

H. Res. 58

In the House of Representatives, U. S.,

February 3, 1993.

Resolved, That at any time after the adoption of this resolution the Speaker may, pursuant to clause 1(b) of rule XXIII, declare the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for consideration of the bill (H.R. 1) to grant family and temporary medical leave under certain circumstances. The first reading of the bill shall be dispensed with. All points of order against consideration of the bill for failure to comply with clause 2(l)(6) of rule XI are waived. General debate shall be confined to the bill and shall not exceed three hours and twenty minutes, with ninety minutes equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Education and Labor, ninety minutes equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service, and twenty minutes equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on House Administration. After general debate the bill shall be considered for amendment under the five-minute rule. It shall be in order to consider as an original bill for the purpose of amendment under the five-minute rule the amendment in the nature of a substitute printed in part 1 of the report of the Committee on Rules accompanying this resolution, modified by the amendment printed in section 2 of this resolution. The amendment in the nature of a substitute, as modified, shall be considered as read. No amendment to the amendment in the nature of a substitute, as modified, shall be in order except those printed in the report of the Committee on Rules accompanying this resolution. Each amendment may be offered only in the order printed, may be offered only by the named proponent or a designee, shall be considered as read, shall be debatable for the time specified in the report equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent, shall not be subject to amendment, and shall not be subject to a demand for division of the question in the House or in the Committee of the Whole. At the conclusion of consideration of the bill for amendment the Committee shall rise and report the bill to the House with such amendments as may have been adopted. Any Member may demand a separate vote in the House on any amendment adopted in the Committee of the Whole to the bill or to the amendment in the nature of a substitute made in order as original text. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the bill and amendments thereto to final passage without intervening motion except one motion to recommit with or without instructions.

SEC. 2. At the end of section 101 add the following:

“(14) SPOUSE.—The term spouse means a husband or wife under the law of any State.”.

Attest:

Clerk.
