RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the Senate commemorating the bombing of Pan Am Flight 103.

Whereas two hundred and fifty-nine passengers and crew members of Pan American Airways Flight 103 and eleven persons on the ground in Lockerbie, Scotland, were killed by a terrorist bomb on December 21, 1988;

Whereas one hundred and eighty-nine Americans were victims of this heinous attack along with citizens from twenty other nations;

Whereas this was effectively an attack on the United States and on all nations which support the rule of law;

Whereas the families and friends of the victims of this outrageous and criminal act have suffered an incalculable loss and have worked actively to diminish the possibility of future attacks;

Whereas, on December 21, 1993, five years will have passed without the terrorists who murdered the passengers and crew of Pan Am Flight 103 being brought to justice;

Whereas the United States must never forget the victims of this crime nor weaken in its resolve to bring their murderers to justice; and

Whereas it is appropriate and fitting that the United States set aside a day to commemorate the bombing of Pan Am Flight 103 as an act of remembrance for the victims, an expression of solidarity with their loved ones and a token of the abiding United States commitment to obtain justice for their murderers: Now, therefore, be it

1       Resolved, That December 21, 1993, is designated a
2 “Fifth Anniversary Day of Remembrance for the Victims
3 of the Bombing of Pan Am Flight 103”, and the President

5 upon the people of the United States to observe this day
6 with appropriate ceremonies.
