

Calendar No. 604

103<sup>D</sup> CONGRESS
2<sup>D</sup> SESSION

S. 922

[Report No. 103-361]

---

---

A BILL

To provide that a State court may not modify an order of another State court requiring the payment of child support unless the recipient of child support payments resides in the State in which the modification is sought or consents to the seeking of the modification in that court.

---

---

AUGUST 25 (legislative day, AUGUST 18), 1994

Reported with an amendment

Calendar No. 604103<sup>D</sup> CONGRESS
2<sup>D</sup> SESSIONS. 922*[Report No. 103-361]

To provide that a State court may not modify an order of another State court requiring the payment of child support unless the recipient of child support payments resides in the State in which the modification is sought or consents to the seeking of the modification in that court.

---

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MAY 6 (legislative day, APRIL 19), 1993

Ms. MOSELEY-BRAUN (for herself, Mr. LEVIN, Mr. SHELBY, Mrs. FEINSTEIN, and Mr. BROWN) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

AUGUST 25 (legislative day, AUGUST 18), 1994

Reported by Mr. BIDEN, with an amendment

[Strike out all after the enacting clause and insert the part printed in italic]

---

A BILL

To provide that a State court may not modify an order of another State court requiring the payment of child support unless the recipient of child support payments resides in the State in which the modification is sought or consents to the seeking of the modification in that court.

1        Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4        This Act may be cited as the “Full Faith and Credit
5 for Child Support Orders Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSES.

7        ~~(a) FINDINGS.~~—The Congress finds that—

8            (1) there is a large and growing number of 9 child support cases annually involving disputes be-
10 tween parents who reside in different States;

11            (2) the laws by which the courts of different ju-
12 risdictions determine their authority to establish
13 child support orders are not uniform;

14            (3) those laws, along with the limits imposed by
15 the Federal system on the authority of each State to
16 take certain actions outside its own boundaries—

17            ~~(A)~~ encourage noncustodial parents to relo-
18 cate outside the States where their children and
19 the custodial parents reside to avoid the juris-
20 diction of the courts of such States, resulting in 21 an increase in the amount of interstate travel
22 and communication required to establish and 23 collect on child support orders and a burden on 24 custodial parents that is expensive, time con-

1 suming, and disruptive of occupations and com-
2 mercial activity;

3 (B) contribute to the pressing problem of
4 relatively low levels of child support payments
5 in interstate cases and to inequities in child
6 support payments levels that are based solely on 7 the noncustodial parent's choice of residence;

8 (C) encourage a disregard of court orders
9 resulting in massive arrearages nationwide;

10 (D) allow noncustodial parents to avoid the
11 payment of regularly scheduled child support
12 payments for extensive periods of time, result-
13 ing in substantial hardship for the children for 14 whom support is due and for their custodians;
15 and

16 (E) lead to the excessive relitigation of 17 cases and to the establishment of conflicting or-
18 ders by the courts of various jurisdictions, re-
19 sulting in confusion, waste of judicial resources,
20 disrespect for the courts, and a diminution of 21 public confidence in the rule of law; and

22 (4) among the results of the conditions de-
23 scribed in this subsection are—

1           (A) the failure of the courts of the States
2           to give full faith and credit to the judicial pro-
3           ceedings of the other States;

4           (B) the deprivation of rights of liberty and
5           property without due process of law;

6           (C) burdens on commerce among the 7           States; and

8           (D) harm to the welfare of children and
9           their parents and other custodians.

10       (b) STATEMENT OF POLICY.—In view of the findings
11       made in subsection (a), it is necessary to establish national
12       standards under which the courts of the various States
13       shall determine their jurisdiction to issue a child support
14       order and the effect to be given by each State to child
15       support orders issued by the courts of other States.

16       (c) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this Act are—

17           (1) to facilitate the enforcement of child sup-
18           port orders among the States;

19           (2) to discourage continuing interstate con-
20           troversies over child support in the interest of great-
21           er financial stability and secure family relationships
22           for the child; and

23           (3) to avoid jurisdictional competition and con-
24           flict among State courts in the establishment of 25           child support orders.

