

109TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 4283

To require the Comptroller General to conduct a review of the basic training provided by United States Customs and Border Protection to Border Patrol agents to ensure that this training is being conducted as efficiently and cost-effectively as possible.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

NOVEMBER 9, 2005

Mr. ROGERS of Alabama (for himself, Mr. MEEK of Florida, and Mr. MCCAUL of Texas) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Homeland Security

A BILL

To require the Comptroller General to conduct a review of the basic training provided by United States Customs and Border Protection to Border Patrol agents to ensure that this training is being conducted as efficiently and cost-effectively as possible.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Review to Ensure High
5 Quality Cost-Effective Training for Border Patrol Agents
6 Act of 2005”.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 Congress finds the following:

3 (1) United States Customs and Border Protec-
4 tion within the Department of Homeland Security is 5 authorized to hire and train 2,000 new Border Pa-
6 trol agents for each of the next five years in order
7 to strengthen security along United States borders.

8 (2) Congress has requested United States Cus-
9 toms and Border Protection to provide information
10 regarding the funding and resource needs of the De-11 partment to meet this goal. To date, Congress has 12 not received a satisfactory explanation of the costs
13 to train new Border Patrol agents.

14 (3) It is critical to United States security that 15 the Border Patrol has a sufficient number of trained
16 agents on active duty to secure United States bor-
17 ders.

18 (4) It is also critical to the national economy
19 that Border Patrol training and other Federal train-
20 ing programs be as cost-effective as possible.

21 SEC. 3. GOVERNMENT ACCOUNTABILITY OFFICE REVIEW.

22 (a) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 90 days after the 23 date of the enactment of this Act, the Comptroller General
24 of the United States shall conduct a review of the basic 25 training provided by United States Customs and Border
26 Protection to Border Patrol agents to ensure that this

1 training is being conducted as efficiently and cost-effec-
2 tively as possible.

3 (b) CONTENTS OF REVIEW.—The review shall include
4 the following:

5 (1) An evaluation of the appropriateness of the 6 length and content of the basic training curriculum
7 provided by the Federal Law Enforcement Training
8 Center to new Border Patrol agents.

9 (2) An evaluation of the appropriateness and a 10 detailed breakdown of the costs incurred by United 11 States Customs and Border Protection and the Fed-
12 eral Law Enforcement Training Center to train one
13 new Border Patrol agent.

14 (3) A cost and effectiveness of training com-
15 parison with other similar law enforcement training 16 programs provided by State and local agencies, non-17 profit organizations, universities, and the private 18 sector.

19 (4) Recommendations to increase the number of 20 Border Patrol agents trained per year, and to reduce 21 the per-agent costs of basic training—

22 (A) through utilization of comparable
23 training programs sponsored by State and local 24 agencies, non-profit organizations, universities,
25 and the private sector;

1 (B) by allowing Border Patrol agents to 2 take proficiency tests, enroll in long distance
3 learning programs, and waive such courses as 4 Spanish language instruction or physical fit-5 ness; or

6 (C) by any other means the Comptroller
7 General considers appropriate.

8 (c) REPORT.—Not later than 90 days after the com-9 pletion of the review required under subsection (a), the 10 Comptroller General shall submit to Congress a report
11 containing the findings and recommendations of the re-
12 view.
