1ST SESSION

H. RES. 95

Expressing the support for a National Week of Reflection and Tolerance.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 20, 2001

Mr. RANGEL submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Government Reform

RESOLUTION

Expressing the support for a National Week of Reflection and Tolerance.

Whereas the United States is a pluralistic country comprised of different races, genders, ethnic groups, religions, and creeds;

Whereas our Nation, founded on the principles of tolerance, diversity, justice, and equality, should affirm these common values and principles; and

Whereas the people of the United States should reflect on the importance of understanding and tolerance in our pluralistic country: Now, therefore, be it

- 1 Resolved, That a National Week of Reflection and
- 2 Tolerance should be established encouraging communities
- 3 and institutions around the Nation to engage in events

1 and activities that are reflective, educational, celebratory,
2 and healing as they relate to diversity among the people
3 of the United States.
