican Committee persons for your Division.

ABSENTEE BALLOTS

NO ABSENTEE BALLOTS WILL BE SENT TO THE POLLING PLACE FOR COUNTING

Beginning with the May 21, 2002 Primary Election Absentee Ballots will no longer be sent to the polling place for counting. The absentee ballots will be counted at the City Commissioners Central Office.

Instead of the ballots, you will receive an ABSENTEE VOTERS LIST which will contain the name, address, date of birth and political party affiliation of all electors who have returned an absentee ballot to the County Board of Elections by the legal deadline.

YOU MUST USE THIS ABSENTEE VOTERS LIST TO RECORD, AND REPORT TO THE CITY COMMISSIONERS. THE NAME OF:

All voters who appeared at the polling place, voided their absentee ballot by signing the green duplicate copy of their absentee ballot application, and voted in person on the voting machines or by paper Provisional Ballot, and

All voters whose absentee ballot has been challenged by any district Election Board member or certified Watcher.

1. VOIDED ABSENTEE BALLOTS

VOTED IN PERSON - if a voter whose name is listed on the Absentee Ballot List appears at the polling place and wants to void their Absentee Ballot and vote on the machines or by paper Provisional Ballot, you must do the following before allowing the person to vote:

a). Have the voter sign the Void section of the GREEN duplicate copy of their absentee application. These green duplicates were provided to you in a manila envelope when you picked up your Election Material Box; and b). Write VOID-VOTED IN PERSON next to the voters name on your ABSENTEE VOTERS LIST.

DECEASED - To void the Absentee Ballot of any voter whose name is listed on the Absentee Voters List who has died before opening of the polls, if such information is known, you must do the following:

a). Write VOID - DECEASED in the Void section of the GREEN duplicate copy of their absentee application; and b). Write VOID - DECEASED next to the voters name on your ABSENTEE VOTERS LIST.

VOID - VOTED PROVISIONAL BALLOT - If a voter whose name is listed on the Absentee Ballot List appears at the polling place and votes by Provisional Ballot, you must do the following before allowing the person to vote:

a). Have the voter sign the Void section of the GREEN duplicate copy of their absentee application. These green duplicates were provided to you in a manila envelope when you picked up your Election Material Box; and b). Write VOID-VOTED PROV next to the voters name on your ABSENTEE VOTERS LIST.

2. CHALLENGES TO ABSENTEE VOTERS:

Announce the name of each voter listed on the Absentee Voters Lists to give any certified WATCHER present the opportunity to CHALLENGE. Challenges may be made on the following grounds ONLY:

a). The Absentee Voter is not a qualified elector of the division, OR b). The Absentee Voter (who has claimed necessary absence) was in fact present within the municipality of residence during the time the polls were open, OR c). The Absentee Voter (who has claimed illness or physical disability) was in fact physically able to come to the polls (except those elderly and handicapped assigned to an inacessible polling place who voted an Alternate Ballot).

A DEPOSIT of Ten Dollars ($10.00) in CASH must be SUBMITTED BY THE WATCHER for EACH Absentee Voter CHALLENGED. The Challenger must be provided a deposit receipt (found in your Election Materials Box).

If you have any Absentee Voters who are CHALLENGED you must do the following:

a). Write CHALLENGED in the Void section of the GREEN duplicate copy of their absentee application; and b). Write CHALLENGED next to the voters name on the ABSENTEE VOTERS LIST.

IMPORTANT! AFTER the polls have closed PLACE THE ABSENTEE VOTERS LIST INTO THE CARTRIDGE-RESULTS BAG FOR POLICE PICKUP; place the GREEN duplicate copies into your Election Materials Box; and return any CASH deposits, and copy of the RECEIPT to the County Board of Elections.

VOTER QUESTIONS

During an election, voters may ask questions about operating the voting machine. Here are answers to some of the most common questions.

1. QUESTION: How do I select a candidate or answer a question?
ANSWER: Press the number in box next to the candidate or response of your choice. A red light will turn on next to the numbered box you pressed indicating your choice. To change a selection press the same button next to your original choice again and the light will go out. Then make a new selection.

