4 mation and Educational Exchange Act of 1948 (22 U.S.C.
5 1474(6)), is amended to read as follows:

6 “(6) contract with individuals for personal serv-
7 ice abroad: Provided, That such individuals shall not 8 be regarded as employees of the United States Gov-
9 ernment for the purpose of any law administered by 10 the Office of Personnel Management.”.

11 SEC. 105. Section 206(b) of the Foreign Relations
12 Authorization Act, Fiscal Years 1992 and 1993, Public
13 Law 102–138 (22 U.S.C. 1475g note), is hereby repealed.

14 SEC. 106. Subsection (a) of section 501 of the United 15 States Information and Educational Exchange Act of 16 1948 (22 U.S.C. 1461(a)), is hereby amended by deleting
17 the second sentence in said subsection and inserting in lieu 18 thereof the following: “Subject to subsection (b) any such 19 information shall not be disseminated within the United 20 States, its territories or possessions, but, on request, shall 21 be made available following its release as information
22 abroad, to representatives of United States press associa-
23 tions, newspapers, magazines, radio and television systems
24 and stations, research students and scholars, and Mem-
25 bers of Congress.”.

1 Section 208 of Public Law 99–93 (22 U.S.C. 1461– 2 1a), is amended by adding the following sentence at the 3 end of such section: “Nothing herein shall preclude the 4 United States Information Agency from reasonably keep-
5 ing the United States public informed of its operations,
6 policies or programs.”.

7 SEC. 107. Section 802(b)(3) of the United States In-8 formation and Educational Exchange Act of 1948, as 9 amended, (22 U.S.C. 1472(b)(3)) is amended by adding 10 the following sentence at the end thereof: “However, not-11 withstanding this or any other provision in this section, 12 the United States Information Agency is authorized to 13 enter into contracts not to exceed seven years for circuit
14 capacity to distribute radio and television programs.”.

3 the following language: “international organization of 4 which the United States is a member, or”.

5 SEC. 110. The Immigration and Nationality Act, as 6 amended, is amended by adding the following new section
7 after section 216A (8 U.S.C. 1186b):

8 “CONDITIONAL PERMANENT RESIDENT STATUS FOR CER-
9 TAIN UNITED STATES INFORMATION AGENCY EM-
10 PLOYEES

11 “SEC. 216B. (a) CONDITIONAL BASIS FOR ADMIS-
12 SION.—Conditional immigrant visas may be issued to em-
13 ployees of the United States Information Agency begin-
14 ning fiscal year 1994 in a number not to exceed one hun-
15 dred per fiscal year. Upon enactment, one hundred and 16 fifty additional visas shall be available to present United 17 States Information Agency employees. Such employees
18 shall be identified by the Director of the United States
19 Information Agency, and, if otherwise admissible, shall be 20 admitted conditionally for a period not to exceed four 21 years. Spouses and dependent children of such employees
22 may also be admitted as conditional permanent residents
23 but shall not be subject to numerical limitation.

24 “(b) REMOVAL OF CONDITIONAL BASIS.—Persons
25 admitted under this provision shall be eligible for removal
26 of the conditional basis of their admission for permanent

1 resident status after three years, upon certification by the 2 Director of the United States Information Agency to the 3 Attorney General; the Attorney General shall remove the 4 conditional basis of his or her admission, if the alien is 5 otherwise admissible, effective as of the date of such cer-
6 tification.

7 “(c) TERMINATION OF THE STATUS.—At any time
8 during such four year period, the Director of the United 9 States Information Agency may certify to the Attorney 10 General that such conditional status with respect to any 11 alien should be terminated. Upon receipt of such notice, 12 the Attorney General shall terminate such status and the 13 alien and any other family members admitted with such 14 alien shall be subject to deportation proceedings. The con-
15 ditional status of any such alien, admitted under this pro-
16 vision who has not had the conditional basis of his or her
17 admission removed by a date four years after such admis-
18 sion, shall be deemed to have been terminated.”.
