

H. Res. 590

In the House of Representatives, U.S.,

October 10, 1998.

Whereas 13-year-old Hunter Scott of Cantonment, Florida, has received international recognition for his efforts to honor the memory of the captain and crew of the U.S.S. INDIANAPOLIS, which sank in the Pacific Ocean during the final days of World War II;

Whereas Hunter Scott has spent the past two years seeking recognition for the crew of the U.S.S. INDIANAPOLIS, many of whom perished as a result of shark attacks and exposure after being stranded in the water for four days;

Whereas Hunter Scott's extensive work is the subject of legislation before this Congress, supported by Democrats and Republicans alike;

Whereas Hunter Scott's work ethic, love of country, and strength of character serve as a shining example to the young people of the United States; and

Whereas Hunter Scott has helped the crew of the U.S.S. INDIANAPOLIS receive international recognition from the New York Times, USA Today, the Associated Press, CBS, Nickelodeon, and other print and broadcast media: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives recognizes and honors Hunter Scott for his efforts to honor the memory of the captain and crew of the U.S.S. INDIANAPOLIS and for the outstanding example he has set for the young people of the United States.

Attest:

Clerk.