IMPORTANT: A voter may not cast a ballot (press the VOTE button) without making at least one selection on the ballot.

2. QUESTION: If I press the VOTE button before I complete all my selections can I finish?
ANSWER: No. Once the VOTE button has been pressed, the ballot is cast and no additional selections and/or changes may be made by that voter.

3. QUESTION: Do I have to vote for every candidate or answer every question on the ballot?
ANSWER: No. You may vote for only those candidates which you desire. However, you must make at least one selection on the ballot before pressing the VOTE button in order to cast your ballot.

4. QUESTION: How do I cast a write-in vote?
ANSWER: A place for casting a write-in vote is provided in the upper right-hand corner of the ballot area. To case a write-in vote, follow these instructions:

a. Press the WRITE-IN box on the ballot for the appropriate office. (At this point you can change your mind by either pressing the WRITE-IN box on the ballot again to cancel it or simply make another selection for the same office or issue on the ballot to automatically cancel the write-in ballot box which had previously been selected.)

b. Press the blinking red button next to the write-in window. The window will automatically open to expose the paper tape.

c. Write in the name of the desired candidate on the paper tape and pull down the cover of the window to conceal the write-in. The paper tape will automatically advance prior to the next write-in.

IMPORTANT: You cannot continue making selections or cast your ballot until the write-in window has been closed.

d. The write-in selection is now complete and the voter may continue to make other selections on the ballot.

5. QUESTION: What are the blinking red lights on the ballot?
ANSWER: Blinking red lights next to offices and/or referenda indicate those which you are authorized to vote for. (Where lockouts are used, this may vary from voter to voter). Once all of the selections for an office have been made or the proposition has been answered, the blinking lights will go out.

6. QUESTION: How can I tell if I have made all possible selections on the ballot?
ANSWER: All the flashing red lights in the office/referenda boxes will be off on the ballot face.

7. QUESTION: How do I cast my ballot?
ANSWER: Press the green VOTE button located on the lower right hand corner of the ballot box. When the voting booth lights turn off and one bell-chime sounds, your ballot has been recorded.

8. QUESTION: I tried to select something and the EVM would not respond when I pushed the box containing a candidate number on the ballot.
ANSWER: The voter has attempted to vote for something that was not allowed, already selected the maximum candidates allowed for the office, voted for the other choice on a referenda or tried to vote for a party, district, etc. from which the lock out was activated.

If a voter complains that a button does not work, check to make sure that the voter is qualified to select that button. If it appears that the button or candidate light isn't working properly, call the City Commissioners Office.

NOTE: If a wrong lockout was selected for a voter and he has not yet pushed the VOTE button, the lockouts can be changed by having the voter undo all of his selections. Then, press the OFFICER™S CONTROL button deactivate the ballot lockout selection.

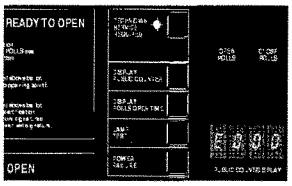
The counters will not advance. Reselect the proper LOCKOUT button, press the OFFICER'S CONTROL button again and the voter can vote. This procedure will function even if the voter has used the write-in function since the machine will print a "WRITE-IN CANCELED" message on tape for that write-in.

VOTING MACHINE TROUBLESHOOTING

The voting machine has a self diagnostic feature that will detect operating problems within itself. When this happens, a continuous bell-chime will sound and the problem will be identified on the Officer's Control panel.

1. When the continuous bell-chimes sounds, check the Officer's Control panel. A light will be on next to one of the following control buttons:

TECHNICIAN SERVICE REQUIRED
POWER FAILURE
LOW BATTERY



NOTE: If the TECHNICIAN SERVICE REQUIRED light is on, DO NOT USE THE MACHINE UNTIL IT HAS BEEN SERVICED. DIRECT VOTERS TO ANOTHER MACHINE!

Press the TECHNICIAN SERVICE REQUIRED button to stop the bell-chime and call City Commissioners Office for assistance.

When calling in machine problems, have available the machine serial number and the numeric service code (EXXX displayed in the lighted PUBLIC COUNT DISPLAY on the Officer's Control panel). This code helps to determine corrective action.