1 SEC. 3. FULL FAITH AND CREDIT FOR CHILD SUPPORT
 2 ORDERS.

3 (a) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 115 of title 28, United
 4 States Code, is amended by inserting after section 1738A
 5 the following new section:

6 “§1738B. Full faith and credit for child support
 7 orders

8 “(a) DEFINITIONS.—In this section—

9 “(1) ‘child’ means—

10 “(A) a person under 18 years of age; and

11 “(B) a person 18 or more years of age

12 with respect to whom a child support order has

13 been issued pursuant to the laws of a State;

14 “(2) ‘child’s State’ means the State in which a
 15 child resides;

16 “(3) ‘child support’ means a payment of money,
 17 continuing support, or arrearages or the provision of 18 a benefit (including health insurance) for the sup-
 19 port of a child;

20 “(4) ‘child support order’—

21 “(A) means a judgment, decree, or order
 22 of a court requiring the payment of child sup-
 23 port in periodic amounts or in a lump sum; and

24 “(B) includes—

25 “(i) a permanent or temporary order;

26 and

1                   “(ii) an initial order or a modification
2                   of an order;

3                   ~~“(5) ‘contestant’ means—~~

4                   ~~“(A) a person (including a parent) who—~~
5                   ~~“(i) claims a right to receive child~~
6                   ~~support;~~

7                   ~~“(ii) is a party to a proceeding that~~
8                   ~~may result in the issuance of a child sup-~~
9                   ~~port order; or~~

10                  ~~“(iii) is under a child support order;~~
11                  and

12                  ~~“(B) a State or political subdivision of a~~
13                  ~~State to which the right to obtain a child sup-~~
14                  ~~port order has been assigned;~~

15                  ~~“(6) ‘court’ means a court, administrative proc-~~
16                  ~~ess, or quasi-judicial process of a State that is au-~~
17                  ~~thorized by State law to establish the amount of~~ 18                  ~~child support payable by a contestant or make a~~
19                  ~~modification of a child support order;~~

20                  ~~“(7) ‘modification’ means a change in a child~~
21                  ~~support order that affects the amount, scope, or du-~~ 22                  ~~ration of the order and modifies, replaces, super-~~
23                  ~~sedes, or otherwise is made subsequent to the child~~ 24                  ~~support order; and~~

1           ~~“(8) ‘State’ means a State of the United~~
2           ~~States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth~~
3           ~~of Puerto Rico, the territories and possessions of the~~ 4           ~~United States, and Indian country (as defined in~~ 5           ~~section 1151 of title 18).~~

6           ~~“(b) GENERAL RULE.—The appropriate authorities~~
7           ~~of each State—~~

8                   ~~“(1) shall enforce according to its terms a child~~
9                   ~~support order made consistently with this section by~~
10                  ~~a court of another State; and~~

11                  ~~“(2) shall not seek or make a modification of~~
12                  ~~such an order except in accordance with subsection~~
13                  ~~(e).~~

14           ~~“(c) REQUIREMENTS OF CHILD SUPPORT ORDERS.—~~
15           ~~A child support order made is made consistently with this~~ 16           ~~section if—~~

17                   ~~“(1) a court that makes the order, pursuant to~~
18                   ~~the laws of the State in which the court is located—~~

19                           ~~“(A) has subject matter jurisdiction to~~ 20                           ~~hear the matter and enter such an order; and~~

21                           ~~“(B) has personal jurisdiction over the~~ 22                           ~~contestants; and~~

23                   ~~“(2) reasonable notice and opportunity to be~~
24           ~~heard is given to the contestants.~~

1       “(d) CONTINUING JURISDICTION.—A court of a
2 State that has made a child support order consistently
3 with this section has continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over
4 the order if the State is the child’s State or the residence
5 of any contestant unless the court of another State, acting
6 in accordance with subsection (e), has made a modification
7 of the order.

8       “(e) AUTHORITY TO MODIFY ORDERS.—A court of 9 a State may make a modification of a child support order
10 with respect to a child that is made by a court of another
11 State if—

12           “(1) the court has jurisdiction to make such a
13 child support order; and

14           “(2)(A) the court of the other State no longer
15 has continuing, exclusive jurisdiction of the child
16 support order because that State no longer is the 17 child’s State or the residence of any contestant; or

18           “(B) each contestant has filed written consent
19 to that court’s making the modification and assum-
20 ing continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over the order.

