A BILL

To establish an Office of Religious Persecution Monitoring, to provide for the imposition of sanctions against countries engaged in a pattern of religious persecution, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Freedom From Reli-
5 gious Persecution Act of 1998”.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.

2 (a) FINDINGS.—The Congress makes the following
3 findings:

4 (1) Governments have a primary responsibility
5 to promote, encourage, and protect respect for the 6 fundamental and internationally recognized right to 7 freedom of religion.

8 (2)(A) Since its inception, the United States
9 Government has rested upon certain founding prin-10 ciples. One of those principles is that all people have 11 the inalienable right to worship freely, which de-
12 mands that religion be protected from unnecessary 13 government intervention. The Founding Fathers of 14 the United States incorporated that principle in the 15 Declaration of Independence, which states that man-16 kind has the inalienable right to “life, liberty, and 17 the pursuit of happiness”, and in the United States
18 Constitution, the first amendment to which states
19 that “Congress shall make no law respecting an es-
20 tablishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exer-
21 cise thereof”. Therefore, in accordance with this be-22 lief in the inalienable right of freedom of religion for 23 all people, as expressed by the Declaration of Inde-
24 pendence, and the belief that religion should be pro-
25 tected from government interference, as expressed 26 by the United States Constitution, the Congress op-

1 poses international religious persecution and believes
2 that the policies of the United States Government 3 and its relations with foreign governments should be 4 consistent with the commitment to this principle.

5 (B) Numerous international agreements and 6 covenants also identify mankind's inherent right to 7 freedom of religion. These include the following:

8 (i) Article 18 of the Universal Declaration 9 of Human Rights states that "Everyone has the 10 right to freedom of thought, conscience and re-11 ligious; this right includes freedom to change his 12 religion or belief, and freedom, either alone or 13 in community with others and in public or pri-
14 vate, to manifest his religion or belief in teach-15 ing, practice, worship and observance".

16 (ii) Article 18 of the Covenant on Civil and 17 Political Rights declares that "Everyone shall 18 have the right to freedom of thought, con-
19 science, and religion . . ." and further delin-
20 eates the privileges under this right.

21 (iii) The Declaration on the Elimination of 22 All Forms of Intolerance and of Discrimination
23 Based on Religion and Belief, adopted by the 24 United Nations General Assembly on November 25 25, 1981, declares that "religion or belief, for

1            anyone who professes either, is one of the fun-
2            damental elements in his conception of 3            life . . .” and that “freedom of religion and be-4            lief should also contribute to the attainment of 5            the goals of world peace, social justice and 6            friendship among peoples and to the elimination
7            of ideologies or practices of colonialism and ra-8            cial discrimination”.

9            (iv) The Concluding Document of the 10           Third Follow-Up Meeting of the Organization
11           for Security and Cooperation in Europe com-
12           mits states to “ensure in their laws and regula-13           tions and in their application the full and effec-
14           tive exercise of the freedom of thought, con-
15           science, religion or belief”.

16           (3) Persecution of religious believers, particu-
17           larly Roman Catholic and evangelical Protestant 18           Christians, in Communist countries persists and in 19           some cases is increasing.

20           (4) In many countries and regions thereof, gov-21           ernments dominated by extremist movements per-22           secute non-Muslims and religious converts from 23           Islam using means such as “blasphemy” and “apos-24           tasy” laws, and such movements seek to corrupt a 25           historically tolerant Islamic faith and culture

1 through the persecution of Baha'is, Christians, and 2 other religious minorities.

3 (5) The extremist Government of Sudan is wag-
4 ing a self-described religious war against Christians, 5 other non-Muslims, and moderate Muslims by using 6 torture, starvation, enslavement, and murder.

7 (6) In Tibet, where Tibetan Buddhism is inex-
8 tricably linked to the Tibetan identity, the Govern-
9 ment of the People's Republic of China has intensi-
10 fied its control over the Tibetan people by interfer-
11 ing in the selection of the Panchen Lama, propa-12 gandizing against the religious authority of the 13 Dalai Lama, restricting religious study and tradi-
14 tional religious practices, and increasing the persecu-
15 tion of monks and nuns.

16 (7) In Xinjiang Autonomous Region of China,
17 formerly the independent republic of East Turkistan, 18 where the Muslim religion is inextricably linked to 19 the dominant Uyghur culture, the Government of 20 the People's Republic of China has intensified its 21 control over the Uyghur people by systematically re-22 pressing religious authority, restricting religious 23 study and traditional practices, destroying mosques,
24 and increasing the persecution of religious clergy
25 and practitioners.

1           (8) In countries around the world, Christians,
2           Jews, Muslims, Hindus, and other religious believers
3           continue to be persecuted on account of their reli-
4           gious beliefs, practices, and affiliations.

5           (9) The 104th Congress recognized the facts set 6           forth in this section and stated clearly the sense of 7           the Senate and the House of Representatives regard-8           ing these matters in approving—

9                   (A) House Resolution 515, expressing the 10                  sense of the House of Representatives with re-
11                  spect to the persecution of Christians world-
12                  wide;

13                   (B) S. Con. Res. 71, expressing the sense 14                  of the Senate with respect to the persecution of 15                  Christians worldwide;

16                   (C) H. Con. Res. 102, concerning the 17                  emancipation of the Iranian Baha'i community;
18                  and

19                   (D) section 1303 of H.R. 1561, the For-20                  eign Relations Authorization Act, Fiscal Years
21                  1996 and 1997.

22           (10) The Department of State, in a report to 23           Congress filed pursuant to House Report 104–863,
24           accompanying the Omnibus Consolidated Appropria-
25           tions Act, 1997 (Public Law 104–208) set forth

13       intention to enter into such an agreement, and 19       a copy of the final text of such agreement, to-20       gether with—

21           (i) a description of any administrative 22       action proposed to implement such agree-23       ment and an explanation as to how the 4 interest of United States foreign pol-

12 Appropriations Act, 1985 (as contained in Pub-13 lic Law 98–473 (98 Stat. 1936)), within 30 14 days of transmittal of such document to the

7 (1) UNITED STATES POLICY TO END RELIGIOUS 8 PERSECUTION.—It shall be the policy of the United 9 States to impose additional measures against the