2. If the POWER FAILURE light is on, either the voting machine power cord has been unplugged or the power to the outlet has been interrupted.

NOTE: In either case, the voting machine will continue to operate on power from its internal battery. However, the ballot box door lights will not be on.

Press the button next to the POWER FAILURE light to stop the bell-chime. Check the power cord and plug it in if it has become unplugged. If the cord is plugged in and there is no power, notify the City Commissioners Office.

3. If the machine is operating on its internal battery and the LOW BATTERY light comes on, press the button next to the LOW BATTERY light to stop the bell-chime and do not let any more voters enter the booth unless you are in a single machine polling location. If power becomes sufficiently low, the machine will automatically close the polls so you will have results printed when you open the machine after the polls closing time. When the LOW BATTERY alarm sounds, the battery power remaining will keep the voting machine on for several hours, if no voters use the machine.

ELECTION BOARD PAYROLL

We ask that you pay special attention to making sure that your payroll form for your polling place officials is filled out completely and properly. As you can imagine, processing the Election Day Payroll for approximately 8,400 workers who staff the City's polling places is a complicated task. Failure of an election board to complete the payroll form accurately and completely can cause delays and confusion for every member of the affected election board.

Each Division polling place should have one Judge, one Majority Inspector, one Minority Inspector, one Clerk, and ONE Machine Inspector for a total of five officials per Division. When it gets busy the Judge of Elections is to help Machine Inspector operate the second machine. If the Division has three machines, then the law allows a second Machine Inspector.

Federal law requires that the City Commissioners provide written and oral instruction to Spanish speaking registrants who cannot read or write English. A Bilingual Interpreter position in a Division polling place must be approved by the City Commissioners, after a case by case review. The City Commissioners have also approved Bilingual Interpreters in other languages upon advanced request.

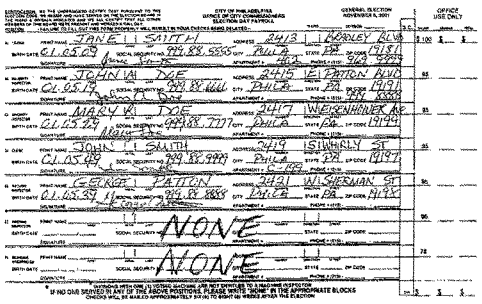
Once a Bilingual Interpreter position is approved by the Commission, the person assigned as the Bilingual Interpreter for your Division must be able to speak the required second language and be able to interpret voting instructions.

If NO ONE WORKED IN ANY POSITION on the Election Board on Election Day, please WRITE "NONE" across the space provided for that official on the payroll form. This will help avoid delays in processing the payroll.

To assist you we have included a sample copy of a completed payroll form below. EACH OFFICIAL WORKING ON THE ELECTION BOARD MUST PRINT THEIR NAME, FULL ADDRESS, DATE OF BIRTH, SOCIAL SECURITY AND TELEPHONE NUMBER IN A CLEAR AND LEGIBLE MANNER IN THE DESIGNATED PLACES ON THE PAYROLL FORM.

EACH OFFICIAL MUST ALSO PLACE THEIR SIGNATURE ON THE LINE BELOW THEIR PRINTED FORMATION. IF YOU DO NOT PLACE YOUR SIGNATURE ON THE PAYROLL YOU MAY NOT GET PAID.

Illustration: Polling Place Payroll Sheet



Remember, failure to fill out this form properly may result in your check being delayed.

DISCREPANCY SHEETS

In the front of each District Register – Pollbook are three pages of Discrepancy Sheets. Please use these Discrepancy Sheets to inform the Voter Registration Office of any changes that should be made to the voter registration records in this pollbook. In the spaces provided please write the necessary information and check the appropriate box for the type of change needed. If you need to provide more detailed information about a record you have listed on the Discrepancy Sheet page, you may write the additional information on the voter record that appears in this pollbook.

The City Commissioners will use this information to correct errors in name or date of birth information; to confirm and remove records of voters who are reported deceased; and to begin the voter removal process by designating records INACTIVE and mailing Address Verification Notices to registrants that Polling Place Officials have reported as moved out of their Division [Pa.C.S.A. § 1402(f)].

