1ST SESSION

H. RES. 251

Recognizing the League of United Latin American Citizens for sponsoring LULAC Senior Citizens Week in California, and commending the League for providing more than 70 years of service to Hispanic Americans of all ages.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

OCTOBER 2, 2001

Ms. ROYBAL-ALLARD submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Government Reform

RESOLUTION

Recognizing the League of United Latin American Citizens for sponsoring LULAC Senior Citizens Week in California, and commending the League for providing more than 70 years of service to Hispanic Americans of all ages.

Whereas the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC) was founded in 1929 in Corpus Christi, Texas, to protect the civil rights of Hispanic Americans;

Whereas LULAC is the oldest and largest membership organization in the United States devoted exclusively to protecting the interests of Hispanic Americans;

Whereas LULAC has worked to advance the interests of Hispanic Americans in the areas of education, employment, economic development, and civil rights;

Whereas the membership of LULAC reflects a broad cross-section of the Hispanic American community and includes Mexicans, Puerto Ricans, Cubans, and Central and South Americans;

Whereas LULAC represents Hispanic Americans of all ages, from children to senior citizens; and

Whereas the California Executive Board of LULAC unanimously declared the week beginning October 1, 2001, as “LULAC Senior Citizens Week” in honor of Hispanic American senior citizens in California: Now, therefore, be it
