

110TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. 156

Honoring and thanking John Thomas Caulfield for a life-long professional commitment to public service and for his years of dedicated service on behalf of the United States Capitol Police, the Capitol Police Board, and the Congress.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

FEBRUARY 12, 2007

Mr. MORAN of Virginia submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on House Administration

RESOLUTION

Honoring and thanking John Thomas Caulfield for a life-long professional commitment to public service and for his years of dedicated service on behalf of the United States Capitol Police, the Capitol Police Board, and the Congress.

Whereas John Thomas Caulfield, a native of Buffalo, New York, was appointed as the United States Capitol Police General Counsel on May 16, 1985;

Whereas prior to this federal service, Mr. Caulfield served as Counsel at the Small Business Administration and the United States Railway Association;

Whereas Mr. Caulfield also contributed to the public interest at the local level in Buffalo as a teacher, coach, and youth recreation and sports supervisor and in community development;

Whereas Mr. Caulfield, throughout his career, has distinguished himself through countless commendations and recognitions for legal professionalism and acumen;

Whereas his unmatched breadth of legal expertise in complex constitutional issues, litigation defense, the legislative process and corporate governance issues has rendered him uniquely capable of providing invaluable legal advice to the United States Capitol Police, the Capitol Police Board, and the Congress;

Whereas Mr. Caulfield, through his legendary work ethic and dedication throughout his federal legal career of thirty years, particularly his service as the General Counsel to the Capitol Police Board and the United States Capitol Police for nearly 22 years as the chief legal advisor to those entities, has distinguished himself as a truly devoted public servant; and

Whereas Mr. Caulfield has always considered public service to be an honor and a privilege among the highest of callings: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives honors
2 and extends its sincere appreciation to John Thomas
3 Caulfield and his family for a life-long professional com-
4 mitment to public service and for his years of dedicated
5 service on behalf of the United States Capitol Police, the 6 Capitol Police Board, and the Congress.

○