INACTIVE VOTERS

Federal and State election laws require that the City Commissioners conduct a Voter Removal Program once each year. We use information from the Post Office, PennDOT, Pollbook Discrepancy Sheets (polling place officials) and the fact that a voter has not contacted our office and voted in five years to trigger the mailing of an Address Verification Notice (AVN) or Five Year Notice. The law requires that we mail a forwardable Address Verification Notice (AVN) or Five Year Notice to the address on the registration record. These notices include a response form and a postage-paid, pre-addressed return envelope for the voter to reply.

Voters who do not respond to the notices are designated as INACTIVE voters and their registration record will be in the pollbook for their new address (if the Post Office provides that information), or in the pollbook for the old address on their registration record if the new address can not be obtained. An asterisk will precede their name on the Division Street List, and in the Pollbook their Registration Status will be Inactive and the words "AFFIRMATION REQUIRED" will appear in the voting signature box of their record.

If a voter appears to vote, and their record is marked "AFFIRMATION REQUIRED", you must have them complete an Affirmation of Elector form before you let them vote. After the election we will update and transfer the registration record to the pollbook for the new address on the Affirmation.

REMEMBER, INACTIVE voters must be permitted to vote, but only after they confirm their address, or provide a new address, by completing the Affirmation of Elector form.

Cancellation of Records

INACTIVE voters who fail to return the response form, fail to contact our office, or fail to vote in any election by the 2nd Federal General Election after the mailing of the notice, will have their registration record cancelled. Federal and state laws require that we follow all of the above procedures before we are permitted to cancel the registration of a voter who has moved. The Inactive voters in your pollbooks and on your Street List will be removed after the prescribed Federal time period expires which always falls in December of each even numbered year.

DEMONSTRATION BALLOT

The Danaher Controls 1242 *ELECT*ronic voting machines, used first in the May 2002 Primary Election, follow the general shape and operating characteristics of our old mechanical machines. The voting machines are fully self-contained providing an enclosed voting booth. The machines are easy to setup and operate. The electronic voting machines will automatically tabulate the votes after the polls are closed, eliminating the need for pollworkers to spend hours hand recording and adding election results.

Voters easily enter and exit the machine by parting, and walking through the curtain. The electronic voting machines are also easy for the voters to use in casting their ballots. These full-face machines allow the voter to view, select, and review every office, candidate, or question on the ballot without the need for turning or scrolling through numerous pages or screens. Everything is on one screen. The ballot appearance on these electronic machines is similar to what the voters have seen on our old mechanical lever machine.

BELOW IS A COPY OF THE SAMPLE BALLOT USED TO CONDUCT POLLWORKER TRAINING AND PUBLIC "HOW TO VOTE" DEMONSTRATIONS PRIOR TO USE OF THE MACHINES FOR THE SPRING 2004 PRIMARY ELECTION.

THE APPEARANCE OF OFFICES, CANDIDATES, AND QUESTIONS ON THE BALLOT WILL BE SIMILAR IN ALL FUTURE ELECTIONS WITH OFFICE NAMES DOWN THE LEFT HAND COLUMN; POLITICAL PARTY NAMES ACROSS THE TOP ROW; AND CANDIDATES LISTED IN THEIR RESPECTIVE PARTY COLUMNS, TO THE RIGHT OF THE OFFICE TO WHICH THEY ARE SEEKING NOMINATION, OR ELECTION. JUDICIAL RETENTIONS WILL APPEAR IN THE RIGHT HAND COLUMNS. QUESTIONS WILL APPEAR IN THE RIGHT HAND COLUMNS OR AT THE BOTTOM.

TO SELECT CANDIDATES VOTERS PRESS THE NUMBERED BOX AND A LIGHT TURNS ON NEXT TO THEIR SELECTED CANDIDATES NAME.

TO CAST THEIR BALLOT AND RECORD THEIR SELECTIONS, VOTERS MUST PRESS THE BIG GREEN VOTE BUTTON AT THE BOTTOM RIGHT OF THE BALLOT.
