

106TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. CON. RES. 70

Requesting that the United States Postal Service issue a commemorative postage stamp honoring the national veterans service organizations of the United States.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

NOVEMBER 5, 1999

Ms. SNOWE submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Governmental Affairs

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Requesting that the United States Postal Service issue a commemorative postage stamp honoring the national veterans service organizations of the United States.

Whereas United States service personnel have fought, bled, and died in every war, conflict, police action, and military intervention in which the United States has engaged during this century and throughout the Nation's history;

Whereas throughout history, veterans service organizations have ably represented the interests of veterans in Congress and State legislatures across the Nation, and established networks of trained service officers who, at no charge, have helped millions of veterans and their families secure the education, disability compensation, and health care benefits they are rightfully entitled to receive as a result of the military service performed by those veterans; and

Whereas veterans service organizations have been deeply involved in countless local community service projects and have been constant reminders of the American ideals of duty, honor, and national service: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives
2 concurring), That the Congress requests that—

3 (1) the United States Postal Service issue a series
4 of commemorative postage stamps honoring the
5 legacy and the continuing contributions of veterans
6 service organizations to the United States; and

7 (2) the Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee
8 recommend to the Postmaster General that such a
9 series of commemorative postage stamps be issued.
