S. 1638

To promote peace and security in South Asia.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MARCH 21, 1996

Mr. PRESSLER (for himself, Mr. GLENN, Mr. D'AMATO, Mr. KERREY, Mr. BENNETT, and Mrs. FEINSTEIN) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

A BILL

To promote peace and security in South Asia.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. PROMOTION OF PEACE AND SECURITY IN
4 SOUTH ASIA.

5 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following find-
6 ings:

7 (1) The American people fervently desire that
8 all the peoples of South Asia enjoy peace and share
9 an increased sense of security.

10 (2) The peace and security of South Asia are 11 threatened by an arms race, particularly the spread

1 of weapons of mass destruction and their modern
2 delivery systems.

3 (3) Congress has granted both a one-time ex-
4 ception to and partial repeal of United States nu-
5 clear nonproliferation laws in order to permit the
6 Government of Pakistan to receive certain United
7 States military equipment and training and limited
8 economic aid.

9 (4) The exception and partial repeal was based
10 on direct assurances to the United States Govern-
11 ment that “there will be no significant change on 12 nuclear and missile nonproliferation issues of con-
13 cern to the United States”.

14 (5) The Director of Central Intelligence has in-
15 formed Congress that Pakistan has taken recent de-
16 livery of “nuclear technology” and “M-11 missiles”
17 from the People’s Republic of China.

18 (6) The justification for the exception to and
19 partial repeal of United States nonproliferation laws
20 is no longer valid.

21 (b) REPEAL.—Section 620E of the Foreign Assist-
22 ance Act of 1961 (22 U.S.C. 2375) is amended to read
23 as if the amendments made to such section by section 559
24 of the Foreign Operations, Export Financing, and Related

1 Programs Appropriations Act, 1996 (Public Law 104–
2 107) had not been made.
