S. RES. 181

To authorize testimony of a Senate employee.

---

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

FEBRUARY 10 (legislative day, JANUARY 25), 1994

Mr. FORD (for Mr. MITCHELL) (for himself and Mr. DOLE) submitted the following resolution; which was considered and agreed to

RESOLUTION

To authorize testimony of a Senate employee.

Whereas in the case of United States v. Eduardo Lopez Ballori, Cr. No. 91-380(GG), which was tried in the United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico in 1992, the United States obtained the trial testimony of Claudia Breggia, a Senate employee;

Whereas by the privileges of the Senate of the United States and rule XI of the Standing Rules of the Senate, no evidence under the control or in the possession of the Senate can, by administrative or judicial process, be taken from such control or possession but by permission of the Senate;

Whereas when it appears that evidence under the control or in the possession of the Senate is needed for the promotion of justice, the Senate will take such action as will promote the ends of justice consistent with the privileges of the Senate; and

Whereas pursuant to section 130b(e)(1) of title II, United States Code, the Senate's authorization of testimony is required in order for witness travel expenses to be reimbursable: Now, therefore, be it

- 1       Resolved, That the testimony of Claudia Breggia in
- 2 United States v. Eduardo Lopez Ballori, Cr. No. 91-
- 3 380(GG) is deemed authorized.