21       “(f) ENFORCEMENT OF PRIOR ORDERS.—A court of
22 a State that no longer has continuing, exclusive jurisdic-
23 tion of a child support order may enforce the order with 24 respect to unsatisfied obligations that accrued before the

1 date on which a modification of the order is made under
2 subsection (e).”.

3 ~~(b) TECHNICAL AMENDMENT.—The chapter analysis~~
4 ~~for chapter 115 of title 28, United States Code, is amend-~~
5 ~~ed by inserting after the item relating to section 1738A~~
6 ~~the following new item:~~

“1738B. Full faith and credit for child support orders.”

7 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

8 This Act may be cited as the “Full Faith and Credit
9 for Child Support Orders Act”.

10 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSES.

11 (a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds that—

12 (1) there is a large and growing number of child
13 support cases annually involving disputes between
14 parents who reside in different States;

15 (2) the laws by which the courts of different ju-
16 risdictions determine their authority to establish child
17 support orders are not uniform;

18 (3) those laws, along with the limits imposed by
19 the Federal system on the authority of each State to
20 take certain actions outside its own boundaries—

21 (A) encourage noncustodial parents to relo-
22 cate outside the States where their children and
23 the custodial parents reside to avoid the jurisdic-
24 tion of the courts of such States, resulting in an 25 increase in the amount of interstate travel and

1           communication required to establish and collect
2           on child support orders and a burden on custo-
3           dial parents that is expensive, time consuming,
4           and disruptive of occupations and commercial
5           activity;

6           (B) contribute to the pressing problem of
7           relatively low levels of child support payments in 8           interstate cases and to inequities in child sup-
9           port payments levels that are based solely on the 10          noncustodial parent's choice of residence;

11          (C) encourage a disregard of court orders
12          resulting in massive arrearages nationwide;

13          (D) allow noncustodial parents to avoid the
14          payment of regularly scheduled child support
15          payments for extensive periods of time, resulting 16          in substantial hardship for the children for
17          whom support is due and for their custodians;
18          and

19          (E) lead to the excessive relitigation of cases
20          and to the establishment of conflicting orders by 21          the courts of various jurisdictions, resulting in
22          confusion, waste of judicial resources, disrespect
23          for the courts, and a diminution of public con-
24          fidence in the rule of law; and

1           (4) among the results of the conditions described
2           in this subsection are—

3                   (A) the failure of the courts of the States to 4                   give full faith and credit to the judicial proceed-
5                   ings of the other States;

6                   (B) the deprivation of rights of liberty and
7                   property without due process of law;

8                   (C) burdens on commerce among the States;
9                   and

10                   (D) harm to the welfare of children and
11                   their parents and other custodians.

12           (b) STATEMENT OF POLICY.—In view of the findings
13           made in subsection (a), it is necessary to establish national 14           standards under which the courts of the various States shall 15           determine their jurisdiction to issue a child support order
16           and the effect to be given by each State to child support
17           orders issued by the courts of other States.

18           (c) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this Act are—

19                   (1) to facilitate the enforcement of child support
20                   orders among the States;

21                   (2) to discourage continuing interstate controver-
22                   sies over child support in the interest of greater finan-23                   cial stability and secure family relationships for the 24                   child; and

1           (3) to avoid jurisdictional competition and con-
2           flict among State courts in the establishment of child
3           support orders.

4   SEC. 3. FULL FAITH AND CREDIT FOR CHILD SUPPORT
5                           ORDERS.

6           (a) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 115 of title 28, United
7   States Code, is amended by inserting after section 1738A
8   the following new section:

9   “§ 1738B. Full faith and credit for child support or-
10                           ders

11           “(a) GENERAL RULE.—The appropriate authorities of 12   each State—

13                   “(1) shall enforce according to its terms a child
14   support order made consistently with this section by
15   a court of another State; and

16                   “(2) shall not seek or make a modification of
17   such an order except in accordance with subsection
18   (e).

