SEPTEMBER 22, 1998.—Ordered to be printed

Mr. CAMPBELL, from the Committee on Indian Affairs, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany H.R. 3069]

The Committee on Indian Affairs, to which was referred the bill (H.R. 3069) to extend the Advisory Council on California Indian Policy to allow the Advisory Council to advise Congress on the implementation of the proposals and recommendations of the Advisory Council, having considered the same, reports favorably thereon with an amendment and recommends that the bill, as amended do pass.

PURPOSES

Under current law, the Advisory Council on California Indian Policy ceases to exist in March, 1998; six (6) months after submitting its report to Congress. In September, 1997, the Advisory Council submitted its report to Congress. H.R. 3069 would provide the Advisory Council with an extension to March 31 2000, to permit the Advisory Council to advise Congress on the implementation of the recommendations contained in its September, 1997, report.

BACKGROUND

In 1992, Congress enacted the Advisory Council on California Indian Policy Act of 1992, P.L. 102-416; as amended, P.L. 104-109. The Act established a statewide Indian Council consisting of representatives of Federally-recognized tribes, terminated tribes, and unacknowledged tribes. The Advisory Council was directed to submit recommendations to Congress regarding remedial measures regarding economic self-sufficiency, education, and health care.

Section 5 of the Act requires the Advisory Council to conduct a comprehensive study of the social, economic and political status of California Indians; the effectiveness of the policies and programs of the United States that affect California Indians; and the services and facilities being provided to California tribes, compared to those being provided to tribes nationwide.

Pursuant to the mandates of the Act, in September, 1997, the Advisory Council submitted its recommendations in the form of an executive summary accompanied by eight (8) separate reports involving Federal recognition; termination; health care; education, culture; community services; economic development; and natural resources.

SUMMARY OF THE PROVISIONS OF H.R. 3069

Under current law, the Advisory Council ceased to exist in March, 1998—six (6) months after submitting its report to Congress. H.R. 3069 would provide the Advisory Council with an extension to March 31, 2000.

It is proposed that within this extended period, the Advisory Council advise Congress on the implementation of the recommendations contained in its September, 1997, report. Specifically, under the terms of H.R. 3069, the Advisory Council is requested:

1. To consult with Federal agencies and departments regarding potential changes in law, regulation or policy;
2. Present draft legislation to Congress to implement its recommendations;
3. Initiate discussions in the State of California to identify areas of potential state-tribal cooperation to complement Federal actions;
4. Provide information to and consult with California Indian tribes on discussions with Federal and State agencies regarding implementation of the recommendations; and
5. Provide annual progress reports to the Senate Committee on Indian Affairs and the House Committee on Resources on the status of implementation of the recommendations.

The 1992 Act authorized $700,000 in appropriations to carry out the work of the Advisory Council. No additional appropriations are authorized by H.R. 3069 to carry out the implementation phase of the Advisory Council's work.

COMMITTEE AMENDMENT

An amendment, proposed by Senator Murkowski, to the Coast Guard Authorization Act of 1996, would remove the restriction against use of a site in Ketchikan, Alaska for health or social services activities. The amendment reverses the action taken in the FY 1998 Interior Appropriations Act, thereby restoring the 1996 language limiting the site to "use as a health or social services facility."

The site in Ketchikan, Alaska was originally conveyed in 1996 for use as a "health or social services" facility. In 1997, the Congress revised the use restriction to require either sale or use for non-health purposes to assure that the use restriction did not influence an overriding question of who is the appropriate Native health care provider in the Ketchikan Borough. Since then, the provider issue has been fully and finally resolved. Therefore, the non-health use restriction is no longer necessary, and in fact, hampers the Ketchikan Indian Corporation's efforts to develop a new health facility on this site next to the Ketchikan General Hospital.

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

On June 16, 1998, after being reported favorably by the House Resources Committee, the House passed H.R. 3069. H.R. 3069 was referred to the Committee on Indian Affairs in the Senate.

On June 29, 1998, the Committee in an open business session, considered H.R. 3069, with an amendment proposed by Senator Murkowski. The bill was ordered reported with a recommendation that the bill, as amended, do pass.

COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATION AND TABULATION OF VOTE

The Senate Committee on Indian Affairs, in open business session of June 29, 1998, by unanimous vote, recommends that the Senate pass H.R. 3069 with an amendment.

