7 tions, administrative positions, and political em-
8 ployees.

9 (2) PROGRAM OPERATING UNITS.—

10 (A) There shall be an adequate number of 11 agencies and subdepartment bureaus, offices,
12 divisions, and other operating units having pri-
13 mary responsibility for program administration
14 and service delivery, as distinguished from pol-

1 (C) The Commission shall consider, and rec-
2 ommend where appropriate, the consolidation of pro-

20 Commission shall consider whether substantial cost 21 savings and improved performance would result from 22 the centralization within one organization of primary
23 responsibility for particular government-wide admin-
24 istrative functions, and make appropriate rec-
25 ommendations in that regard.

1 (b) STRUCTURAL ARRANGEMENTS.—

2 (1) RECOMMENDATIONS.—The Commission
3 shall recommend structural arrangements of respon-
4 sibility and authority between and within the various 5 departments, agencies, and program operating units
6 in order to maximize accountability for performance.

8 shall seek to clarify appropriate accountability for 9 policy development and for program administration
10 and service delivery.

11 (3) CONSIDERATIONS.—Among the alternatives
12 considered by the Commission shall be whether the 13 heads of program operating units described under 14 paragraph (a)(2) should be non-political, non-career

16 ployment contract with specific, measurable program
17 performance goals.

18 (c) TRANSITION PLAN.—The Commission shall rec-
