

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Whereas in 1982, 1984, 1988, 1990, 1992, 1994, and 1996, Congress, by concurrent resolution, declared that it holds the Government of Iran responsible for upholding the rights of all its nationals, including members of the Baha'i Faith, Iran's largest religious minority;

Whereas Congress has deplored the Government of Iran's religious persecution of the Baha'i community in such resolutions and in numerous other appeals, and has condemned Iran's execution of more than 200 Baha'is and the imprisonment of thousands of others solely on account of their religious beliefs;

Whereas in July 1998 a Baha'i, Mr. Ruhollah Rowhani, was executed by hanging in Mashhad after being held in solitary confinement for 9 months on the charge of converting a Muslim woman to the Baha'i Faith, a charge the woman herself refuted;

Whereas 4 Baha'is remain on death row in Iran, 2 on charges on apostasy, and 11 others are serving prison terms on charges arising solely from their religious beliefs or activities;

Whereas the Government of Iran continues to deny individual Baha'is access to higher education and government employment and denies recognition and religious rights to the Baha'i community, according to the policy set forth in a confidential Iranian Government document which was revealed by the United Nations Commission on Human Rights in 1993;

Whereas Baha'is have been banned from teaching and studying at Iranian universities since the Islamic Revolution and therefore created the Baha'i Institute of Higher Education, or Baha'i Open University, to provide educational opportunities to Baha'i youth using volunteer faculty and a network of classrooms, libraries, and laboratories in private homes and buildings throughout Iran;

Whereas in September and October 1998, Iranian authorities arrested 36 faculty members of the Open University, 4 of whom have been given prison sentences ranging between 3 to 10 years, even though the law makes no mention of religious instruction within one's own religious community as being an illegal activity;

Whereas Iranian intelligence officers looted classroom equipment, textbooks, computers, and other personal property from 532 Baha'i homes in an attempt to close down the Open University;

Whereas all Baha'i community properties in Iran have been confiscated by the government, and Iranian Baha'is are not permitted to elect their leaders, organize as a community, operate religious schools, or conduct other religious community activities guaranteed by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights;

Whereas on February 22, 1993, the United Nations Commission on Human Rights published a formerly confidential Iranian government document that constitutes a blueprint for the destruction of the Baha'i community and reveals that these repressive actions are the result of a deliberate policy designed and approved by the highest officials of the Government of Iran; and

Whereas in 1998 the United Nations Special Representative for Human Rights, Maurice Copithorne, was denied entry into Iran: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives
2 concurring), That Congress—

3 (1) continues to hold the Government of Iran
4 responsible for upholding the rights of all its nation-
5 als, including members of the Baha'i community, in 6 a manner consistent with Iran's obligations under 7 the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and 8 other international agreements guaranteeing the civil 9 and political rights of its citizens;

10 (2) condemns the repressive anti-Baha'i policies
11 and actions of the Government of Iran, including the 12 denial of legal recognition to the Baha'i community
13 and the basic rights to organize, elect its leaders,
14 educate its youth, and conduct the normal activities
15 of a law-abiding religious community;

16 (3) expresses concern that individual Baha'is
17 continue to suffer from severely repressive and dis-
18 criminatory government actions, including executions
19 and death sentences, solely on account of their reli-
20 gion;

1 (4) urges the Government of Iran to permit
2 Baha'i students to attend Iranian universities and 3 Baha'i faculty to teach at Iranian universities, to re-
4 turn the property confiscated from the Baha'i Open
5 University, to free the imprisoned faculty members
6 of the Open University, and to permit the Open Uni-
7 versity to continue to function;

8 (5) urges the Government of Iran to implement 9 fully the conclusions and recommendations on the 10 emancipation of the Iranian Baha'i community made
11 by the United Nations Special Rapporteur on Reli-12 gious Intolerance, Professor Abdelfattah Amor, in 13 his report of March 1996 to the United Nations
14 Commission of Human Rights;

15 (6) urges the Government of Iran to extend to 16 the Baha'i community the rights guaranteed by the 17 Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the 18 international covenants of human rights, including 19 the freedom of thought, conscience, and religion, and 20 equal protection of the law; and

21 (7) calls upon the President to continue—

22 (A) to assert the United States Govern-
23 ment's concern regarding Iran's violations of 24 the rights of its citizens, including members of 25 the Baha'i community, along with expressions

1 of its concern regarding the Iranian Govern-
2 ment's support for international terrorism and 3 its efforts to acquire weapons of mass destruc-
4 tion;

5 (B) to emphasize that the United States
6 regards the human rights practices of the Gov-
7 ernment of Iran, particularly its treatment of 8 the Baha'i community and other religious mi-
9 norities, as a significant factor in the develop-
10 ment of the United States Government's rela-
11 tions with the Government of Iran;

12 (C) to emphasize the need for the United 13 Nations Special Representative for Human 14 Rights to be granted permission to enter Iran;

15 (D) to urge the Government of Iran to 16 emancipate the Baha'i community by granting 17 those rights guaranteed by the Universal Dec-
18 laration of Human Rights and the international 19 covenants on human rights; and

20 (E) to encourage other governments to 21 continue to appeal to the Government of Iran, 22 and to cooperate with other governments and 23 international organizations, including the 24 United Nations and its agencies, in efforts to 25 protect the religious rights of the Baha'is and

1 other minorities through joint appeals to the 2 Government of Iran and through other appro-
3 priate actions.

Passed the Senate July 19, 2000.

Attest:

Secretary.

106TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

S. CON. RES. 57

Concerning the emancipation of the Iranian Baha'i community.
