EXPORTS OF ALASKAN NORTH SLOPE OIL

JULY 21, 1995.—Referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed

---

Mr. MCINNIS, from the Committee on Rules, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany H. Res. 197]

The Committee on Rules, having had under consideration House Resolution 197, by a non-record vote, report the same to the House with the recommendation that the resolution be adopted.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS OF RESOLUTION

The resolution provides for the consideration of H.R. 70, the Exports of Alaskan North Slope Oil under an open rule. The rule provides one hour of general debate divided equally between the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Resources.

The rule makes in order the amendment in the nature of a substitute recommended by the Resources Committee as an original bill for the purpose of amendment under the five minute rule.

The rule further authorizes the Chair to accord priority in recognition to Members who have preprinted their amendments in the Congressional Record. The rule allows the Chair to postpone votes in the Committee of the Whole and reduce votes to five minutes, if those votes follow a 15-minute vote.

After passage of H.R. 70, the rule allows for consideration of S. 395 in the House and a motion to amend the bill as described in the rule, and one motion to recommit with or without instructions. The rule finally allows for a motion that the House insist on its amendments to S. 395 and request a conference with the Senate.

Finally, the rule provides for one motion to recommit, with or without instructions.
