

109TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 2991

To prohibit United States foreign assistance from being provided to any country that refuses to extradite to the United States individuals accused of killing law enforcement officers.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JUNE 20, 2005

Mr. MCHENRY (for himself and Mr. BEAUPREZ) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on International Relations

A BILL

To prohibit United States foreign assistance from being provided to any country that refuses to extradite to the United States individuals accused of killing law enforcement officers.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. PROHIBITION ON PROVISION OF UNITED
4 STATES FOREIGN ASSISTANCE TO CERTAIN
5 COUNTRIES.

6 (a) PROHIBITION.—No United States foreign assist-
7 ance may be provided to any country the government of 8 which refuses to extradite to the United States, upon the

1 request of the United States Government, any individual
2 accused in the United States of killing a law enforcement
3 officer.

4 (b) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

5 (1) UNITED STATES FOREIGN ASSISTANCE.—

6 The term “United States foreign assistance” means
7 assistance under the foreign operations, export fi-
8 nancing, and related programs appropriations Act
9 for a fiscal year, and assistance under the Foreign
10 Assistance Act of 1961.

11 (2) LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER.—The term

12 “law enforcement officer” means an individual in-
13 volved in crime and juvenile delinquency control or 14 reduction, or enforcement of the laws, for the United
15 States Government, the government of a State or 16 the District of Columbia, or a local government, in-
17 cluding, but not limited to, police, corrections, pro-
18 bation, parole, and judicial officers.

○