IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

APRIL 22, 2004

Mr. SMITH of New Jersey (for himself and Mr. FERGUSON) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on International Relations

---

A BILL

To require a report on acts of anti-Semitism around the world.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Global Anti-Semitism
5       Review Act of 2004”.

6       SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7       Congress makes the following findings:

8               (1) Acts of anti-Semitism in countries through-
9       out the world, including some of the world’s strong-
10      est democracies, have increased significantly in fre-
11      quency and scope over the last several years.

1           (2) During the first 3 months of 2004, there
2 were numerous instances of anti-Semitic violence
3 around the world, including the following incidents:

4           (A) In Australia on January 5, 2004, poi-
5 son was used to ignite, and burn anti-Semitic
6 slogans into, the lawns of the Parliament House
7 in the state of Tasmania.

8           (B) In St. Petersburg, Russia, on Feb-
9 ruary 15, 2004, vandals desecrated approxi-
10 mately 50 gravestones in a Jewish cemetery,
11 painting the stones with swastikas and anti-Se-
12 mitic graffiti.

13           (C) In Toronto, Canada, over the weekend
14 of March 19 through March 21, 2004, vandals
15 attacked a Jewish school, a Jewish cemetery, 16 and area synagogues, painting swastikas and 17 anti-Semitic slogans on the walls of a syna-
18 gogue and on residential property in a nearby,
19 predominantly Jewish, neighborhood.

20           (D) In Toulon, France, on March 23,
21 2004, a Jewish synagogue and community cen-
22 ter were set on fire.

23           (3) Anti-Semitism in old and new forms is also 24 increasingly emanating from the Arab and Muslim
25 world on a sustained basis, including through books

1 published by government-owned publishing houses in 2 Egypt and other Arab countries.

3 (4) In November 2002, state-run television in 4 Egypt broadcast the anti-Semitic series entitled
5 “Horseman Without a Horse,” which is based upon
6 the fictitious conspiracy theory know as the Proto-
7 cols of the Elders of Zion. The Protocols have been 8 used throughout the last century by despots such as 9 Adolf Hitler to justify violence against Jews.

10 (5) In November 2003, Arab television featured 11 an anti-Semitic series, entitled “Ash-Shatat” (or 12 “The Diaspora”), which depicts Jewish people
13 hatching a plot for Jewish control of the world.

14 (6) The sharp rise in anti-Semitic violence has 15 caused international organizations such as the Orga-
16 nization for Security and Cooperation in Europe
17 (OSCE) to elevate, and bring renewed focus to, the 18 issue, including the convening by the OSCE in June 19 2003 of a conference in Vienna dedicated solely to 20 the issue of anti-Semitism.

21 (7) The OSCE will again convene a conference
22 dedicated to addressing the problem of anti-Semi-23 tism on April 28–29, 2004, in Berlin, with the 24 United States delegation to be led by former Mayor
25 of New York City Ed Koch.

1           (8) The United States Government has strongly
2 supported efforts to address anti-Semitism through 3 bilateral relationships and interaction with inter-
4 national organizations such as the OSCE, the Euro-
5 pean Union, and the United Nations.

6           (9) Congress has consistently supported efforts
7 to address the rise in anti-Semitic violence. During 8 the 107th Congress, both the Senate and the House
9 of Representatives passed resolutions expressing
10 strong concern with the sharp escalation of anti-Se-
11 mitic violence in Europe and calling on the Depart-
12 ment of State to thoroughly document the phe-
13 nomenon.

14 SEC. 3. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

15 It is the sense of Congress that—

16           (1) the United States Government should con-
17 tinue to strongly support efforts to combat anti-
18 Semitism worldwide through bilateral relationships
19 and interaction with international organizations such 20 as the OSCE; and

21           (2) the Department of State should thoroughly
22 document acts of anti-Semitism that occur around
23 the world.

1 SEC. 4. REPORT.

2 Not later than 180 days after the date of enactment
3 of this Act, and annually thereafter, the Secretary of State
4 shall submit to the Committee on Foreign Relations of the 5 Senate and the Committee on International Relations of 6 the House of Representatives a report on acts of anti-Sem-
7 itism around the world, including a description of—

8 (1) acts of physical violence against, or harass-
9 ment of, Jewish people, and acts of violence against,
10 or vandalism of, Jewish community institutions,
11 such as schools, synagogues, or cemeteries, that oc-
12 curred in each country;

13 (2) the responses of the governments of those 14 countries to such actions;

15 (3) the actions taken by such governments to 16 enact and enforce laws relating to the protection of 17 the right to religious freedom of Jewish people; and

18 (4) the efforts by such governments to promote 19 anti-bias and tolerance education.
