RESOLUTION

Recognizing the historic steps India and Pakistan have taken toward achieving bilateral peace.

Whereas the Republic of India achieved its independence from the British Empire on August 15, 1947, is home to some of the most ancient civilizations, and has given birth to four major world religions;

Whereas on August 14, 1947, the Islamic Republic of Pakistan was created and is home to many of the significant sites of the 4,500-year old Indus Valley Civilization;

Whereas in April 2003 former Indian Prime Minister Atal Behari Vajpayee offered the “hand of friendship” to Pakistan in a landmark address made in the State of Jammu and Kashmir;

Whereas in February 2004 India and Pakistan began their first formal talks in nearly three years, the talks held in Islamabad, Pakistan, paved the way for full peace talks;

Whereas in June 2004 India and Pakistan reaffirmed their unilateral moratorium on nuclear weapons tests and set up a hotline to alert each other to potential nuclear risks;

Whereas in September 2004 Indian Prime Minister Manmohan Singh and Pakistan’s President Pervez Musharraf met for talks in New York on the occasion of the United Nations General Assembly and at the conclusion of these talks they issued a joint statement in which they agreed that on the issue of Jammu and Kashmir “possible options for a peaceful, negotiated settlement of the issue should be explored”;

Whereas in April 2005 India and Pakistan launched a landmark bus service across the Line of Control in Jammu and Kashmir, the “peace bus” allowing families divided by the Line of Control to be reunited for the first time in nearly 60 years;

Whereas on April 18, 2005, India and Pakistan concluded a historic three day summit in India in which Prime Minister Singh and President Musharraf held meaningful talks on all issues, including the issue of Jammu and Kashmir, and came to a series of agreements to boost trade and cross-border travel;

Whereas “in this spirit the two leaders addressed the issue of Jammu and Kashmir and agreed to continue these discussions in a sincere and purposeful and forward looking manner for a final settlement” and “they were satisfied with the discussions and expressed their determination to work together to carry forward the process and to bring the benefit of peace to their people” as stated by the joint statement signed by Prime Minister Singh and President Musharraf;

Whereas both leaders “condemned attempts to disrupt the Srinagar-Muzaffarabad bus service and welcomed its successful operationalisation” and “pledged that they would not allow terrorism to impede the peace process”;

Whereas both leaders “decided to increase the frequency of the bus service and also decided that trucks would be allowed to use this route to promote trade” and “also agreed to operationalise additional routes including that between Poonch and Rawalakot” and “look forward to early start of the bus service between Amritsar and Lahore and to religious places such as Nankana Sahib” and “agreed to re-establish the Khokhrapar-Munnabao route by 1st January 2006”; and

Whereas at the conclusion of the most recent talks Prime Minister Singh and President Musharraf declared in their joint statement that they were “conscious of the historic opportunity created by the improved environment in relations and the overwhelming desire of the peoples of the two countries for durable peace and recognizing their responsibility to continue to move forward towards that objective, the two leaders had substantive talks on all issues” and “they determined that the peace process was now irreversible”: Now, therefore, be it
