

H. Res. 156

In the House of Representatives, U.S.,

June 7, 1995.

Resolved, That when the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union resumes consideration of H.R. 1561 pursuant to House Resolution 155, consideration for amendment under the five-minute rule may continue beyond the initial period of ten hours prescribed in House Resolution 155 for an additional period of six further hours. Consideration for amendment may not continue beyond such additional period. During further consideration for amendment only the following further amendments to the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute, as modified and amended, shall be in order—

(1) pro forma amendments for the purpose of debate;

(2) amendments printed before May 25, 1995, in the portion of the Congressional Record designated for that purpose in clause 6 of rule XXIII;

(3) amendments en bloc described in section 2 of House Resolution 155, but only if consisting solely of amendments so printed before May 25, 1995, in the portion of the Congressional Record designated for that purpose in clause 6 of rule XXIII or germane modifications of any such amendment; and

(4) one amendment offered by the chairman of the Committee on International Relations after consultation with the ranking minority member of that Committee.

Attest:
