

107TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. CON. RES. 48

Recognizing Habitat for Humanity International for its work in helping families in the United States to realize the dream of homeownership.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JUNE 8, 2001

Mr. ALLARD (for himself, Mr. SARBANES, Mr. REED, and Mr. BROWNBACK) submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Recognizing Habitat for Humanity International for its work in helping families in the United States to realize the dream of homeownership.

Whereas Habitat for Humanity International helps to provide the means for people to achieve the dream of homeownership;

Whereas in 2001, Habitat for Humanity International celebrates its 25th anniversary;

Whereas in 2000, Habitat for Humanity International provided 86,000 people the opportunity to own a home, making it the most productive year in the organization's history;

Whereas Habitat for Humanity International should be commended for building more than 100,000 homes in 76 countries and for giving more than half a million people the opportunity to fulfill the dream of homeownership;

Whereas more than 2,000 affiliates and hundreds of thousands of volunteers worldwide participate in “builds” sponsored by Habitat for Humanity International; and

Whereas many Members of the House of Representatives and the Senate, their spouses, and their staffs have shown a strong commitment to Habitat for Humanity International by personally participating in the building of almost 500 homes as part of the Habitat for Humanity International programs known as “The Houses That Congress Build” and “The Houses the Senate Built”;
Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives
2 concurring), That the Congress—

3 (1) honors and congratulates Habitat for Hu-
4 manity International for 25 years of service to the
5 people of the United States;

6 (2) expresses its appreciation for the work done
7 by Habitat for Humanity International to help so
8 many people in the United States realize the dream
9 of homeownership; and

10 (3) expresses the hope that Habitat for Human-
11 ity International will enjoy many more productive
12 and successful years.
