A BILL

To extend to the People's Republic of China renewal of nondiscriminatory (most-favored-nation) treatment provided certain conditions are met.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the "United States-China 5 Act of 1993".

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND POLICY.

2 (a) FINDINGS.—The Congress makes the following 3 findings:

4 (1) On June 4, 1989, thousands of Chinese citi-
5 zens courageously demonstrated that they were pre-6 pared to risk their lives and futures in pursuit of 7 democratic freedom and respect for human rights.

8 (2) The People’s Republic of China, as a mem-
9 ber of the United Nations Security Council, is obli-
10 gated to respect and uphold the United Nations 11 Charter and Universal Declaration of Human 12 Rights.

13 (3) Despite the massive demonstration for self-14 determination and fundamental principles of human 15 rights and despite the People’s Republic of China’s
16 membership in the United Nations, the Government
17 of the People’s Republic of China continues to fla-
18 grantly violate internationally recognized standards 19 of human rights, and engages in—

20 (A) torture and cruel, inhuman, or degrad-
21 ing treatment or punishment;

22 (B) arbitrary arrest, unacknowledged de-23 tention without charges and trial, and jailing of 24 persons solely for the nonviolent expression of 25 their political views; and

1           (C) use of prison labor to produce cheap 2           products for export to countries, including the 3           United States, in violation of international labor
4           treaties and United States law.

5           (4) The Government of the People's Republic of 6           China continues to deny Chinese citizens and others,
7           who have supported the prodemocracy movement,
8           the right of free emigration despite having pledged 9           to do so in 1991.

10          (5) The Government of the People's Republic of 11          China continues to use military and police forces to 12          intimidate and repress the Tibetan people seeking 13          political and religious freedom, and continues to vio-
14          late the provisions of the Fourth Geneva Convention 15          by encouraging the resettlement of large numbers of 16          Chinese in Tibet.

17          (6) The Government of the People's Republic of 18          China continues to engage in unfair trade practices
19          against the United States by raising tariffs, employ-20          ing taxes as a surcharge on tariffs, using discrimina-21          tory customs rates, imposing import quotas and 22          other quantitative restrictions, barring the importa-
23          tion of certain items, using licensing and testing re-
24          quirements to limit imports, and falsifying country 25          of origin documentation to transship textiles and

1 other items to the United States through Hong 2 Kong and third countries.

3 (7) Although the Government of the People's 4 Republic of China has pledged to adhere to the 5 guidelines and parameters of the Missile Technology 6 Control Regime, there are continuing reports of Chi-7 nese transfers of military technology covered by such 8 Regime to the Middle East, Africa, and Asia.

9 (8) The Government of the People's Republic of 10 China continues to unjustly restrict and imprison re-11 ligious leaders and members of religious groups who 12 do not adhere to the dogma and control of state-13 sponsored religious organizations.

14 (9) It is the policy and practice of the Govern-
15 ment of the People's Republic of China's Communist 16 Party to control all trade unions and suppress and 17 harass members of the independent labor union 18 movement.

19 (10) The Government of the People's Republic
20 of China continues to harass and restrict the activi-21 ties of accredited journalists and to restrict broad-22 casts by the Voice of America.

23 (b) POLICY.—It is the sense of the Congress that—

24 (1) with respect to the actions of the People's 25 Republic of China in the areas of human rights,

1 weapons proliferation, and unfair trade practices,
2 the President should take such action as is necessary
3 to achieve the purposes of this Act, including—

4 (A) urging the Communist Chinese leaders 5 to release all political and religious prisoners in 6 China and Tibet, and to cease forcing the large-7 scale influx of Chinese settlers into Tibet which 8 is threatening the survival of the Tibetan cul-
9 ture;

10 (B) conducting diplomatic negotiations
11 with the Government of the People's Republic
12 of China to encourage them to allow inter-
13 national human rights and humanitarian orga-14 nizations access to prisoners in China and 15 Tibet;

16 (C) directing the United States Trade Rep-
17 resentative to take necessary and appropriate
18 action pursuant to section 301 of the Trade Act
19 of 1974 and the Memorandum of Understand-20 ing between the Governments of the United 21 States and People's Republic of China concern-
22 ing market access, signed October 10, 1992,
23 with respect to the continuing unfair trade
24 practices of the People's Republic of China that

1 are discriminatory and unreasonably restrict 2 United States commerce; and

3 (D) encouraging members of the Missile
4 Technology Control Regime and other countries
5 to develop a common policy concerning the Peo-
6 ple's Republic of China's transfer of missile 7 technology to other countries;

