

106TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

S. 2112

To provide housing assistance to domestic violence victims.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

FEBRUARY 28, 2000

Mr. TORRICELLI (for himself, Mr. JEFFORDS, Mrs. MURRAY, Mr. KERRY, and Ms. LANDRIEU) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs

A BILL

To provide housing assistance to domestic violence victims.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Domestic Violence and 5 Sexual Assault Victims’ Housing Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds as follows:

8 (1) Housing can prevent domestic violence and 9 mitigate its effects. The connection between domes-
10 tic violence and housing is overwhelming. Of all

1 homeless women and children, 50 percent are fleeing 2 domestic violence.

3 (2) Among cities surveyed, 44 percent identified
4 domestic violence as a primary cause of homeless-
5 ness.

6 (3) Women's poverty levels aggravate the prob-
7 lems of homelessness and domestic violence. Two out
8 of three poor adults are women. Female-headed 9 households are six times poorer than male-headed 10 households. In 1996, of the 7,700,000 poor families
11 in the country, 4,100,000 of them were single fe-
12 male-headed households. In addition, 5,100,000 poor 13 women who are not in families are poor.

14 (4) Almost 50 percent of the women who re-
15 ceive Temporary Assistance to Needy Families funds 16 cite domestic violence as a factor in the need for as-17 sistance.

18 (5) Many women who flee violence are forced to 19 return to their abusers because of inadequate shelter
20 or lack of money. Even if they leave their abusers 21 to go to a shelter, they often return home because 22 the isolation from familiar surroundings, friends, 23 and neighborhood resources makes them feel even 24 more vulnerable. Shelters and transitional housing
25 facilities are often located far from a domestic vio-

1 lence victim's neighborhood. While this placement
2 may be deliberate to protect domestic violence vic-
3 tims from their abusers, it can also be intimidating
4 and alienating for a woman to leave her home, com-5 munity, cultural support system, and all that she 6 knows for shelter way across town. Thus, women of 7 color and immigrant women are less likely to become 8 shelter residents.

9 (6) Women who do leave their abusers lack ade-
10 quate emergency shelter options. The overall number 11 of emergency shelter beds for homeless people is es-12 timated to have decreased by an average of 3 per-13 cent in 1997 while requests for shelter increased on 14 the average by 3 percent. Emergency shelters strug-15 gle to meet the increased need for services with 16 about 32 percent of the requests for shelter by 17 homeless families going unmet. In fact 88 percent of 18 cities reported having to turn away homeless families
19 from emergency shelters due to inadequate resources
20 for services.

21 (7) Battered women and their children comprise 22 an increasing proportion of the emergency shelter
23 population. Many emergency shelters have strict 24 time limits that require women to find alternative

1 housing immediately forcing them to separate from 2 their children.

3 (8) A stable, sustainable home base is crucial
4 for women who have left situations of domestic vio-
5 lence and are learning new job skills, participating 6 in educational programs, working full-time jobs, or 7 searching for adequate child care in order to gain 8 self-sufficiency. Transitional housing resources and 9 services provide a continuum between emergency
10 shelter provision and independent living.

11 SEC. 3. AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.

12 For purposes of section 4, the authorization of appro-
13 priations under section 429(a) of the Stewart B. McKin-14 ney Homeless Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. 11389(a)) shall 15 be increased by $50,000,000 for fiscal year 2001 and by 16 such sums as may be necessary for fiscal years 2002
17 through 2005.

18 SEC. 4. USE OF AMOUNTS FOR HOUSING ASSISTANCE FOR 19 VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, STALKING,
20 OR ADULT OR CHILD SEXUAL ASSAULT.

21 (a) IN GENERAL.—The additional amounts to be 22 made available by section 3 under section 429 of the Stew-
23 art B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Act (42 U.S.C.
24 11389) shall be made available by the Secretary only to 25 qualified, nonprofit, nongovernmental organizations (as

1 such term is defined in section 5) only for the purpose 2 of providing supportive housing (as such term is referred 3 to in subchapter IV of part C of the Stewart B. McKinney
4 Homeless Assistance Act (42 U.S.C. 11384)) and tenant-
5 based rental assistance, financial assistance for security
6 deposit, first month's rent, or ongoing rental assistance 7 on behalf of individuals or families victimized by domestic 8 violence, stalking, or adult or child sexual assault (as such 9 terms are defined in section 5) who have left or are leaving 10 a residence as a result of the domestic violence, stalking, 11 or adult or child sexual assault. Each organization shall 12 be required to supplement the assistance provided under 13 this subsection with a 25 percent match of funds for sup-14 portive services (as such term is referred to in subchapter
15 IV of part C of the Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assist-16 ance Act (42 U.S.C. 11385)) from sources other than this 17 subsection. Each organization shall certify to the Sec-
18 retary its compliance with this subsection and shall include 19 with the certification a description of the sources and 20 amounts of such supplemental funds.

21 (b) DETERMINATION.—For purposes of subsection
22 (a), an individual or a family victimized by domestic vio-
23 lence, stalking, or adult or child sexual assault shall be 24 considered to have left or to be leaving a residence as a
25 result of domestic violence, stalking, or adult or child sex-

1 ual assault if the qualified, nonprofit, nongovernmental or-
2 ganization providing support, including tenant-based rent-
3 al assistance, financial assistance for security deposit, first 4 month's rent, or ongoing rental assistance under sub-5 section (a) determines that the individual or member of 6 the family who was a victim of the domestic violence, 7 stalking, or adult or child sexual assault reasonably be-8 lieves that relocation from such residence will assist in 9 avoiding future domestic violence, stalking, or adult or 10 child sexual assault against such individual or another 11 member of the family.

12 (c) ALLOCATION.—Amounts made available pursuant 13 to subsection (a) shall be allocated by the Secretary on 14 the basis of a national competition among the qualified,
15 nonprofit, nongovernmental organizations that submit ap-
16 plications to the Secretary that best demonstrate a need 17 for such assistance, including the extent of service pro-
18 vided to underserved populations as defined in section
19 2003(7) of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets 20 Act of 1968 (42 U.S.C. 3796gg-2(7)) and the ability to 21 undertake and carry out a program under subsection (a),
22 as the Secretary shall determine. Of the total funds appro-23 priated under section 3 in any of the enumerated fiscal 24 years, at least 5 percent shall be used for grants to Indian 25 tribes or Indian tribal organizations that provide emer-

1 gency shelter, transitional housing, or permanent housing
2 or supportive services to individuals or families victimized 3 by domestic violence, stalking, or adult or child sexual as-4 sault and Indian tribes or Indian tribal organizations
5 which receive such grants may apply for and receive other 6 grants from the total funds appropriated under this Act.
7 All other grants awarded shall go to qualified, nonprofit,
8 nongovernmental organizations. If, at the end of the 6th
9 month of any fiscal year for which sums are appropriated 10 under section 3, the amount appropriated has not been 11 made available to a qualified, nonprofit, nongovernmental
12 organization under subsection (a) for purposes outlined
13 therein, the Secretary shall reallocate such amount to quali-
14 fied, nonprofit, nongovernmental organizations that are el-15 igible for funding under subchapter IV of part C of the 16 Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Act (42 U.S.C.
17 11381–11389). Funds made available by the Secretary
18 through reallocation under the preceding sentence shall re-19 main available for expenditure until the end of the fiscal 20 year following the fiscal year in which such funds become 21 available for reallocation.
