

109TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. CON. RES. 13

Congratulating ASME on their 125th anniversary, celebrating the achievements of ASME members, and expressing the gratitude of the American people for ASME's contributions.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

FEBRUARY 15, 2005

Mr. SUNUNU submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was considered and agreed to

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Congratulating ASME on their 125th anniversary, celebrating the achievements of ASME members, and expressing the gratitude of the American people for ASME's contributions.

Whereas in 2005, ASME, incorporated in 1880 as the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, celebrates its 125th anniversary as one of the premier professional organizations focused on technical, educational, and research issues of the engineering community;

Whereas ASME plays a key role in protecting the welfare and safety of the public through the development and promulgation of over 600 codes and standards, including codes governing the manufacture of boilers, pressure vessels, elevators, escalators, petroleum and hazardous liquid pipelines, cranes, forklifts, power tools, screw threads and fasteners, and many other products routinely used by industry and people in the United States and around the world;

Whereas ASME, through its 120,000 members, works diligently to ensure the provision of quality science, technology, engineering, and mathematics education for young people as a way to foster and encourage the advancement of technology;

Whereas industrial pioneers and ASME members such as Thomas Edison, Henry Ford, and George Westinghouse helped to build ASME's engineering society even as ASME was helping to build the economy of the United States;

Whereas ASME members help to ensure the development and operation of quality and technologically advanced transportation systems, including automobile, rail, and air travel;

Whereas ASME members contribute to research and development that identifies emerging and future technical needs in evolving and multidisciplinary areas;

Whereas ASME continues to provide quality continuing education programs designed to keep engineers at the cutting edge of technology; and

Whereas in the aftermath of the terrorist attacks on the United States of September 11, 2001, ASME members have intensified efforts to develop technologies for homeland security and the protection of the critical assets of this Nation: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives
2 concurring), That the Congress—

1 (1) congratulates ASME on its 125th anniver-
2 sary;

3 (2) recognizes and celebrates the achievements
4 of all ASME members;

5 (3) expresses the gratitude of the people of the 6 United States for ASME's contributions to the 7 health, safety, and economic well-being of the citi-
8 zenry; and

9 (4) directs the Secretary of the Senate to trans-
10 mit an enrolled copy of this resolution to the presi-
11 dent of ASME.