8 (2) sanctions being applied against the People's 9 Republic of China on the date of the enactment of 10 this Act should be continued and strictly enforced; 11 and

12 (3) the President should direct the Secretary of 13 Commerce to consult with American business lead-14 ers, having significant trade with or investments in 15 the People's Republic of China, to encourage them 16 to adopt a voluntary code of conduct that—

17 (A) follows internationally recognized 18 human rights principles;

19 (B) ensures that the employment of Chi-20 nese citizens is not discriminatory in terms of 21 sex, ethnic origin, or political belief;

22 (C) refrains from knowingly using prison
23 labor;

24 (D) recognizes workers right to organize 25 and bargain collectively; and

1 (E) discourages mandatory political indoc-
2 trination on business sites.

3 SEC. 3. MINIMUM STANDARDS WHICH THE GOVERNMENT
4 OF THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA MUST 5 MEET TO CONTINUE TO RECEIVE NON-
6 DISCRIMINATORY MOST-FAVORED-NATION
7 TREATMENT.

8 Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the 9 President may not recommend continuation of a waiver 10 for the 12-month period beginning July 3, 1994, under 11 section 402(d) of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C.
12 2432(d)) for the People's Republic of China, unless the 13 President reports in the document required to be submit-14 ted by such section that the government of that country—

15 (1) has taken appropriate actions to begin ad-
16 hering to the provisions of the Universal Declaration 17 of Human Rights in China and Tibet;

18 (2) is allowing unrestricted emigration of the 19 citizens who desire to leave China for reasons of po-
20 litical or religious persecution to join family mem-
21 bers abroad, or for other valid reasons;

22 (3) has provided an acceptable accounting for 23 and release of Chinese citizens detained, accused, or 24 sentenced as a result of the nonviolent expression of 25 their political beliefs in relation to events which oc-

1 curred during and after the violent repression of 2 demonstrations in Tiananmen Square on June 4, 3 1989, and has provided an acceptable accounting for 4 and release of other citizens detained, accused, or 5 sentenced for the nonviolent expression of their po-
6 litical beliefs or for peacefully exercising their inter-7 nationally guaranteed rights of freedom of speech, 8 association, and assembly;

9 (4) has taken effective, verifiable action to pre-
10 vent export of products to the United States manu-11 factured wholly or in part by convict, forced, or in-12 dentured labor and has complied with the terms of 13 the Memorandum of Understanding signed on Au-
14 gust 7, 1992, by allowing, without limitation or re-
15 striction, United States Customs officials to visit 16 places suspected of producing such goods for export;
17 and

18 (5) has made overall significant progress in—

19 (A) ceasing religious persecution and lift-20 ing restrictions on freedom of religious belief in 21 the People's Republic of China and Tibet and 22 ceasing to threaten the survival of the Tibetan 23 culture;

24 (B) releasing leaders and members of reli-25 gious groups detained, imprisoned, or under

1 house arrest for expression of their religious 2 beliefs;

3 (C) ceasing unfair and discriminatory
4 trade practices which restrict and unreasonably 5 burden American business;

6 (D) providing United States exporters fair
7 access to Chinese markets, including lowering 8 tariffs, removing nontariff barriers, and increas-9 ing the purchase of United States goods and 10 services;

11 (E) adhering to the guidelines and param-
12 eters of the Missile Technology Control Regime
13 and the controls adopted by the Nuclear Suppli-
14 ers Group and the Australian Group on Chemi-
15 cal and Biological Arms;

16 (F) adhering to the Joint Declaration on 17 Hong Kong that was entered into between the 18 United Kingdom and the People's Republic of 19 China;

20 (G) cooperating with United States efforts 21 to obtain an acceptable accounting of United 22 States military personnel who are listed as pris-23 oners of war or missing in action as a result of 24 their service in—

25 (i) the Korean conflict; or

- 1 (ii) the Vietnam conflict;
- 2 (H) ceasing the jamming of Voice of Amer-
- 3 ica broadcasts; and
- 4 (I) providing international human rights
- 5 and humanitarian groups access to prisoners,
- 6 trials, and places of detention.

7 SEC. 4. REPORT BY THE PRESIDENT.

8 If the President recommends in 1994 that the waiver

9 referred to in section 3 be continued for the People's Re-

10 public of China, the President shall state in the document

11 required to be submitted to the Congress by section 402(d)

12 of the Trade Act of 1974, the extent to which the Govern-

13 ment of the People's Republic of China has complied with 14 the provisions of section 3, during the period covered by 15 the document.

