

108TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

S. RES. 400

Recognizing the 2004 Congressional Awards Gold Medal Recipients.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JULY 7, 2004

Mr. CRAIG (for himself and Mr. BAUCUS) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Governmental Affairs

RESOLUTION

Recognizing the 2004 Congressional Awards Gold Medal Recipients.

Whereas today's youth are vital to the preservation of our country and will be the future bearers of the bright torch of democracy;

Whereas youth need positive direction as they transition into adulthood;

Whereas the United States needs increased numbers of community volunteers acting as positive influences on the Nation's youth;

Whereas the Congressional Awards program is committed to recognizing our Nation's most valuable asset, our youth, by encouraging them to set and accomplish goals in the areas of volunteer public service, personal development, physical fitness, and expedition/exploring;

Whereas more than 14,000 young people have been involved in the Congressional Awards program this year;

Whereas through the efforts of dedicated advisors across the country this year 176 students earned the Congressional Award Gold Medal; and

Whereas increased awareness of the program's existence will encourage youth throughout the Nation to become involved with the Congressional Awards: Now, therefore, be it
