

109TH CONGRESS
2^D SESSION

H. RES. 798

Recognizing and celebrating students who overcome immeasurable adversity to excel academically.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MAY 4, 2006

Mr. FATTAH submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Education and the Workforce

RESOLUTION

Recognizing and celebrating students who overcome immeasurable adversity to excel academically.

Whereas the United States of America was founded on the principles of fair competition, collaboration, and equal opportunity;

Whereas the preparation of young people for success in the 21st century and beyond is the primary objective of America's public education system;

Whereas a high-quality, highly competitive education for all students is imperative for the economic growth and productivity of the United States;

Whereas a well-educated populace is critical to the Nation's political and economic well-being and national security;

Whereas all students in public elementary schools and secondary schools must have access to an equitable and effective education in order to succeed;

Whereas students across America work hard every day, overcoming substantial barriers to their academic achievement;

Whereas individuals, communities, schools, and families succeed in the face of great odds to secure educational opportunity for American children; and

Whereas continued academic excellence in every community is vital to American progress and global competitiveness:
Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2 (1) commends those students who have risen
3 above the obstacles to their success, both internal 4 and external;

5 (2) recognizes the contributions of families,
6 schools, and communities in student achievement;

7 (3) encourages all students to continue to work
8 hard and strive for excellence;

9 (4) congratulates Hollywood for meeting the 10 challenge of positively depicting young people in 11 film; and

12 (5) recognizes the talents of Laurence
13 Fishburne, Angela Bassett, Keke Palmer, and Doug
14 Atchison for the portrayal of an American edu-

- 1 educational success story in the newly released movie,
- 2 Akeela and the Bee.
