CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of Congress with respect to the involvement of the Government of Libya in the terrorist bombing of Pan Am Flight 103, and for other purposes.

Whereas 270 people, including 189 Americans, were killed in the terrorist bombing of Pan Am Flight 103 over Lockerbie, Scotland, on December 21, 1988;

Whereas, on January 31, 2001, the 3 judges of the Scottish court meeting in the Netherlands to try the 2 Libyan suspects in the bombing of Pan Am 103 found that “the conception, planning, and execution of the plot which led to the planting of the explosive device was of Libyan origin”;

Whereas the Court found conclusively that Abdel Basset al Megrahi “caused an explosive device to detonate on board Pan Am 103” and sentenced him to a life term in prison;

Whereas the Court accepted the evidence that Abdel Basset al Megrahi was a member of the Jamahiriyah Security Organization, one of the main Libyan intelligence services;

Whereas the United Nations Security Council Resolutions 731, 748, 883, and 1192 demanded that the Government of Libya provide appropriate compensation to the families of the victims, accept responsibility for the actions of Libyan officials in the bombing of Pan Am 103, provide a full accounting of its involvement in this terrorist act, and cease all support for terrorism; and

Whereas, contrary to previous declarations by the Government of Libya and its representatives, in the wake of the conviction of Abdel Basset al Megrahi, Colonel Muammar Qadhafi refuses to accept the judgment of the Scottish court or to comply with the requirements of the Security Council under existing resolutions: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives 2 concurring),

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This concurrent resolution may be cited as the “Justice for the Victims of Pan Am 103 Resolution of 2001”.

6 SEC. 2. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

7 It is the sense of Congress that—

1 (1) the entire international community should
2 condemn, in the strongest possible terms, the Gov-
3 ernment of Libya and its leader, Colonel Muammar
4 Qadhafi, for support of international terrorism, in-
5 cluding the bombing of Pan Am 103;

6 (2) the Government of Libya should
7 immediately—

8 (A) make a full and complete accounting of
9 its involvement in the bombing of Pan Am 103;

10 (B) accept responsibility for the actions of 11 Libyan officials;

12 (C) provide appropriate compensation to
13 the families of the victims of Pan Am 103; and

14 (D) demonstrate in word and deed a full
15 renunciation of support for international ter-
16 rorism;

17 (3) the President should instruct the United
18 States Permanent Representative to the United Na-
19 tions to use the voice, and, if necessary, the vote of 20 the United States, to maintain United Nations sanc-
21 tions against Libya until all conditions laid out or
22 referred to in the applicable Security Council resolu-
23 tions are met; and

24 (4) the President should instruct the United
25 States Permanent Representative to the United Na-

1 tions to seek the reimposition of sanctions against
2 Libya currently suspended in the event that Libya
3 fails to comply with those United Nations Security
4 Council resolutions.

5 SEC. 3. POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES TOWARD LIBYA.

6 It should be the policy of the United States to—

7 (1) oppose the removal of United Nations sanc-
8 tions until the Government of Libya has—

9 (A) made a full and complete accounting of
10 its involvement in the bombing of Pan Am 103;

11 (B) accepted responsibility for the actions
12 of Libyan officials;

13 (C) provided appropriate compensation to
14 the families of the victims of Pan Am 103; and

15 (D) demonstrated in word and deed a full
16 renunciation of support for international ter-
17 rorism; and

18 (2) maintain United States sanctions on Libya,
19 including those sanctions on all forms of assistance
20 and all other United States restrictions on trade and 21 travel to Libya, until—

22 (A) the Government of Libya has fulfilled
23 the requirements of United Nations Security
24 Council Resolutions 731, 748, 883, and 1192;

25 (B) the President—

1 (i) certifies under section 620A(c) of
2 the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 (22
3 U.S.C. 2371(c)) that Libya no longer pro-
4 vides support for international terrorism;
5 and

6 (ii) has provided to Congress an ex-
7 planation of the steps taken by the Gov-
8 ernment of Libya to resolve any out-
9 standing claims against that government
10 by United States persons relating to inter-
11 national terrorism; and

12 (C) the Government of Libya is not pur-
13 suing weapons of mass destruction or the 14 means to deliver them in contravention of 15 United States law.

16 SEC. 4. TRANSMITTAL OF CONCURRENT RESOLUTION.

17 The Secretary of the Senate shall transmit a copy
18 of this concurrent resolution to the President.