16 SEC. 5. NONDISCRIMINATORY TREATMENT FOR PRODUCTS

17 FROM NONSTATE-OWNED ENTERPRISES.

18 (a) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding any other provi-

19 sions of law, if nondiscriminatory treatment is not granted

20 to the People's Republic of China by reason of the occur-

21 rence of an event described in subsection (b), nondiscrim-

22 inatory treatment shall—

- 23 (1) continue to apply to any good that is pro-
- 24 duced or manufactured by a person that is not a

1 state-owned enterprise of the People's Republic of 2 China, but

3 (2) not apply to any such good that is marketed 4 or otherwise exported by a state-owned enterprise of 5 the People's Republic of China.

6 Nondiscriminatory treatment under this section shall be 7 in effect for the same period of time the waiver referred 8 to in section 3 would have been effective had it taken 9 effect.

10 (b) EVENTS.—An event described in this subsection
11 means—

12 (1) the President fails to request the waiver re-
13 ferred to in section 3 and reports to the Congress 14 that such failure was a result of the President's in-15 ability to report that the People's Republic of China 16 has met the standards described in such section; or

17 (2) the President requests the waiver referred 18 to in section 3, but a disapproval resolution de-19 scribed in subsection (c)(1) is enacted into law.

20 (c) DISAPPROVAL RESOLUTION.—

21 (1) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of this section, 22 the term “resolution” means only a joint resolution 23 of the two Houses of Congress, the matter after the 24 resolving clause of which is as follows: “That the 25 Congress does not approve the extension of the au-

1       thority contained in section 402(c) of the Trade Act
2       of 1974 recommended by the President to the Con-
3       gress on _____ with respect to the Peo-
4       ple’s Republic of China because the Congress does 5       not agree that the People’s Republic of China has 6       met the standards described in section 3 of the Unit-
7       ed States-China Act of 1993”, with the blank space 8       being filled with the appropriate date.

9               (2) APPLICABLE RULES.—The provisions of 10       sections 153 (other than paragraphs (3) and (4) of 11       subsection (b) of such section) and 402(d)(2) (as 12       modified by this subsection) of the Trade Act of 13       1974 shall apply to a resolution described in para-14       graph (1).

15       (d) DETERMINATION OF DUTY STATUS OF ENTER-
16       PRISES.—

17               (1) IN GENERAL.—Subject to paragraph (2), 18       the Secretary of the Treasury shall determine which 19       persons are state-owned enterprises of the People’s 20       Republic of China for purposes of this Act and com-21       pile and maintain a list of such persons.

22               (2) DEFINITIONS AND SPECIAL RULES.—For 23       purposes of making the determination required by 24       paragraph (1), the following definitions apply:

1           (A)(i) The term “state-owned enterprise of 2 the People’s Republic of China” means a person 3 affiliated with or wholly owned, controlled, or 4 subsidized by the Government of the People’s 5 Republic of China and whose means of produc-
6 tion, products, and revenues are owned or con-
7 trolled by a central or provincial government 8 authority. A person shall be considered to be 9 state-owned if—

10                   (I) the person’s assets are primarily 11 owned by a central or provincial govern-
12 ment authority;

13                   (II) a substantial proportion of the 14 person’s profits are required to be submit-
15 ted to a central or provincial government
16 authority;

17                   (III) the person’s production, pur-18 chases of inputs, and sales of output, in 19 whole or in part, are subject to state, sec-20 toral, or regional plans; or

21                   (IV) a license issued by a government
22 authority classifies the person as state-
23 owned.

24           (ii) Any person that—

1 (I) is a qualified foreign joint venture
2 or is licensed by a governmental authority
3 as a collective, cooperative, or private en-4 terprise; or

5 (II) is wholly owned by a foreign per-6 son,

7 shall not be considered to be state-owned.

8 (B) The term “qualified foreign joint ven-9 ture” means any person—

10 (i) which is registered and licensed in 11 the agency or department of the Govern-
12 ment of the People’s Republic of China 13 concerned with foreign economic relations
14 and trade as an equity, cooperative, con-
15 tractual joint venture, or joint stock com-
16 pany with foreign investment;

17 (ii) in which the foreign investor part-
18 ner and a person of the People’s Republic 19 of China share profits and losses and 20 jointly manage the venture;

21 (iii) in which the foreign investor
22 partner holds or controls at least 25 per-23 cent of the investment and the foreign in-24 vestor partner is not substantially owned

1 or controlled by a state-owned enterprise of
2 the People’s Republic of China;

3 (iv) in which the foreign investor part-
4 ner is not a person of a country the gov-
5 ernment of which the Secretary of State 6 has determined under section 6(j) of the 7 Export Administration Act of 1979 to have 8 repeatedly provided support for acts of 9 international terrorism; and

10 (v) which does not use state-owned 11 enterprises of the People’s Republic of 12 China to export its goods or services.