To complete the efforts of the Advisory Council and to retain the Council as a viable entity should the Congress need to call on it or its members to discuss the recommendations contained in the report, staff recommends that H.R. 3069 be adopted and reported to the Senate.

COST AND BUDGETARY CONSIDERATION

The cost estimate for H.R. 3069 as calculated by the Congressional Budget Office, is set forth below:

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE COST ESTIMATE

H.R. 3069—Advisory Council on California Indian Policy Extension Act of 1997

Summary: H.R. 3069, as ordered reported by the Senate Committee on Indian Affairs, contains two provisions. One would delay the termination date of the Advisory Council on California Indian Policy (ACCIP) until March 31, 2000, and would expand the duties of the council. The other provision would allow the Ketchikan Indian Corporation of Alaska to use a former Coast Guard facility to provide health care services.

CBO estimates that enacting H.R. 3069 would have no significant impact on the federal budget. Because enacting the bill would affect direct spending and receipts, pay-as-you-go procedures would apply, but we estimate that any such effects would be insignificant. The legislation contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (UMRA) and would not affect the budgets of state, local, or tribal governments.

Estimated cost to the Federal Government

Advisory Council on California Indian Policy.—Current law authorizes the ACCIP to operate until 180 days after it has submitted a report, made recommendations, and provided certain information to the Congress and to the Secretaries of the Interior and Health and Human Services. Because the council completed these reporting requirements on September 30, 1997, its operating authority terminated under current law at the end of March 1998. H.R. 3069 would extend the authority of the ACCIP to operate until March 31, 2000, and expand the duties of the council.

Current law authorizes the appropriation of $700,000 for the Advisory Council on California Indian Policy. H.R. 3069 would not amend that authorization. The total amount authorized has already been appropriated for the council, and according to the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA), the council has spent nearly all of its allotted funds. Based on information from BIA, CBO estimates that continued operation of the ACCIP would cost an additional $100,000 a year for the next two years, subject to appropriation of the necessary amounts.

The ACCIP can accept and spend private donations. Donations collected under this authority count as governmental receipts, and their expenditure counts as direct spending. By extending the authority of the council to operate until March 31, 2000, H.R. 3069 also would extend the council's authority to accept and spend donations. CBO estimates that any new collections of receipts would be insignificant.

Ketchikan Indian Corporation.—Current law prohibits the Ketchikan Indian Corporation of Alaska from using a former Coast Guard property that was conveyed to them in 1996 for the provision of certain health programs funded by the Indian Health Service. H.R. 3069, as ordered reported by the Senate Committee on Indian Affairs, would remove this restriction. The change would not affect the amount authorized to be appropriated for the Indian Health Service, or any other federal program.

Pay-as-you-go considerations: Section 252 of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 sets up pay-as-you-go procedures for legislation affecting direct spending or receipts. H.R. 3069 could affect both direct spending and receipts; therefore, pay-as-you-go procedures would apply. CBO estimates, however, that any changes in receipts from donations to the ACCIP and consequent changes in direct spending would both be insignificant.

Intergovernmental and private-sector impact: H.R. 3069 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in UMRA and would not affect the budgets of state, local, or tribal governments.

Previous CBO estimate: On April 13, 1998, CBO provided an estimate for H.R. 2069 as ordered reported by the House Committee on Resources on March 24, 1998. The two versions of the provision affecting the Advisory Council on California Indian Policy are the same. The House version did not contain the provision affecting the Ketchikan Indian Corporation property.

Estimate prepared by: Victoria V. Heid and Dorothy Rosenbaum.

Estimate approved by: Paul N. Van de Water, Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

REGULATORY IMPACT STATEMENT

Paragraph 11(b) of rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate requires each report accompanying a bill to evaluate the regulatory and paperwork impact that would be incurred in implementing the legislation. The Committee has concluded that enactment of H.R. 3069 will create no new regulatory or paperwork burdens.

EXECUTIVE COMMUNICATIONS

The Committee has received no official communications from the Administration on the provisions of the bill.

CHANGES IN EXISTING LAW

In compliance with subsection 12 of rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate, changes in existing law made by the bill are required to be set out in the accompanying Committee report. The Committee states that enactment of H.R. 3069 will result in the following changes in 25 U.S.C. 650, with existing language which is to be deleted in black brackets and new language to be added in italic:
