

107TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 1813

To require the United States Trade Representative to keep the House of Representatives Committee on Resources and the Senate Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation informed with respect to negotiations and agreements on fish and shellfish.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

DECEMBER 12, 2001

Mrs. SNOWE introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Finance

A BILL

To require the United States Trade Representative to keep the House of Representatives Committee on Resources and the Senate Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation informed with respect to negotiations and agreements on fish and shellfish.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-

2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. USTR TO KEEP CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES

4 INFORMED ABOUT FISH AND SHELLFISH NE-

5 GOTIATIONS.

6 In any international negotiation relating to fish or

7 shellfish, and before signing any international agreement

1 relating thereto, the United States Trade Representative
2 shall consult closely and on a timely basis with the House
3 of Representatives Committee on Resources and the Sen-
4 ate Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transpor-
5 tation.

○