13 (C) The term “person” means a natural 14 person, corporation, partnership, enterprise, in-15 strumentality, agency, or other entity.

16 (D) The term “foreign investor partner”
17 means—

18 (i) a natural person who is not a citi-
19 zen of the People’s Republic of China; and 20 (ii) a corporation, partnership, instru-

21 mentality, enterprise, agency, or other en-
22 tity that is organized under the laws of a
23 country other than the People’s Republic
24 of China and 50 percent or more of the 25 outstanding capital stock or beneficial in-

1           terest of such entity is owned (directly or 2           indirectly) by natural persons who are not 3           citizens of the People's Republic of China.

4           (e) PETITION FOR CHANGE IN DUTY STATUS.—Any 5           person who believes that a person should be included on 6           or excluded from the list compiled by the Secretary under 7           subsection (d)(1) may request that the Secretary review 8           the status of such person.

9           SEC. 6. EFFECT OF GATT ENTRY ON MFN STATUS.

10          Notwithstanding the entry of the People's Republic 11          of China into the General Agreement on Tariffs and 12          Trade, most-favored-nation treatment shall not be auto-13          matically conferred on the products of the People's Repub-
14          lic of China unless the People's Republic of China satisfies 15          the standards described in section 3 and complies with sec-16          tion 402 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2432).

17          SEC. 7. SANCTIONS BY OTHER COUNTRIES.

18          If the President decides not to seek a continuation
19          of a waiver in 1994 under section 402(d) of the Trade
20          Act of 1974 for the People's Republic of China, the Presi-21          dent shall, during the 30-day period beginning on the date
22          that the President would have recommended to the Con-
23          gress that such a waiver be continued, undertake efforts 24          to ensure that members of the General Agreement on

1 Tariffs and Trade take similar action with respect to the 2 People's Republic of China.

3 SEC. 8. DEFINITIONS.

4 For purposes of this Act:

5 (1) DETAINED AND IMPRISONED.—The terms
6 “detained” and “imprisoned” include, but are not 7 limited to, incarceration in prisons, jails, labor re-8 form camps, labor reeducation camps, and local po-
9 lice detention centers.

10 (2) ACCEPTABLE ACCOUNTING.—The term “ac-11 ceptable accounting” includes—

12 (A) providing information regarding the lo-
13 cation of any person being held,

14 (B) the legal status of such person,

15 (C) if convicted, the sentence of such per-16 son, and

17 (D) if released, when and with what re-
18 strictions.

19 (3) CONVICT, FORCED, OR INDENTURED
20 LABOR.—The term “convict, forced, or indentured 21 labor” has the meaning given such term by section 22 307 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1307).

23 (4) VIOLATIONS OF INTERNATIONALLY RECOG-
24 NIZED STANDARDS OF HUMAN RIGHTS.—The term 25 “violations of internationally recognized standards of 1 human rights” includes, but is not limited to, tor-2 ture, cruel, inhuman, or degrading treatment or 3 punishment, prolonged detention without charges 4 and trial, causing the disappearance of persons by 5 the abduction and clandestine detention of those per-6 sons, secret judicial proceedings, and other flagrant 7 denial of the right to life, liberty, or the security of 8 any person.

9 (5) MISSILE TECHNOLOGY CONTROL REGIME.—
10 The term “Missile Technology Control Regime” 11 means the agreement, as amended, between the 12 United States, the United Kingdom, the Federal Re-13 public of Germany, France, Italy, Canada, and 14 Japan, announced on April 16, 1987, to restrict sen-15 sitive missile-relevant transfers based on an annex of 16 missile equipment and technology.

17 (6) SIGNIFICANT PROGRESS.—(A) The term
18 “significant progress” in section 3, means the imple-19 mentation of measures that will meaningfully reduce, 20 or lead to the end of, the practices identified in such 21 section.

22 (B) With regard to section 3(5)(E), progress
23 may not be determined to be “significant progress” 24 if, after the date of the enactment of this Act, the

1 President determines that the People's Republic of 2 China has transferred—

3 (i) ballistic missiles or missile launchers for 4 the M-9 or M-11 weapons systems to Syria,
5 Pakistan, or Iran; or

6 (ii) material, equipment, or technology that 7 would contribute significantly to the manufac-
8 ture of a nuclear explosive device to another 9 country and that the material, equipment, or 10 technology is to be used by such country in the 11 manufacture of such device.