19           “(b) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

20                   “‘child’ means—

21                           “(A) a person under 18 years of age; and

22                           “(B) a person 18 or more years of age with 23   respect to whom a child support order has been 24   issued pursuant to the laws of a State.

1           “‘child’s State’ means the State in which a child
2 resides.

3           “‘child support’ means a payment of money,
4 continuing support, or arrearages or the provision of
5 a benefit (including payment of health insurance,
6 child care, and educational expenses) for the support
7 of a child.

8           “‘child support order’—

9           “(A) means a judgment, decree, or order of 10 a court requiring the payment of child support
11 in periodic amounts or in a lump sum; and

12           “(B) includes—

13           “(i) a permanent or temporary order;
14 and

15           “(ii) an initial order or a modification
16 of an order.

17           “‘contestant’ means—

18           “(A) a person (including a parent) who—

19           “(i) claims a right to receive child sup-
20 port;

21           “(ii) is a party to a proceeding that
22 may result in the issuance of a child sup-
23 port order; or

24           “(iii) is under a child support order;
25 and

1           “(B) a State or political subdivision of a
2           State to which the right to obtain child support
3           has been assigned.

4           “‘court’ means a court or administrative agency
5           of a State that is authorized by State law to establish 6           the amount of child support payable by a contestant
7           or make a modification of a child support order.

8           “‘modification’ means a change in a child sup-
9           port order that affects the amount, scope, or duration
10          of the order and modifies, replaces, supersedes, or oth-
11          erwise is made subsequent to the child support order.

12          “‘State’ means a State of the United States, the 13          District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto 14          Rico, the territories and possessions of the United 15          States, and Indian country (as defined in section 16          1151 of title 18).

17          “(c) REQUIREMENTS OF CHILD SUPPORT ORDERS.—
18          A child support order made is made consistently with this
19          section if—

20                 “(1) a court that makes the order, pursuant to
21                 the laws of the State in which the court is located—

22                         “(A) has subject matter jurisdiction to hear 23                         the matter and enter such an order; and

24                         “(B) has personal jurisdiction over the con-25                         testants; and

1           “(2) reasonable notice and opportunity to be
2           heard is given to the contestants.

3           “(d) CONTINUING JURISDICTION.—A court of a State
4           that has made a child support order consistently with this
5           section has continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over the order
6           if the State is the child’s State or the residence of any con-
7           testant unless the court of another State, acting in accord-
8           ance with subsection (e), has made a modification of the 9           order.

10          “(e) AUTHORITY TO MODIFY ORDERS.—A court of a
11          State may make a modification of a child support order
12          with respect to a child that is made by a court of another
13          State if—

14                 “(1) the court has jurisdiction to make such a
15                 child support order; and

16                 “(2)(A) the court of the other State no longer has 17                 continuing, exclusive jurisdiction of the child support
18                 order because that State no longer is the child’s State 19                 or the residence of any contestant; or

20                 “(B) each contestant has filed written consent to 21                 that court’s making the modification and assuming 22                 continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over the order.

23          “(f) ENFORCEMENT OF PRIOR ORDERS.—A court of 24          a State that no longer has continuing, exclusive jurisdiction
25          of a child support order may enforce the order with respect

1 to nonmodifiable obligations and unsatisfied obligations
2 that accrued before the date on which a modification of the 3 order is made under subsection (e).

4 “(g) CHOICE OF LAW.—

5 “(1) IN GENERAL.—In a proceeding to establish,
6 modify, or enforce a child support order, the forum
7 State’s law shall apply except as provided in para-
8 graphs (2) and (3).

9 “(2) LAW OF STATE OF ISSUANCE OF ORDER.—

10 In interpreting a child support order, a court shall 11 apply the law of the State of the court that issued the 12 order.

13 “(3) PERIOD OF LIMITATION.—In an action to 14 enforce a child support order, a court shall apply the 15 statute of limitation of the forum State or the State
16 of the court that issued the order, whichever statute
17 provides the longer period of limitation.”.

18 (b) TECHNICAL AMENDMENT.—The chapter analysis
19 for chapter 115 of title 28, United States Code, is amended
20 by inserting after the item relating to section 1738A the 21 following new item:

“1738B. Full faith and credit for child support orders.”.

S 922 RS—2