

103^D CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. J. RES. 116

Designating January 16, 1994, as “National Good Teen Day”.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JULY 22 (legislative day, JUNE 30), 1993

Mr. GLENN introduced the following joint resolution; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

JOINT RESOLUTION

Designating January 16, 1994, as “National Good Teen Day”.

Whereas Salem City Schools in Salem, Ohio, proclaimed January 16, 1992, as “Good Teen Day”;

Whereas there are more than 24,000,000 teenagers in the United States according to the 1990 Census;

Whereas our Nation’s teenagers represent an important part of our society, and the many physical and emotional changes and character-building experiences which teenagers go through are an important concern;

Whereas it is easy to stereotype teenagers as either those who have problems or those who excel;

Whereas teenagers should not simply be recognized for their intelligence, abilities, skills, and talents, but rather for the good which is inherent in all human beings;

Whereas as unique individuals, teenagers are encouraged to esteem the good as well as the potential that is within each of them;

Whereas a day should be created to focus on the positive qualities in America's youth; and

Whereas teenagers are the future of this great country: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 That January 16, 1994, is designated as "National Good
4 Teen Day". The President is authorized and requested to 5 issue a proclamation calling on the people of the United
6 States to observe such day by recognizing the teenagers
7 of the United States and by participating in appropriate
8 ceremonies and activities.
