

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Whereas the Forest Service is developing a national policy to guide its management of existing and proposed shooting and archery ranges on national forest land;

Whereas when managed appropriately, firearm and archery sports are a legitimate use of national forest land;

Whereas the Forest Service has proceeded with closure actions of recreational shooting ranges on Forest Service land without prior notification to Congress or the general public;

Whereas on March 10, 1997, the Forest Service suspended the special-use permit of the Tucson Rod and Gun Club located in the Coronado National Forest near Tucson, Arizona; and

Whereas the Forest Service is evaluating alternative sites in the Coronado National Forest that could be used by the Tucson Rod and Gun Club for firearm and archery sports, the Secretary of Agriculture has directed the expeditious completion of the environmental assessment, and the Forest Service has committed to notify Congress of its decision by November 20, 1998: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives 2 concurring),

1 SECTION 1. SENSE OF CONGRESS REGARDING PUBLIC REC-
2 REATIONAL AND MULTI-PURPOSE USE OF
3 UNITED STATES FOREST SERVICE LAND.

4 It is the sense of Congress that—

5 (1) the Forest Service should not close shooting
6 or archery facilities without prior notification to 7 Congress and the general public unless there is an 8 immediate threat to public safety;

9 (2) notification to Congress of any plan for clo-
10 sure of a shooting or archery facility should include
11 the reasons for the closure, including any potential
12 for imminent public safety endangerment;

13 (3) the Forest Service should avoid unreason-
14 able restrictions in the issuance of special-use per-
15 mits for firearm and archery sports facilities;

16 (4) the Forest Service should fully evaluate al-
17 ternative sites in the Coronado National Forest and 18 provide, to the extent consistent with the environ-
19 mental assessment, a reasonable alternative that
20 would allow the Tucson Rod and Gun Club to quick-
21 ly open a safe facility for firearm and archery
22 sports; and

1 (5) the Forest Service should adhere to its
2 deadline of November 20, 1998, for a decision on a
3 site for the Tucson Rod and Gun Club.

 Passed the Senate October 12 (legislative day, October 2), 1998.

Attest:

Secretary.
