RESOLUTION

Concerning the tenth anniversary of the Tiananmen Square massacre of June 4, 1989, in the People's Republic of China.

Whereas the United States was founded on the democratic principle that all men and women are created equal and entitled to the exercise of their basic human rights;

Whereas freedom of expression and assembly are fundamental human rights that belong to all people and are recognized as such under the United Nations Declaration of Human Rights and the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights;

Whereas the death of the former General Secretary of the Communist Party of the People's Republic of China, Hu Yaobang, on April 15, 1989, gave rise to peaceful protests throughout China calling for the establishment of a dialogue with government and party leaders on democratic reforms, including freedom of expression, freedom of assembly, and the elimination of corruption by government officials;

Whereas after that date thousands of prodemocracy demonstrators continued to protest peacefully in and around Tiananmen Square in Beijing until June 3 and 4, 1989, when Chinese authorities ordered the People's Liberation Army and other security forces to use lethal force to disperse demonstrators in Beijing, especially around Tiananmen Square;

Whereas nonofficial sources, a Chinese Red Cross report from June 7, 1989, and the State Department Country Reports on Human Rights Practices for 1989, gave various estimates of the numbers of people killed and wounded in 1989 by the People's Liberation Army soldiers and other security forces, but agreed that hundreds, if not thousands, were killed and thousands more were wounded;

Whereas 20,000 people nationwide suspected of taking part in the democracy movement were arrested and sentenced without trial to prison or reeducation through labor, and many were reportedly tortured;

Whereas human rights groups such as Human Rights Watch, Human Rights in China, and Amnesty International have documented that hundreds of those arrested remain in prison;

Whereas the Government of the People's Republic of China continues to suppress dissent by imprisoning prodemocracy activists, journalists, labor union leaders, religious believers, and other individuals in China and Tibet who seek to express their political or religious views in a peaceful manner; and

Whereas June 4, 1999, is the tenth anniversary of the date of the Tiananmen Square massacre: Now, therefore, be it

1       Resolved, That the Senate—

2               (1) expresses sympathy to the families of those 3       killed as a result of their participation in the democ-
4       racy protests of 1989 in the People’s Republic of 5       China, as well as to the families of those who have 6       been killed and to those who have suffered for their 7       efforts to keep that struggle alive during the past
8       decade;

9               (2) commends all citizens of the People’s Re-10       public of China who are peacefully advocating for 11       democracy and human rights; and

12              (3) condemns the ongoing and egregious human 13       rights abuses by the Government of the People’s Re-14       public of China and calls on that Government to—

15                   (A) reevaluate the official verdict on the 16       June 4, 1989, Tiananmen prodemocracy activi-
17       ties and order relevant procuratorial organs to 18       open formal investigations on the June fourth
19       event with the goal of bringing those respon-
20       sible to justice;

1 (B) establish a June Fourth Investigation
2 Committee, the proceedings and findings of 3 which should be accessible to the public, to 4 make a just and independent inquiry into all
5 matters related to June 4, 1989;

6 (C) release all prisoners of conscience, in-7 cluding those still in prison as a result of their 8 participation in the peaceful prodemocracy pro-
9 tests of May and June 1989, provide just com-10 pensation to the families of those killed in those 11 protests, and allow those exiled on account of 12 their activities in 1989 to return and live in 13 freedom in the People's Republic of China;

14 (D) put an immediate end to harassment,
15 detention, and imprisonment of Chinese citizens
16 exercising their legitimate rights to the freedom
17 of expression, freedom of association, and free-18 dom of religion; and

19 (E) demonstrate its willingness to respect
20 the rights of all Chinese citizens by proceeding
21 quickly to ratify and implement the Inter-
22 national Covenant on Civil and Political Rights
23 which it signed on October 5, 1998.
