

105TH CONGRESS
2^D SESSION

H. CON. RES. 349

Expressing the sense of Congress that the United States strongly supports any assistance that can be provided to the Government and people of Turkmenistan to build pipelines or take any other measures that will lead to the resumption of natural gas exports.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

OCTOBER 10, 1998

Mr. TOWNS submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on International Relations

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of Congress that the United States strongly supports any assistance that can be provided to the Government and people of Turkmenistan to build pipelines or take any other measures that will lead to the resumption of natural gas exports.

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That it is the sense of Congress that the
3 United States strongly supports any assistance that can
4 be provided to the Government and people of
5 Turkmenistan to build pipelines or take any other meas-
6 ures that will lead to the resumption of natural gas ex-
7 ports, particularly measures involving United States busi-

1 nesses, thereby leading to improvement of the economy
2 and infrastructure of Turkmenistan, the standard of living
3 of the people of Turkmenistan, and the promotion of de-
4 mocratization and economic and political stability in the 5 region.
