Nomination of Thomas Glynn To Be Deputy Secretary of Labor

February 19, 1993

The President announced today his intention to nominate Thomas Glynn of Belmont, Massachusetts for the post of Deputy Secretary of Labor. Glynn is currently Brown University's senior vice president for finance and administration.

"One of the most important things we need to do in this administration is learn how to manage the Government better," said President Clinton. "I've pledged to save $9 billion by controlling administrative costs. Thomas Glynn has the kind of experience managing large institutions, both public and private, that is needed to make that happen."

Glynn has served at Brown since April 1991. Prior to that he was the general manager of the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority, general manager of the World Trade Center Boston, deputy commissioner of the Massachusetts Department of Public Welfare, and assistant dean of the Florence Heller Graduate School at Brandeis University. He served in a variety of positions in the Carter administration. Glynn's public service began with 2 years as a VISTA volunteer in South Boston. Glynn is a resident of Belmont, MA.

Nomination of Leslie Samuels To Be an Assistant Secretary of the Treasury

February 19, 1993

President Clinton announced today that he intends to nominate Leslie Samuels, a highly respected tax attorney, as Assistant Secretary for Tax Policy at the Department of Treasury.

"As I take the case for my economic plan to the people of this country," said the President, "I am very pleased to know that someone of Leslie Samuels' caliber will be watching over tax policy at Treasury. He will do an excellent job at keeping my commitment to a tax system that is fair to all Americans."

Samuels, who is a certified public accountant as well as an attorney, has been a partner in the law firm of Cleary, Gotlieb, Steen, and Hamilton since 1975, and has been with the firm since 1968. He is a graduate of the Wharton School of Finance and Commerce at the University of Pennsylvania and of Harvard Law School, where he was editor of the "Law Review." He has co-authored a number of articles on tax issues in such publications as "Tax Law Review" and "Tax Lawyer."

A native of St. Louis, MO, Samuels lives in New York City with his wife, Dr. Augusta Gross. They have two grown children, Colin and Polly.
