A BILL

To authorize the President to award a gold medal on behalf of the Congress to Oskar Schindler and Varian Fry in recognition of their contributions to the Nation and humanity.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. FINDINGS.

4       The Congress makes the following findings:

5               (1) More than 13,000,000 people were killed
6       during the Holocaust, including Jews, Gypsies, Slavs
7       (Poles, Ukrainians, and Belorussians), homosexuals,
8       and the disabled—each exterminated because Adolf

1 Hitler viewed them as “subhuman” to the Aryan
2 race.

3 (2) Nazi persecution, arrests, and deportations
4 were directed against all Jewish families, as well as 5 many others, without concern for age. Innocent men,
6 women, and children faced starvation, illness, brutal
7 labor, and other indignities until they were con-
8 signed to the gas chambers.

9 (3) When Germany invaded Poland in 1939, de-
10 struction began immediately and in a merciless fash-
11 ion. Jews were herded into crowded ghettos, ran-
12 domly beaten, humiliated, and capriciously mur-
13 dered. Jewish property and businesses were sum-
14 marily destroyed, or appropriated by the SS, and 15 sold to Nazi “investors”, one of whom was Oskar
16 Schindler.

17 (4) Oskar Schindler set up a business in an old
18 enamel works factory in Poland. His workforce con-
19 sisted of enslaved Jews from the Krakow Ghetto.
20 Schindler learned of the horrible atrocities com-
21 mitted by Hitler’s regime as he got to know some of 22 the forced workers there. In response, he managed
23 to convince the Nazis that his factory, and more im-
24 portantly, its trained workers, were vital to the Ger-

1 man war effort, thus preventing their deportation to 2 death camps.

3 (5) Oskar Schindler used all of the means at 4 his disposal to ensure the safety of those who
5 worked in his factory. Even his wife Emilie's jewels
6 were sold, to buy food, clothes, and medicine for the 7 workers. A secret sanatorium was set up in the fac-
8 tory with medical equipment purchased on the black
9 market. There, Emilie Schindler looked after the 10 sick and wounded.

11 (6) Even though Oskar Schindler had a large
12 mansion placed at his disposal close to the factory,
13 he spent every night in his office so that he could 14 intervene should the Gestapo pay a visit. He was de-
15 tained by the Gestapo twice, but used his connec-
16 tions to get released.

17 (7) With his own life at stake, Schindler em-
18 ployed all his powers of persuasion. He bribed, 19 fought, and begged to save Jewish men, women, and 20 children from the gas chambers.

21 (8) Oskar Schindler saved the lives of 1,200
22 Jews from deportation to Nazi death camps.

23 (9) On April 28, 1962, Oskar Schindler was 24 named a "Righteous Gentile" by Yad Vashem.

1           (10) Varian Fry, together with a small group of 2 unlikely associates, succeeded in assisting nearly 3 2,000 artists, musicians, writers, scholars, politi-
4 cians, labor leaders, and their families to leave hos-
5 tile territories in France, either legally or illegally.
6 This effort came to be called the “Emergency Res-
7 cue Committee”.

8           (11) Varian Fry offered aid and advice to Jews
9 and antifascist refugees who found themselves
10 threatened with extradition to Nazi Germany under 11 Article 19 of the Franco-German Armistice—the 12 “Surrender on Demand clause”.

13           (12) Though risking his personal security in the 14 face of both Gestapo and Vichy officials, Fry did
15 what was necessary to save as many of the refugees
16 as possible.

17           (13) Varian Fry aided in the rescue of nearly 18 2,000 individuals, including artists Marc Chaggall,
19 Andre Breton, and Max Ernst.

20           (14) The United States Holocaust Memorial
21 Council awarded Varian Fry its highest honor, the 22 Eisenhower Liberation Medal in 1991.

23           (15) In 1996, Yad Vashem posthumously hon-
24 ored Fry as the first American “Righteous Among

1 the Nations”, and the French government awarded
2 him the Croix de Chevalier de la Legion d’Honneur.

3 (16) The actions of Oskar Schindler and Varian
4 Fry serve as testimony to all people that even under 5 the worst of circumstances, the most ordinary of us
6 can act courageously.

7 (17) Oskar Schindler and Varian Fry are true
8 heroes and humanitarians, deserving of honor by the 9 United States Government.

18 to pay for the cost of the medals authorized by this Act.

20 sale of duplicate bronze medals under section 3 shall be
