CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Commending the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration for their efforts to remind parents and care givers to use child safety seats and seat belts when transporting children in vehicles and for sponsoring National Child Passenger Safety Week.

Whereas great progress has been made in increasing the use of child safety seats in vehicles, which has reduced the number of deaths of children involved in traffic accidents, but much more remains to be done;

Whereas more than half of all children killed in motor vehicle crashes in 2000 were completely unrestrained;

Whereas motor vehicle crashes are the leading cause of death for children ages 4 to 14;

Whereas child safety seats reduce fatal injury by 71 percent for infants and by 54 percent for toddlers in passenger cars; and

Whereas the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration sponsors National Child Passenger Safety Week, February 10 through 16, 2002, to help remind parents and care givers that all children should be placed in child safety seats every time they ride in a car or truck: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That the Congress commends the National
3 Highway Traffic Safety Administration for its efforts to 4 remind parents and care givers to use child safety seats
5 and seat belts when transporting children in vehicles and
6 for sponsoring National Child Passenger Safety Week,
7 February 10 through 16, 2002.
